

Five New Teachers For Independence

Larger Enrollment Expected When Schools Open Sept. 21st

INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 4.—Independence schools will open on Monday morning, September 21, with five new teachers in the high and grade schools. Indications are that the enrollment will be somewhat larger than last year.

Paul E. Robinson, principal of the high school, asks that all students register before the opening of school. He will be in his office on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 16, 17 and 18 from 9 to 12 and 1 to 4 o'clock.

Those students who are still picking hops may register in the evening if they will get word to him. Although most of the yards will finish with the picking before then, it is the hope of the faculty that all students will make an effort to start on the opening date.

Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Miss Virginia Dahman and Miss Marcelle DeMytt, the three teachers who resigned from the high school faculty, have been replaced by Miss Glenna Hillbrand of Independence, Miss Helen West of Seaside and Miss Edith Bear of Albany.

Teachers and the positions they will fill follow: Paul E. Robinson, principal, administration and mathematics; Howard Bennett, agriculture and civics; Loren Mort, coach, history and physics; Mrs. Loren Mort, science and music; Miss Helen West, home economics and English; Miss Edith Bear, typing bookkeeping, business training and girls' physical education; Miss Anita Boley, English, public speaking and history; and Miss Glenna Hillbrand, English, dramatics and library.

Two new teachers have been added to the faculty of the training school; Miss Helen Leonard of California and Miss Dora Gallagher from Columbia University. Miss Leonard fills the position of Mrs. Elsie Bolt, who resigned to attend Columbia University Teacher's college to get her master's degree, and Miss Gallagher fills the position of Mrs. Melford Nelson, who handed in her resignation two weeks ago.

The training school supervisors and the positions they fill are: Miss Mary Donaldson, principal and fourth grade; at mid-term, Miss Donaldson will be replaced by Mrs. Oma Belle McBee, who is attending the University of Oregon, where she will get her master's degree in December; Miss Donaldson will then go to school in California where she will finish her studies for the same degree; Miss Dora Gallagher will be first grade supervisor; Miss Edith Norton, second grade; Miss Helen Leonard, third grade; Miss Dora Hendy, fifth; Miss Blanche Deguid, sixth grade; Mrs. Harry Kenney, seventh grade and Miss Merna Fletcher, seventh grade and Miss Henrietta Wolfer, eighth grade. Mr. House, janitor of the training school and Mr. Mattison, janitor of the high school have been giving the schools a thorough cleaning prior to the opening date, September 21.

Grasshoppers Eat Nebraska Shingles

MARION, Sept. 4.—Herman Herzberg and son of Bayard, Nebraska, are guests of his brother, Carl Herzberg. They also visited his parents at Los Angeles before coming to Oregon. He is sold on Willamette valley and expects to locate here as soon as he can sell his property at Bayard.

He states the grasshoppers are so bad in his locality that they actually eat on weather beaten shingles and fence posts and dig in the earth for the grass roots as there is no vegetation whatever for them.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Pearson of Marion, a girl, Marilyn Joan, August 10th, at the Salem Deaconess Hospital. This is their second child.

Harry Christenson and Bounir Betkey, formerly of Marion, were married in Los Angeles last week. They will reside in San Diego.

Federated Women Choose Mrs. Livesay President

WOODBURN, Sept. 4.—Mrs. J. H. Livesay was elected president of the Federated Women at the Methodist Episcopal church at a business meeting held at the church Wednesday afternoon.

Plans were made for the Aid society to conduct a rummage sale and serve a jiffy dinner during the two days of the community fair which will be held October 2 and 3. Mrs. L. C. Buchner, president of the Aid society, will announce the committees for this event later.

A large number of fruit jars have been received from the Old People's Home in Salem and will be distributed among the members to be filled with fruit and vegetables for use at the home.

Grangers' News

RICKREALL, Sept. 4.—Polk county grange council will meet at the Rickreall grange hall Saturday at 8 p. m. Visiting grangers will apply sandwiches and cookies which will be served by the home economics committee of the local organization with coffee.

A number of interesting activities are being planned for the coming season by the local grangers. At the next regular meeting on September 11 a miscellaneous supper will be served.

Thousands of Indians at Round-up

One of the Pendleton Round-Up's biggest attractions is its Indian display. Some 2000 Indians participate every year in the world's greatest Western show. At top is a young buck with a younger buck dancing on the arena track; Center is Chief Jobe Charlie of the Yakimas, always a Round-Up visitor; Bottom is a papoose, taken from his mother's back for a bit of rest—for mother. The Round-Up dates are September 10, 11 and 12.

Picking of Prunes Started at Marion

MARION, Sept. 4.—The grain, bean and peach harvest is over in this section and prune picking started in the Lee Smith and a Thomas Winn orchards Thursday. Only local people are employed. The prunes are to be delivered to the Stayton cannery.

Carl Herzberg finished picking Bartlett pears Wednesday. Herzberg has the largest acreage of pears of anyone in this district. His entire crop was sold to the Stayton cannery at $20 per ton.

