

Lou Ambers Wins Lightweight Crown from Veteran Canzoneri

Ex-Protege Is Easily Winner

Battle - Scarred Favorite Shows Little; Earlier Outcome Reversed

By ALAN GOULD
NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri, battle-scarred little idol of metropolitan fight fans, lost the world lightweight championship tonight to his one-time sparring partner, Lou Ambers of Herkimer, N. Y., in a 15-round match witnessed by a near capacity crowd of 18,026 fans in Madison Square Garden, Ambers, scaling 134½, gained a decisive victory over the titleholder, who scaled 135.

Reversing the outcome of their title fight a year ago, the light-hitting but aggressive Herkimer "Hurricane" carried the fight to Canzoneri from the outset, turned back two spirited rallies by the titleholder, and won by a wide margin on points in a match that produced no knockdowns and few fireworks.

Ambers, scaling the lightweight heights at the age of 22 with a victory over the fighter who taught him most of the tricks of the fight game, was given the unanimous verdict by Referee Arthur Donovan, and the two judges, Charley Lynch and George Kelly.

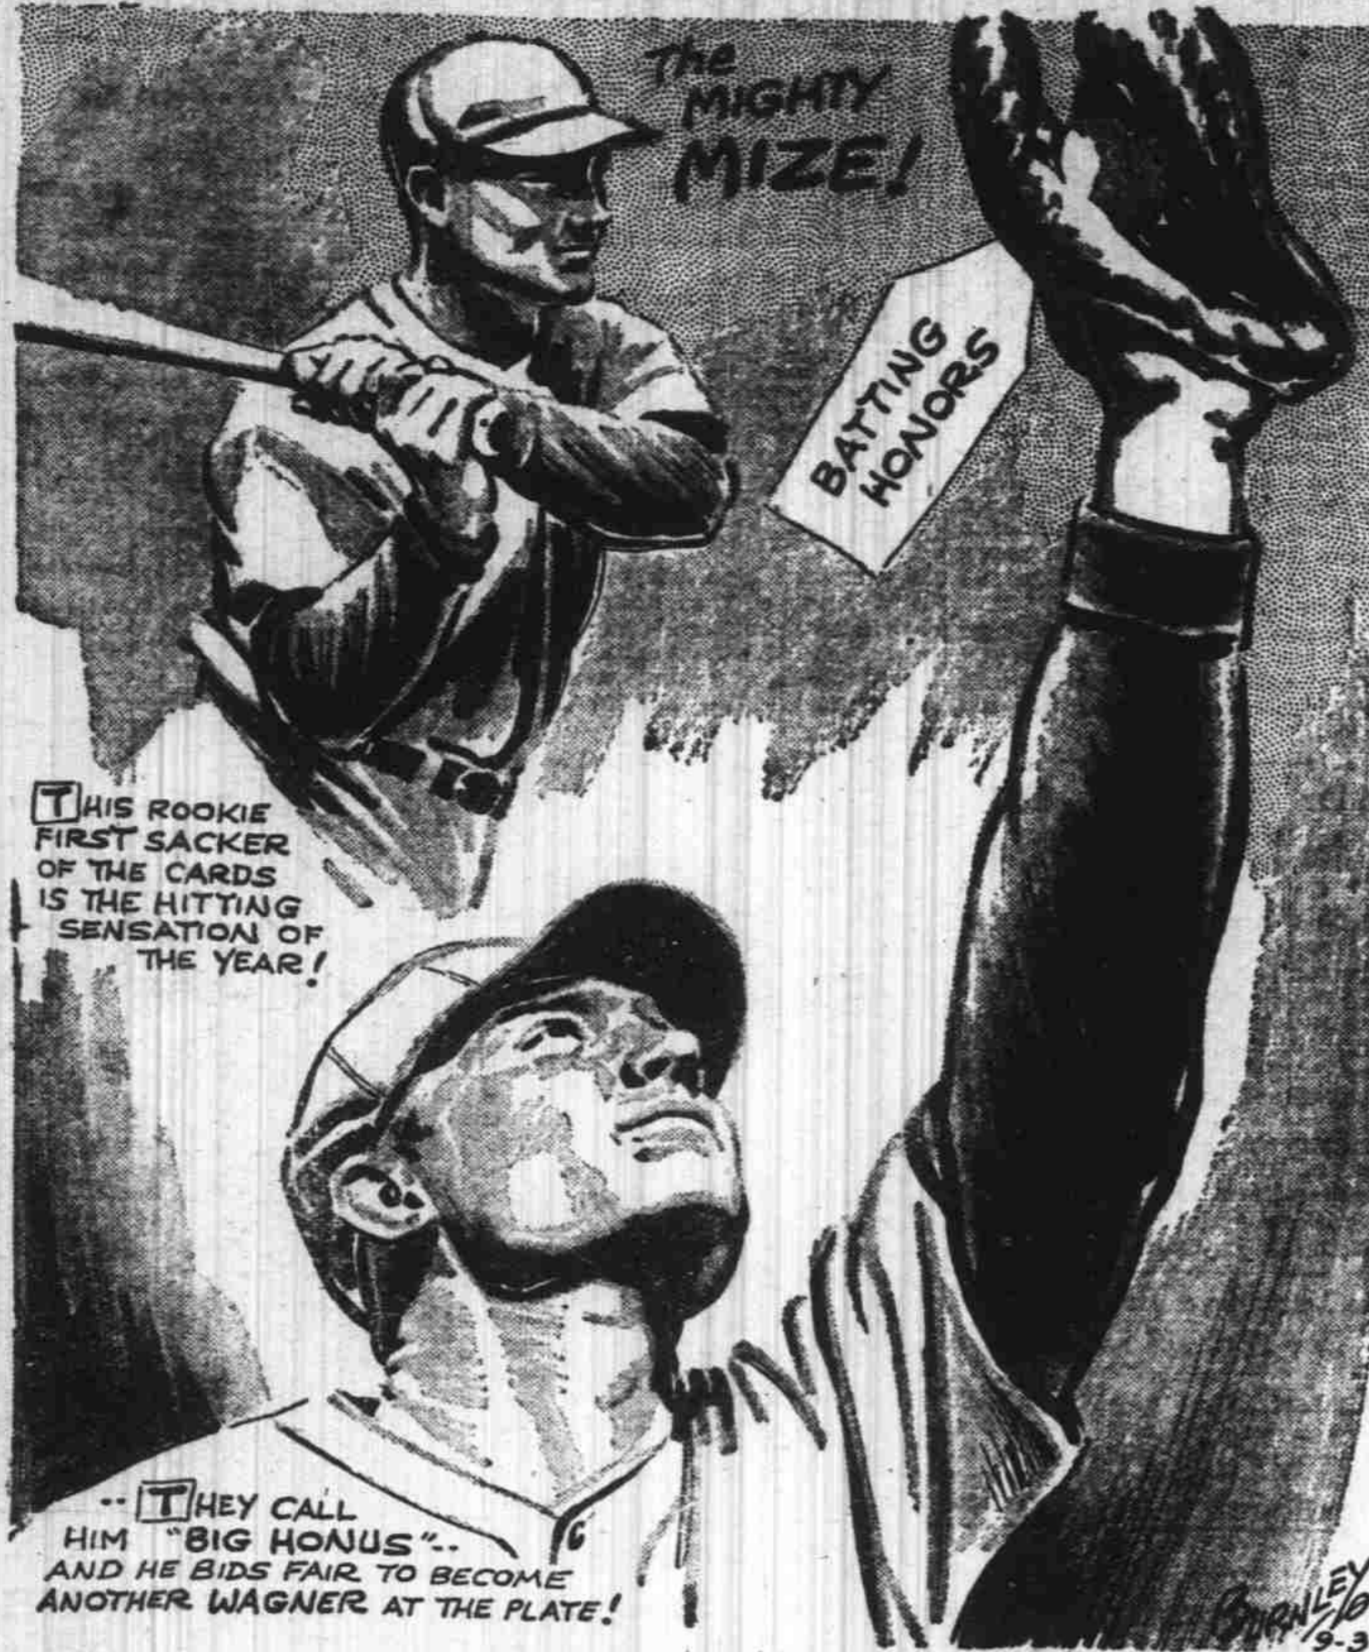

On the Associated Press scorecard, Ambers won nine rounds, including the last three. Canzoneri was credited with five while one, the twelfth, was rained even.

Ambers' victory topped off a double championship program, the first half of which resulted in a controversial nine-round knockout victory for Mike Beloit, New York's featherweight championship claimant, over Dave Crowley, British titleholder in the 126-pound division.

Canzoneri, ring-worn at the age of 27, was slow and unimpressive from start to finish, except for a few widely separated flashes of the fighting form that carried him to a decisive triumph over Ambers a year ago. Whether it was due to fistic age or the humidity which made the Garden seem like a Turkish bath, the champion lacked anything resembling his usual punching skill.

Mauler from Mound City

By BURNLEY

THIS ROOKIE FIRST SACKER OF THE CARDS IS THE HITTING SENSATION OF THE YEAR!

THEY CALL HIM "BIG HONUS" AND HE BIDS FAIR TO BECOME ANOTHER WAGNER AT THE PLATE!

