West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Aug. 20.—Recent guests at the Dale Lemon home were Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Stray and son, Billy and Sylvester Carlson from Mitchell, Nebraska, and Mrs. W. L. Stray of Kent Iowa. Miss Marie Alto Boyer of Ontario, Oregon, also visited at the Lemon home for several days, before going on to the coast and to Portland. On her trip to the coast and Portland she was accompanied by Miss Betty Ann Lemon. They spent three days at the coast and then three days in Portland with Miss Lauretta Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Noble are planning on leaving for Hartford, Connecticut next Wednesday. The Nobles have lived in and near West Salem for the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Rothweiler and family have moved into the Joseph Hunt place on Second street.

Mrs. Dale Lemon gave a party in honor of her daughter, Lauretta Mae, on her ninth birthday. The guests were Norma Jean Newgent, Lillian Turpin, Marjory and Wanda Hathaway, Rose Ann Hanks, Jean Reese, Ruth Shipley and Lauretta Mae Lemon. Miss Georgia and Helen Cook helped Mrs. Lemon supervise the games and served the refreshments.

Miss Jean Lawrence of Tillamook has returned home after spending a couple of weeks here visiting at the homes of her uncles, Everett and Darwin Lawrence.

Two Families Back From Middle West

CENTRAL HOWELL, Aug. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jans and Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed returned home Tuesday after about five weeks spent on a trip to the middle western states where they visited relatives in Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Herr plan to go to Colorado next month for an indefinite stay for the benefit of Mr. Herr's health. Marjorie, Roy and Clarence will go with their parents. Elida has a position as teacher of the Oak Point school in Polk county. Ralph Herr will farm his father's acreage and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gower will occupy their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth, parents of Mrs. Herr, will accompany the Herrs on their trip to Colorado.

Ed Hynes is harvesting his onion seed crop. He has 15 acres.

The Misses Caroline and Norma Zimmerman and Joe and John Kuenzi from Fairbury, Ill., are visiting relatives here, including the Ed Kuenzi and Ernest Werner families.