Ovid Pickard will show a few of his Jerseys at the state fair. George Withycomb of Gaston purchased a young bull of Mr. Pickard this week.

North Howell School Will Open Sept. 14th With Boyer Principal

NORTH HOWELL, Sept. 4.—Preparations for the opening of school are being made and school will open September 14, with W. M. Boyer of Rickreall as the new principal, and Mrs. Nell Hilliker of Salem returning for her third year in the primary room. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer were in the district Thursday looking for a house to live in during the school term. The school yard has been

Baxter's Dahlias Draw Turner Club

TURNER, Sept. 4.—The Better Homes and Garden club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Sr., Thursday afternoon. After viewing the green house and the beautiful outside flowers grown by Mr. Whitehead including 75 kinds of roses, the party took their lunch and drove to the Baxter dahlia farm north of Sunnyside near the highway. Dr. Magin to Preach

Dr. Louis Magin of Salem will occupy the Methodist pulpit Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and will also hold quarterly conference.

The McCully shoe and harness repair shop has been moved to the corner room of the Gower building. Living rooms for the family are also being arranged.

Union Has Meeting The W.C.T.U. met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. M. A. Hill. Officers were reelected. Mrs. F. C. Gunning was elected delegate to the state convention. Arrangements were made for the annual reception for the school teachers to be held Friday night, September 25, at the schoolhouse.

T. B. Funston who is 87 years old and who has lived by himself the past few years, had a fall a few days ago while at his mail box and had to be carried into the house. His son, Scott Funston of Canyon road near Portland came Tuesday and took his father home with him for an indefinite stay.

Thrashing Spring Grain On North Santiam Farms

NORTH SANTIAM, Sept. 4.—The thrashing machine has been busy in the community this week thrashing spring grain. Everyone is through now, as the fall grain was threshed earlier in the season.

Mrs. L. C. Keithley and daughters, Mary Lou and Betty Jo, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Miller, Bay City, left Tuesday morning for Yakima, Wash., where they expect to spend a week visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Green of Los Angeles, Calif., were Sunday guests at the Keithley home. Green is a nephew of Mrs. Mary Keithley and visited here 22 years ago.

Three Will Make Race For Woodburn Constable

WOODBURN, Sept. 4.—R. B. Smith of Woodburn has announced that he will be a candidate for constable on an independent ticket at the election to be held November 3. There will be three candidates. W. C. Miller, Wm. Garver, who last week circulated a petition to get his name on the ballot, and Smith.

William Uppendahl, who holds the office now does not intend to run for the office again.

Eight Hale Peaches Fill Box, For Fair

WHEATLAND, Sept. 4.—Only eight peaches could be crowded into a regular size peach flat. They were of the J. H. Hale variety picked Thursday morning at the Clyde M. LaFollette farm at Wheatland. A flat of this size peaches are being put in cold storage for display at the state fair at Salem. More than 50 people are employed in the peach harvest at the LaFollette farm.

Silverton Commercial Club Resumes Meetings

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—After a vacation of two months, the Silverton chamber of commerce will resume its meetings again this month on September 6. This will likely be a dinner at Toney's. Earl J. Adams is making arrangements for the program.

Mrs. J. C. Schlador, president, will preside. George W. Hubbs is secretary of the chamber.

Start Filling Silos With Corn at Frieze's

UNIONVALE, Sept. 4.—Silos filling with corn was begun Wednesday at the Herman Frieze dairy farm where there are several silos to be filled. Mr. Frieze's corn is the earliest fields of corn in this locality and is a well ripened stage for silo filling. One field is on the first Willamette river bottom land and the other is second bottom and it is of unusual height.

Receives Certificate For Mastery of Guitar

RICKREALL, Sept. 4.—Among young musicians showing talent and effort is Harvey Beaver, who has won his certificate of award for completion of the work of the first year in Hawaiian guitar. He was also awarded a pin for receiving the highest grade obtainable on the report card issued by his instructor.

To Teach in Eugene

INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 4.—Frank Arrell was in Independence visiting friends on Tuesday. Frank received his degree from Oregon University this summer and has been elected to teach in Eugene high school this coming year. He will have five classes of biology. Frank was a former Independence high school student.

Elect New Teacher

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—Eric Anderson of Portland was engaged to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Miss Helen Rattenman in the Silverton schools. Mr. Anderson is a graduate of Reed college.

King on Cruise

King Edward VIII

His briar pipe and sports tweeds testified to the informality of King Edward VIII when his Britannic majesty took time off from royal duties to take a cruise of the Adriatic, stopping off at the little port of Sibenik, Yugoslavia, above.

Christine Hansen Funeral Is Held

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from Trinity church for Mrs. Christine Hansen, 82, who died at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hansen came to Silverton 35 years ago and for a time lived in the Brass Creek district, moving into town in 1928.