A CENTRAL figure in the St. Louis Cardinals' desperate bid for the National League flag is Johnny "Big Honus" Mize, a first baseman who was rejected by the Cincinnati Reds last spring because of an injury that was said to affect his running.

Cincinnati's loss was Sam Breadon's gain, however, and the mauling Mize came to the Mound City as the Cardinals' property. Now all the Mighty Mize has done is to oust the highly regarded Ripper Collins from the first base post, and then begin waging a terrific battle for the National League batting crown.

This man Mize may be a rookie, but he hits like a veteran. Make no mistake, Big Honus is a "natural." Like the original Honus, the one and only Wagner, young Mr. Mize seems to be the kind of a guy who was born with a war club in his mitts.

This youthful Card's hitting ability has been something of a problem to Frisch, since he hated to bench so good a player as Rip Collins; yet neither Collins nor Mize was able to fit into any other post but the initial station.

Still, Frankie won't cry if Mize captures the batting title, and if he does, it will be the first time in modern baseball history that a rookie has turned that title trick.

ish rebel foes of socialists en-croached on its soil.

At the same time France—along with Great Britain—was redoubling efforts to obtain a commitment from Nazi Germany as to her neutrality stand.

As these international ramifications of the Spanish civil war were manifesting themselves anew, the Madrid government announced it soon would publish a dossier of "evidence" that foreign powers were aiding the fascist rebels.

While the second Italian war vessel was churning toward Spain, the Madrid government's ambassador in Paris was protesting officially that an Italian vessel had unloaded 24 planes at Vigo, ostensibly for the rebels' use.

The French attitude on the Spanish conflict was further complicated by internal troubles of its own. Socialists demanded that Frenchmen be allowed openly to aid the Madrid government. Rightists bitterly opposed them.

Bend is taking no chances on letting the state league championship slip through its outstretched fingers. Figuring that it would play a better game on its home field the Bend club paid the Salem Senators $157 (60 per cent of the take) to come to Bend and get beaten last Sunday. Since Bend won that second half championship the expense paid dividends. Now Bend is laying out heavy gold to get Toledo to play two of the three championship games in Bend. They will be played Sunday and Monday of next week. If they split the final game will be in Toledo.

Toledo is also taking no chances. The coast club which faded in the second half after beating Salem out for the first half title is picking up a pocketful of Portland stars for bolstering material in the crucial series. Figured to play for Toledo in the series are Pitchers Phil Heim and Jim Ault and Baseman Monroe Deann of the same club and Third Baseman Art Parker, the latter once a Bend player.

New high school football rules allow passing anywhere behind the line of scrimmage which is a sensible move to speed up the game. It's the same as the professional passing rule and the high school lads should be tossing that ball around considerable this season. It is probably a delight to Beryl Hodgen up at the Dalles who last year had his lads throwing so many passes that Salem high thought the sky was raining footballs. Coaches will have to spend a little more time on pass defense, too, we guess.

It's not generally known but "Spec" Keene besides being of the Willamette university Bears is an inventor of note. In fact the "Spec" Keene hip pads, each and every pair bearing the Willamette mentor's name, now being put out by a major sporting goods firm, bid fair to revolutionize the entire football pad industry. They're a great improvement in safety and comfort over the old pads but the feature that appeals to team outfitters who must keep an eye on expenses is that they are adjustable to the size of the player.

"Tiny" Cooper, Oregon heavyweight champion, has gone and got himself hitched up. Mrs. Cooper will probably be the new champion in a short while.

If all the guys Maxie Baer has knocked out in the first round on his present "come-back" tour were laid end to end they'd certainly feel natural.

Dear season will open September 20. Now's the time for hunters to make their wills.

Then as Stinson fanned, Kuhel and Lewis worked the steal. Both were safe, and Kuhel scored from second a moment later on a passed ball by Myatt.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The New York Giants wound up their most successful western invasion in years today with a 2 to 1 victory over the Cardinals in a pitching thriller that saw Carl Hubbell best Dizzy Dean from the mound and at bat.

Aided by the stickwork of Gus Mancuso and Dick Bartell, who had a big hand in both New York runs, the lean portlander stopped the gas house gang with four hits to boost the Giants' National league lead to four full games as they returned to the Polo grounds.

It was the screwball artist's 11th straight victory and his 21st of the season, and gave the Giants a record of 10 triumphs in 13 starts since they left their home lot.

Dean held the New Yorkers to eight hits, but that wasn't good enough, leaving him with nine defeats and 22 wins for the season.

Bordagary, who had a double and a go single for the day's seven-hitting honors, banged out his third hit of the game with a mate on second base in the extra frame to drive in the only run and give Mungo his 14th pitching victory.

