

Beginning SUNDAY, Sept. 13, in the Oregon Statesman

SINCLAIR LEWIS'S STIRRING NOVEL

"IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE"

YOUR life! your loved ones! your home! your job! Everything you hold dear! ground under the iron heel of Fascism. Here is a story of TODAY. . . a story that begins with the political conventions in June of 1936! . . . a story so packed with fascination! thrills! drama! romance! it will hold you spellbound with its throbbing realism! . . . "IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE" is the most powerful story, the most inspired story Sinclair Lewis ever wrote. No matter how much you admire the genius of Sinclair Lewis; no matter how much you liked "Main Street," "Babbitt," "Arrowsmith," "Dodsworth" or "Elmer Gantry," you will vote "IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE" the most vivid and gripping literature of your lifetime. . . . Begin "IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE" in

The Oregon Statesman
FOUNDED 1851

BEGIN THIS BEST-SELLING NOVEL

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 13, IN

The Oregon Statesman
FOUNDED 1851

BERN BACH

