

Aurora Council Orders Additional Cement Sidewalks Built

Budget Group Is Appointed

Fall Vacation and Hunting Trips Started by Residents

AURORA, Sept. 21.—At the last meeting of the city council a petition signed by residents requesting a cement sidewalk be built on the south side of second street between the Pacific highway and Liberty street, was approved. The recorder was instructed to notify the property owners on this street. The budget committee also was appointed and will meet October 5 to determine the tax levy for the coming year. Members appointed are J. G. Wurster, W. C. Nagl, M. D. Leabo, G. A. Ehlen and B. W. Stoner.

A number of Aurora people are away for fall vacations and hunting trips. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith left Thursday for Tennessee and Alabama, going over the central route and will return by train through California. They will visit relatives in both states. George and Will Ziegler left Wednesday for the Bend country. They will fish on the Deschutes river and the lakes, then go on the Snow mountain to hunt deer. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller left Thursday morning for a two weeks hunting trip in eastern Oregon. Another party was made up of P. O. Ottaway, Hollis Ottaway and E. D. Carver, who will hunt in the Burns country.

Residence Shifts Coming This Fall

CLOVERDALE, Sept. 21.—Several changes of residences will be made in the community this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, who have lived on Dr. Mary Staples' ranch for the past eight years will move onto their own farm near Turner. Mr. and Mrs. John Shillineau and son, Gene, will move to the Staples ranch. The Clason family, who formerly lived here, are returning to live on the John W. Schiffer farm. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Davis and family will move from the Cook place to Turner. The Fisher family will leave the old Frank Cook place and move to West Fir. The children have already moved and entered school there. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are remaining until after the prune harvest. The Cook place has been sold to Frank Goodman of North Dakota. The Goodmans have already arrived.

School will open here September 28. The opening was put off until the prune harvest could be completed. A larger enrollment is expected.

Mill Reopens and School Is Doubled

VALSETZ, Sept. 21.—Ghosts of yesteryear came to life Monday when school opened at Valseltz. Rooms which had been vacant reached to the sound of children's chatter. Desks which had accumulated the dust of five years in the store room were brought out. Soaps were applied assiduously and in a short time everything was fresh so that books could be issued. Enrollment is just double that of a year ago due to the starting of the Cobbs and Mitchell mill and camp, with 140 present the first day with some pupils not yet in. The staff is composed of George A. Paul, principal and high school; Scott Markin, seventh and eighth grades; Mrs. Luella Willis, fifth and sixth grades; Mrs. Doris Garrett, third and fourth grades; and Miss Laurel Busby, first and second grades. B. W. McNeil suffered severe burns on the face and right arm Monday while testing a burned out fuse at the mill. As he started to close a switch the current was turned on at the power house and raced across the half closed switch. McNeil was taken to the Deaconess hospital in Salem for treatment.

Many Young Folk Going to College

AMITY, Sept. 21.—Dr. Maurice Wood of Seattle was a recent guest at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Robison. He was en route to Salem to accompany his father, Dr. R. Lee Wood, on a hunting trip. The Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Cannell and daughter, Gertrude, of Lakeview, were Amity guests at the homes of numerous friends from Wednesday to Saturday. Miss Gertrude Cannell will enter Willamette university. The Cannell family were residents here five years prior to moving to Lakeview a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Booth and daughter, Miss Kathleen of Enterprise, were guests during the weekend at the home of Mr. Booth's father, J. W. Booth, and other relatives. Miss Booth will attend the University of Oregon this year.

Farmers' Union News

BETHEL, Sept. 21.—The open meeting of the Farmers Union was held Friday night. A play is to be put on with W. R. Baker, George E. Bahnsen and A. C. Spranger in charge. Delegates to the county convention at Marion Saturday, October 3, include O. L. Brubaker, A. L. Schulz, Helen Schulz, Mary Hamrick, Mrs. A. C. Spranger, George E. Bahnsen, Otto Heinke, A. J. Klug. Refreshments were served during the social hour with A. L. Schulz in charge, assisted by the Klug boys.