Rev. J. M. K. Fuhr delivered the funeral address. Mrs. Alvin Legard was soloist and Miss Peggy Goplerud organist. Pall bearers were Ole Satern, Will Dybervik, Alfred Jensen, James Benson, John Goplerud, Martin Hattberg. Interment was at Evens Valley.

Changes in Store Staff Announced

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—Jim Rice, who has been employed at the Steelhammer Drug store for the past two years, has gone to Independence and his place has been filled by Carl Benson who worked at Steelhammer's ten years ago. Mr. Benson has been in Nebraska for the past several years.

Miss Ellen Christensen, also employed at Steelhammer's has resigned to enter Pacific University this autumn. Miss Beth Syphert is taking Miss Christensen's place.

3 Hurt Slightly As Cars Collide

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—A car driven by Floyd Dixon of Portland was backing up when it was crowded into a ditch by another car on the Mt. Angel-Silverton highway. The other car failed to stop.

Dixon and his two companions, Margerie Burden and Pat Bennett, were both somewhat bruised and were brought to Silverton doctor for medical attention.

Peach Harvest Proved Finest in a Long Time

NORTH HOWELL, Sept. 4.—Peach harvest is over for this year with one of the finest crops in many years. The fruit was well matured and easily cared for and disposed of. Blackberry picking still continues and will be in order for another two weeks and hop picking has also begun in the Kohlmeir yard.

Hold Hansen Funeral

SILVERTON, Sept. 4.—Funeral services for Mrs. Christine Hansen, who died here Wednesday afternoon, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Trinity church with interment at Evens Valley and Rev. J. M. K. Fuhr delivering the sermon. Mrs. Alvin Legard was soloist.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Sept. 4.—Thomas Coupe has opened a bakery shop in the Friesen building on Edgewater street. Thomas Coupe has spent many years in the bakery business in Salem, Portland and parts along the coast. The West Salem bakery is now open and doing business.

Mrs. Calista Lindsey has been critically ill for the past week with food poisoning. Although better, she is still in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rierison and children have moved into their new home on Senate street. Mr. and Mrs. Padernich of Salem have taken over the Rierison property on Ruge street.

Dale Lemon received a quite painful but not serious burn from hot oil in his left eye Tuesday while working on a car in his garage in south Salem.

Beginning with next Sunday there will be both a morning and an evening service in the F. O. R. Memorial church. The pastor, Rev. K. K. Clark, will conduct both services.

175 Pickers Work At Illihee Ranch

AUBURN, Sept. 4.—Picking of the late hops began this morning at the Illihee hop ranch. Roy Hammer, manager of the hop ranch, reports a large crop this year. About 175 pickers are at work.

Betty Jean Klemple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klemple, is ill. The little girl had her tonsils removed recently and is also suffering from diabetes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Armstrong and children, June, Shirley, Lester and Donald have returned from a two weeks' vacation trip in Washington visiting friends.

Mrs. Lily Dement of Myrtle Point, Oregon, visited at the home of Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins recently. They had not seen each other for thirty-five years.

School at Auburn will begin September 14 with L. B. McClendon beginning his fifth year as principal. Mrs. May Engle will teach the primary room. This is her first year here.

Hans Rebb is grubbing out his patch of old loganberries and is setting out Boysen berries. It is thought these are probably the first in this county. They are a cross between red raspberries and black berries.

Death Ends Suffering For Mrs. Wriglesworth

GATES, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Ernest Wriglesworth passed away at her home southeast of Gates Thursday morning after several years of ill health and suffering. The early part of her life was spent in Pennsylvania and a few years in Montana and for the past seventeen years she has lived in this community where she has made a host of friends among all who knew her. Mrs. Wriglesworth was 51 years old, she leaves a husband and three sons, Cecil of Toledo, Ore.: Russell of Tacoma, Wash.; and Benny at home; two grandchildren and other relatives. She was a member of the Church of Christ at Mill City. Interment will probably be at the Fairview cemetery.

• RELINE YOUR BRAKES TODAY

Bad WEATHER AHEAD

PAY AS LOW AS

81¢ PER WEEK

Faulty brakes are dangerous. More Firestone Brakes Living put on your car at once and pay for it in small weekly payments.

Firestone

AUTO SUPPLY & SERVICE STORES

Center & Liberty Phone 9144

Open Tonight

Until 8:30

GEO. E. ALLEN

Hardware - Paints - Plumbing - Housewares

236 North Commercial St. Phone 4610

IT'S TIME TO

Wake up to the Fact

Fall Business Will Soon Be Here!

Every indication points to the coming fall business as "the best in years" . . . Are you prepared to get your share of this business?

Make Preparations Now!

If you expect to get your share, you must plan ahead . . . make your preparations now. Well printed folders, booklets, circulars etc., properly prepared and mailed at the proper time will help you get "your share" of this business!

Let Us Help You!

A phone call will bring our representative who will gladly help you plan your printing properly.

STATESMAN PUBLISHING CO.

215 South Commercial St. Phone 9101

COMPLETE Printing SERVICE