

Coos Bay Gives Portland Champs Scare in Softball Tourney

Favorites Held To Three Runs

Pilchard District Outbit Strong Defensively, Lacks Sluggers

Portland's city champions, M & M Woodworkers, won 13 to 1 in an opening game last night just as everyone expected them to do but no one expected that the score would be 3 to 0 and that the Coos Bay team, in the tournament for the first time, would come pretty close to stopping last year's runner up.

Hitting was all the scrappy club from the Coos Bay country lacked as Mickey Berlant, M & M's popular chucker, stopped them with three hits.

Berlant, striking out 11 batters and fooling the Coos boys with his change of pace, pitched a game such as made him the idol of last year's tournament fans. He and Roy Heiser, M & M's stocky first baseman, were practically the whole show as far as the Portland team was concerned. Heiser handled 14 chances at first base without error and was on one end of a double play. Bissaco to Ash to Heiser. Berlant struck out eight of the first nine men.

Sheddy, a boy with a deceptive, crouching delivery, showed that they can turn out a pretty good softball pitcher: down in the pilchard district. Sheddy gave the M & M sluggers only eight hits but that was enough.

Two of Malarkey & Malarkey's runs came in the third. Bissaco and Schlafie singled to set things up and Bissaco raced in from third on Heiser's long fly to left. Schlafie whipped across the plate when A. Paszucki socked out a double straight down the third base line.

Their final came in the sixth on a two base error and two infield outs. A. Paszucki doing the scoring.

Coos Bay didn't manage to get a man on second. M & M will meet Tillamook in the third game Wednesday night. M & M.....3 8 0 Coos Bay.....3 3 3 Berlant and Getter; Sheedy and Moran.

Salem Horseshoe Tossers Win Out

SILVERTON, Aug. 24.—Not even a heavy downpour Sunday afternoon could completely dampen the enthusiasm of the horseshoe tournament here.

Ward Terry, captain of the Silverton team, was official host to 3 Salem group of five men. Brandt, Silverton, made a record by winning 15 straight against each Salem player. However, the visitors won in the finals, 15.1 points.

Twenty five games were played by the two five men teams. A return match will be played at Salem Sunday afternoon, September 6.

Local players are Terry, Nagell, Anderson, Redmond, Brandt and Wills. The Salem men are Peterson, Vick, Brooks, Jansen and Weekly.

Seattle and L. A. Juniors in Final

BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Los Angeles and Seattle are in the finals for the championship of the western sectional junior American Legion baseball tournament here Tuesday afternoon as a result of semi-final victories today.

Los Angeles gathers hammered Omaha hurlers unmercifully for 15 hits to win, 15 to 4, and Seattle defeated Pierre, S. D., 3 to 2.

Whiskers May Fly in Burns-London Tussle

The Colorado Colossus

By BURNLEY

EVERETT MARSHALL, a blond giant who tips the scales at 218 pounds without an ounce of excess adiposity on his massive frame, is one of the many claimants to the wrestling title at present. This Adonis from the Rockies is touted by his manager, "Swenigall" Billy Sandow, as the man to drag the mat game out of the slough of despond in which it is at present wallowing, due to the "fixing" practiced by the various wrestling cliques in control of most of the grapplers.

Tillamook Looks Good in Tournament Debut; Beats McMinnville 7 to 1 by Staging Five-Run Rally, 3rd Frame

TILLAMOOK'S softball club, making its debut in state tournament play, slugged its way to a victory over McMinnville in the opening game of the tourney last night and chalked up another score in the old athletic rivalry between the two towns.

The score was 7 to 1 after Tillamook's hard hitting aggregation had hit into the off-offers of K. Jernstedt, McMinnville pitcher, for 13 base blows. The Tillamook club did its heavy work in a third inning in which it batted all the way around for five runs on five hits and two errors.

Sommekes, Tillamook's pitcher, kept the McMinnville batters handcuffed, limiting them to six scattered hits of which K. Jernstedt accounted for three. He struck out 11 batters and twice set three men down in a row.

If it hadn't been for French, McMinnville center fielder, who socked one almost to the left field fence for a home run in the seventh, Sommekes would have had a shutout.

Hedgerton and Mckers were the heavy hitters for the Tillamook club, each getting three for four.

The Tillamook team will run up against tough opposition Wednesday night when it meets the M & M club, Portland city champions.

Brewers Win Out in Final Contest

Two runs in the sixth and two more on a pair of hits and an error in the eighth gave Hop Woodburn a 7 to 4 victory over Woodburn at Legion park yesterday after the two cellar clubs had battled an even terms for five frames.

Cleanie Irate, Seeks Revenge

Sugat and Wahlberg Meet and Are Expected to Show Science

Whiskers should fly tonight when Bobby Burns attempts to straighten his accounts with the ruffianly Crybaby Mike London in a three out of five fall main event on the American Legion's armory wrestling ticket.

Burns' resenting treatment he received from Burns last week in a semi-final match, demanded that Promoter Herb Owens rematch him with the Crybaby in a main event in order that he could show the fans what he could do to the whiskered one when really irked.

There isn't any doubt that the tricky London, who doesn't care much for Burns or anybody else, and the adroit Burns are capable of putting on a real hair-raising exhibition. Their match last week nearly ended in a riot.

London had won first on the hardwood floor proved that. Because he wants to lessen the chance of an accident and make real wrestling count for more Burns insisted that the grudge affair be over the third out of five route instead of the customary two in three.