VonFlue Beats His Own Corn Growing Record by a Foot

SILVERTON, Sept. 21.—Walter Von Flue has broken his own record by producing a corn stalk bigger than the record cornstalk he grew last week. George Hubbs is displaying the 15-foot stalk. Mr. Von Flue brought in last week, at his office on Water and Main street. Saturday morning Fred Stadel, associated with the Von Flue dairy, brought in a 16-foot stalk of corn, and this is on display by Alf O. Nelson at the Homeowner's agency at the corner of Oak and Water street.

108 Students at Heights School

Primary Class Has 21 Boys And Girls; First Aid Taught

SALEM HEIGHTS, Sept. 21.—The Salem Heights school opened last week with 108 pupils, with many more coming after prunes and hops are harvested. The first grade, taught by Miss Margaret Barquist, has the largest first grade ever enrolled here, with 21. First graders are: Loyd Saul, Bobby Averette, Raymond Gunn, Ellaree Morton, Joseph Bowman, Jesse Jones, John DuRette, John Barkus, Billy Sparks, Shirley Anne Bosell, Donna Carr, Harold Senn, Mable Nixon, Marion Nixon, Thomas Bartlett, Thomas Burger, Beverly Matlock, Donald MacDonald, Mildred Schultz, Jean Bandy and William Bohanon.

Miss Doras Lee of Portland will fill the third and fourth grade vacancy. Miss Lee will also teach music, orchestra and music appreciation in the school. Miss Elizabeth Smith, teaching the fifth and sixth grades will also teach a class of first aid in the school. Under her supervision last year 15 pupils passed the test for the American National Red Cross first aid and now hold Red Cross certificates. Many parents are requesting that this be taught again this year.

Mrs. Agnes Booth is the principal and teaches the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Barquist and Mrs. Booth will teach art in all the grades. School Patrol Formed. The 4-H boys class will have Myron Van Eaton for their leader. The girls 4-H will be under the direction of Agnes Booth. A school boy's patrol has been organized for the purpose of safety first, on the highway. George Douglas is the captain and now hold Red Cross certificates. Many parents are requesting that this be taught again this year.

Mrs. Agnes Booth is the principal and teaches the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Barquist and Mrs. Booth will teach art in all the grades. School Patrol Formed. The 4-H boys class will have Myron Van Eaton for their leader. The girls 4-H will be under the direction of Agnes Booth. A school boy's patrol has been organized for the purpose of safety first, on the highway. George Douglas is the captain and now hold Red Cross certificates. Many parents are requesting that this be taught again this year.

Has Question Box At Rebekah Lodge

TURNER, Sept. 21.—Ideal Rebekah lodge met Wednesday night in the I. O. O. F. rooms. The attendance was small but an enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. Lucile McKinney had charge of the question box and Mrs. Susan Girardin of the refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards recently returned home from a long motor trip with the principal stops made at Salt Lake City and a visit to Yellowstone national park. Return from England. Mr. and Mrs. Ina Davis who have just returned from a leisurely visit in England with relatives, and who spent the week at the home of a brother, Charles Davies and wife, have returned to their large ranch in California. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bear are home from their three months stay in Newport. L. A. Edwards who lives a mile west of town, has moved his house some rods west and to the north side of the road on a hill.

Manual Training Course Is Added By Gervais High

GERVAIS, Sept. 21.—At a meeting held Friday night the high school board voted to add manual training to the course of study. Excavations are being made under the stage of the auditorium and work benches and other equipment are being prepared. Showers are also being installed. The outlay at present will be approximately $500 and classes will be started about October 1. A class of probably 15 boys will take up the work. Prof. F. A. Gelleghy will teach the manual training.