Favorites Win in National Tourney

FOREST HILLS, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The tennis Giants marched into the second round of the national men's and women's tennis singles championships today without a single protest from the little fellows.

Everything went exactly as was expected; Fred Perry, the English favorite, crowned through a 6-0, 6-0, 6-2 victory over Alfred J. Jarvis of Tenafly, N. J., Helen Jacobs was mercilessly consistent in winning two love sets in 18 minutes from C. Esther Edwards of Bridgeport Conn., Don Eudge, the American hope from Oakland, Calif., disposed of George Seewagen of Jackson Heights, L. I., 6-0, 6-1, 6-0, and Kay Stammers, the little English miss, was as efficient as ever in beating Grace Surber of New York, 6-1, 6-1.

New York, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The Wall Street district saw a lot of pent-up steam today welcoming home more than 80 Olympic athletes.

The athletes except for a charge by Ralph Metcalfe, negro sprinter, that there was too much official "bush" patriotism, cautiously commented on the numerous controversies which developed during the 11th Olympiad in Berlin.

Joined by other stars who returned earlier, the most recent arrivals were bundled in 100 auto cabs and taken on a motor procession up Broadway's granite canyon, through a shower of ticker tape and bits of torn paper while cheering thousands lined the wide walks.

British Must Return Again Without Walker Cup; Get Only Three Halved Matches; Northwestern Ace Helps

CLEMONTON, N. J., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Great Britain's hopes of winning the Walker cup, the huge silver golf trophy that never has left these shores, lay buried among the pines and scrub oaks of Pine Valley tonight.

Answering the challenge of the youngest team ever to represent the British Isles in the international amateur team match series, the American forces not only beat them but shut them out, 9 to 0, for the first time since the matches opened 14 years ago.

All his majesty's forces got out of the wreckage were two halved foursomes and a halved singles match, gained by Harry Bentley, 29-year-old Englishman, over George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, former national amateur champion.

Halved matches go down in the record books as "0-0" contests.

The greatest finish was turned in by Scotty Campbell, the Seattle bomber. Scotty, two up at the 27th, scored the final five holes in two under par to polish off a stubborn foe, Jack McLean, 5 and 4.

Johnny Goodman took the measure of the British amateur champion, Hector Thomson, 3 and 2, leading all the way.

Ducks Lambasted In First Contest

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 3.—(AP)—San Diego's coal league pennant fight was checked tonight when Johnny Chambers pitched Sacramento to a 1 to 0 victory, letting the Padres down with three scattered blows. It was the solo's first win in three games of the nine-game series.

The lone run came in the sixth. Shortstop Frank Morehouse, singling, advancing on Buster Adams' sacrifice and Johnny Vergez' fly and scoring when Louis Vozelich was called safe on a close play at first base.

Landon left the capital immediately after he conferred with the president in Iowa Gov. Clyde L. Herring's private office. His was the third of five drought discussions President Roosevelt held with governors this afternoon.

The other governors in the order named, were Guy H. Park of Missouri, Herring and after the Landon meeting, R. L. Cochran of Nebraska and E. W. Marshall of Oklahoma.

"It went off like any other conference would go," remarked Senator McGill, (D-Kas.), referring to the Roosevelt-Landon meeting.

"Most of them seem to be an ambitious, industrious type of people hard working and anxious to become able to support their families," Hobart added. "They are coming here not asking the government to support them but to help them become self-supporting."

The rural rehabilitation corporation has run out of funds with which to make new loans but may have a new allotment of aid money at a later date Hobart said. He is dividing his time between meeting applicants at his office and visiting farmers to whom loans have been made.

The nation's office record as to repayment of these loans has been excellent to date he declared.

In his opinion, Van Winkle said, "If it was the intention of the legislature that none of such additional land (which another section authorizes the state to acquire) could be used by the commission as a site upon which any part of the capitol building could be constructed, it is not reasonable to believe that the provisions for acquiring such land would have been included and retained in the statute."

"The only logical interpretation which can be placed upon the words 'now owned' in the description of the premises upon some portion of which the capitol building is required to be constructed, is that they are words used to identify in part the premises upon which such building is to be constructed."

Malaria Case Is Traced to Utah

The case of malaria discovered in a Marion county hop yard last week apparently was contracted in Utah, Dr. E. E. Berg, acting county health officer, reported yesterday. He said the patient was being watched but was not under quarantine. The important protective measure against malaria, Dr. Berg said, is to keep the patient from contact with mosquitoes, which spread the disease.

A new case of scarlet fever was reported from Mill City yesterday. The victim, not in serious condition, is a 13-year-old girl.
