Miss Kahle Married to Glasgow Man

Miss Dolores Kahle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kahle of Salem, became the bride of Rudolph Jager of Glasgow, Montana, at a beautiful evening ceremony, Saturday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Emma Holde of McCoy. Rev. Callans of Amity performed the ceremony.

Mrs. August Rohde, the bride's aunt, sang preceding the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ted Rohde.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely dress of white satin and lace. Her long tulle veil was bordered with chintilly lace, and fell from a halo embroidered with bead pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Miss Rita Boblig of Opelheim, Mont., acted as maid of honor for Miss Kahle, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Leel Kahle, and Miss Eleanor Kahle, sister-in-law and sister of the bride. The honor attendants wore a dress of archid taffeta and carried a bouquet of shell pink asters. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in dresses of pale green taffeta and carried colonial nosegays.

Local Kahle acted as best man for Mr. Jager. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held for members of the family and bridal party.

After a wedding trip through Yellowstone park, Mr. and Mrs. Jager will make their home at Glasgow, Montana, where Mr. Jager is in business.

Roosevelt Among Sunflowers

H. J. Griffith, 54 years a democrat, raised sunflowers this spring in the backyard of his home at Portland, Ore. He could not prove them when the republicans adopted the Kansas sunflower emblem in honor of Alfred M. Landon, G.O.P. presidential nominee, because Mrs. Griffith is a republican. He did the next best thing and "planted" a picture of President Roosevelt in the sunflower bed to assure his wise-cracking neighbors that he "was still loyal to the Jeffersonian principles.—International Illustrated News Photo.

Fire Spreads But Damage Is Slight

CLOVERDALE, Aug. 24.—A grass fire on the old Hadley place got out of George Pemberton's control and spread rapidly toward many acres of fine timber, Friday afternoon.

No damage was done as the fire was soon checked by the help of men who left their work and rushed to the vicinity. Stumps and brush burned all night with men watching carefully for further outbreaks.

Nut Crop May Be But 25 Per Cent

Estimate that the Marion county walnut crop would be only 25 per cent of last year's production was made yesterday by County Inspector Van Trump. The estimate was made following personal inspection of practically all local orchards.

Van Trump reported that the seedling crops are almost a complete failure and that the Franquettes which only made 50 per cent set lost another 25 per cent by blight.

The filbert crop is looking good, he said, but there is quite a heavy fall which may cut down the yield.

Prunes are better than last year in Marion county, he stated.

Music Events Are Planned For Fair

The Oregon Federation of Music clubs will present a musical program each afternoon in the art department as a special feature for the Diamond Jubilee Oregon state fair, to be held here September 7 to 13.

The programs are being arranged under the direction of Mrs. Kate Dell Marden of Portland, president of the federated clubs, by Mrs. Walter Denton of Salem. Mrs. Denton is civic music chairman for the Oregon Federation of Music clubs.

The federation will sponsor also a booth on the second floor of the agricultural pavilion, with members to act as hostesses, and to distribute literature of the federation.

Pear Picking Will Continue a Week

LIBERTY, Aug. 24.—Pear picking has been going on here the past week and will quite likely be completed in another week. Pear acreage here is not large, consisting of numerous small lots with some several acres in extent.

Prune orchards and dryers are being put in shape for the harvest, which is expected to start early in September. Orchards are floated and the dryers cleaned and repaired. The wood supply to run the plants for the season is also being laid by.

The Girl Scout troop left last Thursday afternoon on a trip to Thomas creek near Scio where they will camp till Sunday. Mrs. C. C. Sargent accompanied the girls.

Instructor Picks Best Farm Project

Stoutenberg Selected to Exhibit Work at State Fair

AMITY, Aug. 24.—Mr. Thomas, new Smith-Hughes instructor for the Amity union high school, has been busy recently viewing the projects of his students.

He selected the four best projects and assisted by Mr. Carl of McMinnville and Mr. Craig of Newberg, made the final selection from this department this week. Delmar Stoutenberg won the honor to exhibit his project at the state fair. Thomas helped make the final selections from the McMinnville and Newberg departments.

E. B. Cooley, state supervisor of vocational agriculture and Prof. H. H. Gibson of Oregon State college, who are judging the projects at the state fair this year, were in Amity Thursday to view young Stoutenberg's project. Mr. Cooley and Prof. Gibson interviewed Marvin Williams, who is applying for his American Farmer degree.

There are four applicants for this degree from Oregon, one each from Amity, Newberg, Albany and Enterprise. Two will be chosen and sent to the national convention where final selections are made.

Claude Munkers of this vicinity has purchased the E. J. Miller property just west of the Amity depot.

A real estate deal was closed here Friday by which Leslie Cook of Corvallis became the owner of the F. W. Newman property in the southeast part of town, formerly known as the E. W. Rea place. Cook will move his family here soon. He plans to start a commercial hatchery on his newly acquired property.