Rev. Christensen Resigns, Astoria

Quits Service After 41 Years; Well Known At Silverton

SILVERTON, Sept. 21.—Rev. M. A. Christensen of Astoria, who is known to almost all of the 600 Lutherans as well as many others at Silverton, has resigned his pastorate at Astoria after being in the service of the Lutheran ministry for 41 years. Rev. Christensen has given many lectures at Silverton, has often preached from Silverton pulpits and visited at Silverton homes. Rev. Christensen is the son of the pioneer pastor, Emil Christensen, who came to Astoria in 1876, and whose house, which he built in 1877, is still standing. Rev. M. A. Christensen has spent the entire period of his ministry in the four western states, Idaho, California, Oregon, and Washington, and in Alaska where he served as a missionary for two years. Following his graduation from Luther college in Decorah, Iowa, in 1892, and from Luther seminary in 1895, he came to Genesee, Idaho, where he served until 1899. His son-in-law, Rev. Theodore Gulhaugen of South Bend, Wash., will succeed him in the Astoria charge. Thus Mrs. Gulhaugen (Gertrude Christensen) will succeed her grandmother and mother as "first lady" in the Astoria Lutheran congregation. Rev. and Mrs. Christensen will make their home at Parkland, Wash. where Dr. O. A. Tingelstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tingelstad of Silverton, is president of Pacific Luther college, and his brother, Edwin, former principal of the Silverton senior high school, edits the Pacific Lutheran Herald.

School District Has No Bond Debt

SCIO, Sept. 21.—Scio school district No. 95 has no bonded indebtedness, whatever, and its warrant indebtedness of $1,500 could be paid at any time, according to a compilation of figures presented by J. F. Wesley, clerk of the district, at the budget meeting of the school board. The budget as tentatively prepared and subject to ratification or alteration at the final meeting to be held at the city hall a 2 p. m., October 16, provides estimated expenditures of $12,464 during the fiscal year from June, 1936, to June, 1937. Estimated receipts for the same period are placed at $7,786.57, leaving the sum of $4,677.43 to be raised by taxation. Five instructors in the high school are to receive monthly salaries as follows: J. H. Thibbleson, principal, $155.55; Mary Ellen Marsh, $90; Frances Patterson, $95; Cecil Elder, $100; W. S. Snyder, $90. Each of the four grade teachers is to be paid as follows per month of four weeks: Vincent Johnson, $85; Blanche Wilson, $80; Marion White, $80; Gertrude Tarr, $80. The total amount for instruction for the nine months aggregates $6,300. For the first time in the history of the school, five instructors are employed in the higher branch of the institution. This was made necessary in order to meet standardization requirements of the state department of education.

Funeral Services Will Be Held This Afternoon For Elizabeth Glaesman

WOODBURN, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Glaesman, 75, died at the home of her brother, F. Shanbeck of 222 C street Saturday night. She was born in Indiana March 27, 1861, and is survived by her brother of Woodburn; a brother, C. C. Shanbeck of Portland; one sister, Mrs. Mary Ehnert of North Dakota. Funeral services will be held at the Zion Mennonite church east of Hubbard Tuesday at 2 o'clock with Rev. J. L. Green and Rev. E. C. Yoder officiating. Interment will be in Zion cemetery.

Grangers' News

VICTOR POINT, Sept. 21.—Union Hill grange in regular session Friday night completed arrangements for the national booster night program September 30. The meeting will be open to the public and the program is being planned by the lecturer, Mrs. J. C. Krenz, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys and Miss Joanne Oeder. Other committees appointed were: reception, Mrs. W. H. Rabens, Mrs. J. O. Darby and Miss Alice Jaquet; decorating, Mrs. C. C. Carter, Mrs. G. L. Woolley and Mrs. Henry Peters; refreshments, Mrs. Porter Downing, Mrs. W. H. Rabens, Mrs. H. M. Gilmour and Mrs. Byron McElhaney. The annual grange community fair date was set for October 17.

3 New Teachers For Amity High

AMITY, Sept. 21.—The Amity schools opened Monday. The union high school has three new teachers to take the places of E. E. Jackson, Smith-Hughes instructor, Miss Lillian Von Flann, English teacher and Miss Eileen Fargle, commercial teacher. The high school faculty for the year is principal, A. N. Arnold; English teacher, Miss Maud Durfee; commercial teacher, Miss Eleanor Shunk; home economics instructor, Miss Edna Strout; athletic coach, Orle Robbins; and Smith-Hughes instructor, James B. Thomas. The grade school staff is the same as for many years, with the exception of the principal, who is Joe Watt, formerly of Falls City. The enrollment is expected to be slightly larger than last year, in both schools, although many students have not yet enrolled as they are working during the prune and hop harvest. The four busses will cover practically the same routes as last year. Leave for South. Mrs. A. R. Rierson spent Friday at the home of her father, A. T. Odum, near Sheridan, Odum accompanied by his brother, A. Odum of Seattle, left Friday for a visit to their old home near Nashville, Tenn. Lloyd Fresham is having a new residence built on his farm east of Amity by M. T. Henderson, local contractor and builder.