Losses Twice, Fools London has lost his last two matches here but both were on foul decisions after he had completely subdued his opponents by unfair means.

As contrast to the main event, which will probably be as wild and wooly as they come, will be the semi-final engagement in which Don Sugat, Salem Japanese pro, meets Whitey Wahlberg, Pacific coast middleweight champ. Both wrestlers of the scientific category, Sugat and Wahlberg will probably put on an honest exhibition of clean and clever wrestling.

The hated Al Williams, Chicago villain, will mix with Ray Lyness, a regular in the light weight champ, in the 30 minute opener which starts at 8:30 o'clock. Lyness was a favorite here in the days of Henry Jones and Robin Reed.

Salem Net Squad Valley Champion

Salem's Y.M.C.A. tennis team captured the championship of the Columbia-Willamette Valley league Sunday by defeating Eugene in one of the closest team matches ever seen here.

The score was up in the air until the final double match with Salem finally pulling out the winner, four matches to three.

The Salem team has challenged LaGrande, eastern Oregon titlist, to a state championship match. The results: Preston McDonald, Salem, 2-1; Fred Hagemann, Salem, beat 7-5; Mountain, Eugene, 7-5, 6-4; Bill Zimmerman, Eugene, 6-4; Bill Norman Winslow 15-13, 8-6; Charles Eaton, Eugene, beat Harold Beall, Salem, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3; Jim Beall, Salem, beat Pete Buck, Eugene, 10-8, 7-5.

Doubles—Crane and Zimmerman beat Hagemann and Winslow 4-6, 6-4, 6-3; McDonald and H. Beall beat Mountain and Eaton, 7-5, 6-2.

6 Seeking Entry, National Amateur

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Four Portland golfers and two from other towns will fight it out over the Oswego Country club course tomorrow for the right to represent the Pacific northwest in the national amateur tournament at Garden City, N. Y., September 14 to 19.

The entrants, from whom one will be selected, are Sherman Elsworth, Seattle; Ben H. Ward, Tacoma, and Eddie Hogan, Dr. Cliff Baker, Allan Mills and Joe Aher, Portland.

Pat Courtney Holes His Tee Shot on No. 3 Green

Pat Courtney scored a hole-in-one on the third hole at the Salem Golf club course Sunday, sinking his tee shot at the 185-yard distance with a No. 2 iron. This was the fifth dodo scored on the local course this year, and pre-ages another one for somebody soon, for the others have come in pairs.

Tipoff to Remain, Decision of North Division Leaders

SEATTLE, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The much-disputed tipoff play will remain in effect among basketball teams in the northern division of the Pacific coast conference, coaches and officials of the five universities and colleges in the conference decided at a meeting here Sunday.

While some sentiment favored abolition of the play which put a premium on the skyscraper type of center, this collapsed before insistence the play should remain as long as the national rules provided for it.

The season will open January 8 and close March 6. Appointment of a basketball commissioner, Bobby Morris, Seattle, marked a new step in the northern division. He will bring officials and coaches together to decide upon a uniform interpretation of the rules before the season starts.

George Horton, graduate manager of the University of Idaho, was elected president and Carl Kilroe, athletic manager of the University of Washington, secretary of the northern division.

DETROIT, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox advanced within a half-game of third place in the American league today as they pounded out 14 hits to defeat the Detroit Tigers, current holder of the position, 8 to 4 behind the effective hurling of Ted Lyons.

The victory gave the Sox three games to one. Tommy Bridges, seeking his 15th victory of the season, was hammered from the box in the seventh inning but his successor, Vic Sorrell, proved no more of a puzzle. Bridges was touched for 11 hits and six runs before giving up the game.

Both of the Tiger hurlers were wild. Bridges issuing six passes and Sorrell three. Lyons, going the way to Sorrell with nobody to first but allowed only eight hits. The Chicago veteran never was in danger after the third inning, holding the champions to one hit the last five frames.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, battering four pitchers for 25 hits and a 17 to 5 victory, today rammed the St. Louis Cardinals down to a first-place tie in the National league with the idle New York Giants.

After being held scoreless by Paul Dean in the first two innings, the Pirates failed in each of their subsequent times at bat, driving the younger of the pitching brothers from the mound in the fourth and continuing their assault against Ed Heusser, George Earnshaw and Phil Rheim.

Wilbur Brubaker had a perfect day with "five for five." Pittsburgh.....17 35 1 St. Louis.....5 8 3 Birkofer, Brown and Paden; P. Dean, Heusser, Earnshaw, Rheim and Davis.

Cubs Win Tight One
CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Errors by Alex Kampouris and Les Scarvelis, in the tenth inning broke up an overtime pitching duel between Lon Warneke and Gene Schott and gave the Chicago Cubs a 2 to 1 decision over the Cincinnati Reds today.

Angie Galan, who misjudged Lou Risher's fly for a triple that led to the Reds' only run in the seventh and then doubled home the tying Chicago tally in the eighth, singled to drive Frank Demaree across the plate with the winning run in the tenth, Demaree had survived when Scarvelis, dropped Kampouris' throw and then took third when the latter threw into the dirt trying for a force play.

The game was marked by the banishment of Bill Jurga, Cub shortstop, and Gilly Campbell, Cincinnati catcher, in the tenth after a short fight at second base. The banishment of Campbell left the Reds without a catcher and Hub Walker, an outfielder, had to be pressed into service for the last inning.
