Beta Chi Sorority Feted at Ayers Home

MISS MARGARET AYERS and her hostesses to members of Beta Chi sorority at a delightful party last night at the Ayers home on South Cottage. Fall plans were discussed by the group and bridge was in play during the evening.

An informal supper was served by the hostesses late in the evening. Gladioli and sweet peas were attractively arranged about the rooms and on serving table.

Those bidden by the hostesses were Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Margaret Nunn, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Jerryne Upston, Miss Margaret Duce, Miss Jane Fisher, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Victoria Schneider, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Irma Oehler, Miss Melva Belle Savage, Miss Betty Tolva, Miss Margaret Gillette, Miss Mable Lenz, Miss Gretchen Spencer, Miss Grace Bailey, Miss Gertrude Dalk, Miss Charlotte Kallander, Miss Madelle Kappauf, Miss Helena Schneider, and Miss Louise Wheelhouse.

Miss Edith May Jenks, technician at the Salem Deaconess hospital, has left for a two weeks' motor trip to the Oregon beaches. She will be accompanied by Miss Charlotte Scott of Seattle, who is also a technician in the Seattle hospital.

Pattern

For trim chic you just can't beat this jaunty Anne Adams triumph—for there never was a smarter or more easily made shirtwaist frock than Pattern 4151! Distinguished in every line, this simple style is a true "classic" for gay times throughout the Fall and Winter. Choose a bright, but practical fabric—synthetic, a cotton tweed for active sports, or a soft diagonal-weave woolen for afternoons. You'll look your best in its trim collar, youthful puffed sleeves (make a short-sleeved version, too!) and front and back pleats. Don't overlook those handy pockets with their saucy cuffs, or the neatly buttoned front.

Pattern 4151 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 54 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Anne Adams pattern, THREE CENTS (3c) for both. Write name, address, and style number.

Send for your copy of our NEW ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK, just out! See the latest Fall fashions, fabrics, accessories! Learn how easily you can have smart new frocks, a dashing new coat or suit, blouses, skirts, housecoats. Models to flatter every type and age—from tiny toddler to matrons longing for that slim and youthful look! BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS, PATTERNS FIFTEEN CENTS, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosures. Orders will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days from time received by the Statesman.

Large Amount of Hay Will Go East

State agricultural department officials estimated that not less than 50,000 tons of western Oregon hay would be shipped to the drought areas as a result of the emergency rail hay freight rates which become effective today.

Under the new emergency rates hay can be shipped from the Willamette valley to the drought areas for approximately $8.50 ton as against $13.50 a ton under the old tariff.

Governor Martin and Congressman Mott received telegrams stating that the applications of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads for permission to establish emergency hay freight rates had been approved by the interstate commerce commission.

The new rates will continue for an indefinite period.

Pipeline Material Hearing Is Called

A hearing for material dealers interested in Salem's water supply project will be held late next week by the city council's special water construction committee, Mayor V. E. Kuhn, chairman, announced yesterday. Delegations from labor organizations, the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association and the Oregon Manufacturers association are expected to attend.

The committee will listen to the arguments of dealers in all types of material that might be used on the gravity supply line project, the mayor indicated. Representatives of the wood pipe interests several weeks ago requested an opportunity to present their case.