Salem Club Has Meet at Mehama

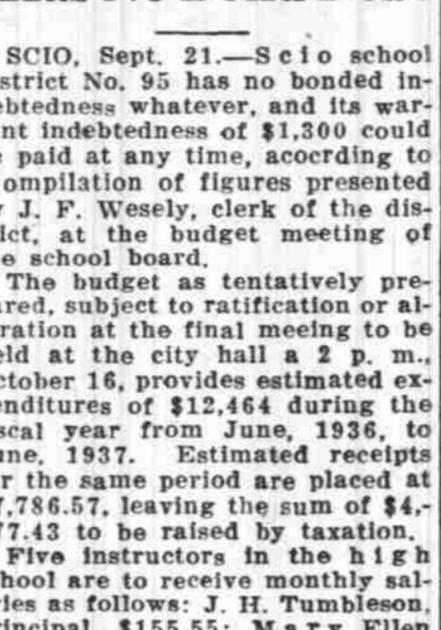

MEHAMA, Sept. 21.—The Friendship club of Salem with husbands and friends motored to Mehama Sunday to meet with Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes. A picnic dinner was served at 1:30 and the afternoon was spent in playing games, telling stories and fishing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Standish, Mrs. Henry Curtis, Mrs. Cora Bows, Mrs. Marnie Calloway, Miss Lottie McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. William Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Knight, and Mrs. Sarah Smith, all of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes of Mehama. School opened here September 14 with an enrollment of 27. This year all the pupils are in one room under the supervision of one teacher, Mrs. Francis Finley. Theon Wilkerson of Cambridge, Ida., was a visitor here recently. Monday he accompanied Mrs. Floyd Monroe and Mrs. Willard Johnson to Yachats and Waldport. Thursday Mrs. Rillie Mason, Ercell Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cothren and small daughter, Patsy Anne, motored to Waldport and Yachats where they visited with Mrs. Mason's brothers and mother.

Will Take Treatments In Shrine Hospital; Mrs. Hoag Is Hostess

MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—Preparing her departure for Portland to enter the Shriner's hospital for treatments, Marcia Yocum was entertained with a handkerchief shower Thursday, arranged in her honor by Betty Jane Nelson at the latter's home. Marcia attended school in the training department of Oregon Normal the past year. Lameness, resulting from an attack of infantile paralysis some years since, is improving, and it is hoped that with the approaching series of remedial treatments she may be benefited further. Mrs. D. A. Hoag was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Sunbeam Thimble club at her country home. Guests, in addition to members, were Miss Kathleen McCrae, and Mrs. Lee Stillwell of Dallas.

SEE THE Exciting New STUDEBAKERS First!

ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH

SEE the exciting new 1937 Studebakers first and see the first and finest expression of 1937 motor car styling! See the new Studebaker "winged victory" radiator grilles and louvers! See the new Studebaker one-piece hood tops that lift up from the front! See the new Studebaker air foil fenders! See the new Studebaker domed disc wheels! Open the wide, deep doors and walk into the lavishly roomy new Studebaker interiors, styled by Helen Dryden! Get behind the wheel and thrill to the brilliant new Studebaker performance—in the world's only car with the automatic hill holder and equipped with the world's finest feather-touch hydraulic brakes! Try a new Studebaker and you'll buy one!

FREE! FIVE STUDEBAKER PRESIDENT SEDANS for the best forecasts of the Presidential election. Tune in Studebaker Champions Monday night N.B.C. for complete details.

STUDEBAKER'S C. I. T. BUDGET PLAN OFFERS LOW TIME PAYMENTS

Bonesteel Bros., Inc.

