Plan Recruit Drive—Five reconnaissance cars and 18 enlisted men will leave Portland September 15 on one of the biggest peace time recruiting drives in recent years, announces Major H. D. Bagnall, in command of the Portland recruiting district, United States army. The object of the drive, Major Bagnall said, "is to bring the different army units in the northwest up to their new authorized recruiting strength which became effective upon the increase in the strength of the army." Major Bagnall states that practically all units have been authorized increases in personnel. The 8th and 10th Field Artillery regiments at Fort Lewis and the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks have received substantial increases.

Lead Bank Man Coming—To give prospective farm buyers full information about acquired properties which can be purchased from the land bank of Spokane, C. A. Barnes, field representative of the bank will be at the Gail hotel, Dallas, on September 21 and at the office of the National Farm Loan Secretary-Treasurer W. S. Bartlett, Oregon building, Salem, on September 24 and 25. The bank is conducting a series of local sales throughout the state in cooperation with the National Farm Loan association secretaries.

Parties having right housekeeping rooms, suitable for students, or wanting a girl to work for board or room should telephone 5987, the Capital Business College, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

May Extend Service—An order was signed Thursday by State Utilities Commissioner Frank McCulloch granting Peden and Rankin, bus operators, authority to extend their service on the new McLoughlin highway as far south as Oregon City. The line now operates a few miles south of Portland. A previous application, filed two years ago, was denied.

Dolls, 26 Countries—There are dolls from 26 different countries, not imitations but imports, in the doll show of the state fair textile department, Mrs. C. C. Higgins, department superintendent, said yesterday. These are in addition to the handsome array of Japanese dolls loaned by the Japanese consul at Portland.

"Army" Drive Set—The Salvation Army board of directors at a meeting called by Chairman William McGilchrist, Jr., decided to hold the annual drive for funds September 21 to 26. Reports on activities and expenses of the past year were presented and a budget submitted by Adjutant John Allen, corps officer, for the 1936-37 fiscal year was approved. Adjutant Allen described some of the relief cases the Army is called upon to handle, numerous despite the partial recovery from depression.

"Forward, America," over KOIN Friday night, 8:30. Sponsored by Marion county Young Democratic club.

Penalty Date Near—Approximately 250 Oregon employers will be assessed interest and penalty under the state unemployment compensation act, provided they fail to remit their contributions by September 29, officials announced Thursday. There are approximately 5000 employers, with 150,000 employees, under the act.

Girl Reserves, Fair—Three Salem members of the Girl Reserves, Mary Elizabeth Ross, Valeria Karr and Mary Ross Holtz, yesterday served as attendants at the fairgrounds first aid station. Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Salem, Y.W.C.A. secretary, also assisted during the day.

Seeks Road Graveling—Eugene Grabenhorst made application to the county court yesterday for graveling of the Grabenhorst road which runs south from the Turner-Illihes highway. The road has been improved by WPA labor except for graveling which is to be done by the county.

Booth Attracts Attention—One of the exhibition booths at the state fair which is attracting particular attention is the Standard Oil company's Magic Bowl. A girl rises mysteriously in the booth and tells facts about products displayed.

Camera Club Shows—Photographic art fairs have gathered daily in the state fair art department to admire a complimentary exhibit brought here by the Oregon Camera club, Portland. The club photos were not entered in the photographic art competitions.

Townsend Session—Central Townsend club No. 6 will meet at Nelson hall 4 to 7:30 o'clock. An invitation to attend is extended to the general public.

Democrat Broadcast—Tonight at 8:30 over KOIN Marion county young democrats will give a political broadcast on the "Forward, America" program.

Request Bridge Replacement—Gus Schlicker, who lives on the secondary highway near Hager's grove, yesterday requested the county court to replace his private bridge over Mill creek which runs through his farm. The bridge was removed when the creek was widened by SERRA labor two years ago, Schlicker explained. He stated that the loss of the bridge made it impossible for him to get his cattle across the stream to pasture land on the opposite side. The court instructed County Engineer Hubbs to investigate the request.

Damage Is Minor—A fire in the home of Albert H. Dixon, 2375 South High street, which called two engines from the central fire station at 8:15 o'clock last night did only minor damage, firemen reported. The fire started in the ceiling above the furnace in the basement of the house. The house was filled with smoke but the fire was quickly put out with chemicals. The south Salem engine is stationed at the fairgrounds during fair week which made it necessary for the central pumpers to answer the call.

Hop pickers wanted at the Williams & Thacker hop yard, 4 mi. W. of Salem. Payment $1.75 per hundred. Ph. 9614.

Three Accident Reports—Three accident reports were filed with Sheriff A. C. Burk yesterday. Raymond Clark, Oakridge, and J. L. Rutherford, 483 South High street, reported that their cars collided at 222 Turner road. Crashes with unidentified drivers were reported by R. O. Conson, Albany, on the Jefferson road, and Kermit Engeman, Silverton, near the fairgrounds, north of Salem.

Lutz Florist, 1276 N. Lib. P. 9592.

Gosselin's Photo Wins—One of the photographs on which the Passage Studio, formerly Gunnell & Robb, received awards at the state fair is a picture of W. L. Gosselin, private secretary to Governor Martin. Miss Meda Passage, proprietor of the studio, won a first award and two seconds with her first state fair exhibits.

Report Whooping Cough—The state department of health reported seven cases of whooping cough in Marion county during the week ending September 5. Other cases of communicable diseases reported during the week included two tuberculosis and one each of chickenpox, scarlet fever and malaria.

Application Approved—Beer license applications of Margaret V. Brown, Checkerboard station, and Maudie M. Flood, Maudie's Inn, were approved by the county court yesterday. An application from Rex V. Stubbs, Butteville, was received but not acted upon by the court.