CHEMEKETA & LIBERTY PHONE 4444

THE WORLD-FAMOUS "COCOANUT GROVE" IN LOS ANGELES. This famous restaurant of the Ambassador Hotel is a center for dining de luxe. Stars of stage and screen—California's gay society—parade by... famous faces everywhere. Camels are first choice at the Coconut Grove. Jimmy, the well-known maitre d'hotel of the Coconut Grove, says: "People who are good judges of food are equally discriminating in their choice of a cigarette. Here they all seem to smoke Camels."

Smoking Camels with meals and after helps bring a sense of well-being. EATING is one of life's real pleasures. Camels make it more enjoyable! Smoking Camels speeds up the flow of digestive fluids... alkaline digestive fluids, which good digestion requires. Mild, rich-tasting Camels are a refreshing stand-by the whole day through. Camels set you right! They never get on your nerves... tire your taste... or irritate your throat.

THOSE WHO "for Digestion's Sake — Smoke Camels!" EXPERIENCE A DELIGHTFUL SENSE OF DIGESTIVE WELL-BEING

NATIONAL BOWLING CHAMP, Charlie Warren, says: "It's Camels for me. When I smoke Camels at mealtime and after, I have a great feeling of comfort. And I enjoy my meals more too."

LESTER STOEFFEN, tennis champ. Like so many of sportdom's top-notchers, he prefers Camels. "An athlete has to have good digestion," says Lester. "I smoke a lot during meals and after. Camels make food digest easier."

Rev. Christensen Resigns, Astoria

Quits Service After 41 Years; Well Known At Silverton

SILVERTON, Sept. 21.—Rev. M. A. Christensen of Astoria, who is known to almost all of the 600 Lutherans as well as many others at Silverton, has resigned his pastorate at Astoria after being in the service of the Lutheran ministry for 41 years. Rev. Christensen has given many lectures at Silverton, has often preached from Silverton pulpits and visited at Silverton homes. Rev. Christensen is the son of the pioneer pastor, Emil Christensen, who came to Astoria in 1876, and whose house, which he built in 1877, is still standing. Rev. M. A. Christensen has spent the entire period of his ministry in the four western states, Idaho, California, Oregon, and Washington, and in Alaska where he served as a missionary for two years. Following his graduation from Luther college in Decorah, Iowa, in 1892, and from Luther seminary in 1895, he came to Genesee, Idaho, where he served until 1899. His son-in-law, Rev. Theodore Gulhaugen of South Bend, Wash., will succeed him in the Astoria charge. Thus Mrs. Gulhaugen (Gertrude Christensen) will succeed her grandmother and mother as "first lady" in the Astoria Lutheran congregation. Rev. and Mrs. Christensen will make their home at Parkland, Wash. where Dr. O. A. Tingelstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tingelstad of Silverton, is president of Pacific Luther college, and his brother, Edwin, former principal of the Silverton senior high school, edits the Pacific Lutheran Herald.

School District Has No Bond Debt

SCIO, Sept. 21.—Scio school district No. 95 has no bonded indebtedness, whatever, and its warrant indebtedness of $1,500 could be paid at any time, according to a compilation of figures presented by J. F. Wesley, clerk of the district, at the budget meeting of the school board. The budget as tentatively prepared and subject to ratification or alteration at the final meeting to be held at the city hall a 2 p. m., October 16, provides estimated expenditures of $12,464 during the fiscal year from June, 1936, to June, 1937. Estimated receipts for the same period are placed at $7,786.57, leaving the sum of $4,677.43 to be raised by taxation. Five instructors in the high school are to receive monthly salaries as follows: J. H. Thibbleson, principal, $155.55; Mary Ellen Marsh, $90; Frances Patterson, $95; Cecil Elder, $100; W. S. Snyder, $90. Each of the four grade teachers is to be paid as follows per month of four weeks: Vincent Johnson, $85; Blanche Wilson, $80; Marion White, $80; Gertrude Tarr, $80. The total amount for instruction for the nine months aggregates $6,300. For the first time in the history of the school, five instructors are employed in the higher branch of the institution. This was made necessary in order to meet standardization requirements of the state department of education.

Funeral Services Will Be Held This Afternoon For Elizabeth Glaesman

WOODBURN, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Glaesman, 75, died at the home of her brother, F. Shanbeck of 222 C street Saturday night. She was born in Indiana March 27, 1861, and is survived by her brother of Woodburn; a brother, C. C. Shanbeck of Portland; one sister, Mrs. Mary Ehnert of North Dakota. Funeral services will be held at the Zion Mennonite church east of Hubbard Tuesday at 2 o'clock with Rev. J. L. Green and Rev. E. C. Yoder officiating. Interment will be in Zion cemetery.

Grangers' News

VICTOR POINT, Sept. 21.—Union Hill grange in regular session Friday night completed arrangements for the national booster night program September 30. The meeting will be open to the public and the program is being planned by the lecturer, Mrs. J. C. Krenz, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys and Miss Joanne Oeder. Other committees appointed were: reception, Mrs. W. H. Rabens, Mrs. J. O. Darby and Miss Alice Jaquet; decorating, Mrs. C. C. Carter, Mrs. G. L. Woolley and Mrs. Henry Peters; refreshments, Mrs. Porter Downing, Mrs. W. H. Rabens, Mrs. H. M. Gilmour and Mrs. Byron McElhaney. The annual grange community fair date was set for October 17.

3 New Teachers For Amity High

AMITY, Sept. 21.—The Amity schools opened Monday. The union high school has three new teachers to take the places of E. E. Jackson, Smith-Hughes instructor, Miss Lillian Von Flann, English teacher and Miss Eileen Fargle, commercial teacher. The high school faculty for the year is principal, A. N. Arnold; English teacher, Miss Maud Durfee; commercial teacher, Miss Eleanor Shunk; home economics instructor, Miss Edna Strout; athletic coach, Orle Robbins; and Smith-Hughes instructor, James B. Thomas. The grade school staff is the same as for many years, with the exception of the principal, who is Joe Watt, formerly of Falls City. The enrollment is expected to be slightly larger than last year, in both schools, although many students have not yet enrolled as they are working during the prune and hop harvest. The four busses will cover practically the same routes as last year. Leave for South. Mrs. A. R. Rierson spent Friday at the home of her father, A. T. Odum, near Sheridan, Odum accompanied by his brother, A. Odum of Seattle, left Friday for a visit to their old home near Nashville, Tenn. Lloyd Fresham is having a new residence built on his farm east of Amity by M. T. Henderson, local contractor and builder.

Salem Club Has Meet at Mehama

MEHAMA, Sept. 21.—The Friendship club of Salem with husbands and friends motored to Mehama Sunday to meet with Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes. A picnic dinner was served at 1:30 and the afternoon was spent in playing games, telling stories and fishing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Standish, Mrs. Henry Curtis, Mrs. Cora Bows, Mrs. Marnie Calloway, Miss Lottie McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. William Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Knight, and Mrs. Sarah Smith, all of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes of Mehama. School opened here September 14 with an enrollment of 27. This year all the pupils are in one room under the supervision of one teacher, Mrs. Francis Finley. Theon Wilkerson of Cambridge, Ida., was a visitor here recently. Monday he accompanied Mrs. Floyd Monroe and Mrs. Willard Johnson to Yachats and Waldport. Thursday Mrs. Rillie Mason, Ercell Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cothren and small daughter, Patsy Anne, motored to Waldport and Yachats where they visited with Mrs. Mason's brothers and mother.

Will Take Treatments In Shrine Hospital; Mrs. Hoag Is Hostess

MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—Preparing her departure for Portland to enter the Shriner's hospital for

SEE THE Exciting New STUDEBAKERS First!

SEE the exciting new 1937 Studebakers first and see the first and finest expression of 1937 motor car styling! See the new Studebaker "winged victory" radiator grilles and louvers! See the new Studebaker one-piece hood tops that lift up from the front! See the new Studebaker air foil fenders! See the new Studebaker domed disc wheels! Open the wide, deep doors and walk into the lavishly roomy new Studebaker interiors, styled by Helen Dryden! Get behind the wheel and thrill to the brilliant new Studebaker performance—in the world's only car with the automatic hill holder and equipped with the world's finest feather-touch hydraulic brakes! Try a new Studebaker and you'll buy one!

FREE! FIVE STUDEBAKER PRESIDENT SEDANS for the best forecasts of the Presidential election. Tune in Studebaker Champions Monday night N.B.C. for complete details.