William Ruhe to Head Grand Army

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The Grand Army of the Republic voted today to hold its national encampment next year in Madison, Wis. C. H. William Ruhe of Pittsburgh, Pa., who ran away from home at 15 to join the Union army, was elected commander-in-chief.

While the Grand Army awarded its next meeting to Madison on the ground that city stepped aside this year for Washington, D. C., and invitation for its 1938 encampment was received from the deep south, it was extended on behalf of St. Cloud, Fla.

The election of the new commander was by acclamation, his opponent, George H. Pounder of Ft. Atkinson, Wis., withdrawing. Commander Ruhe later made Pounder his chief of staff.

A request from the American league to oppose communism, that the G. A. R. appoint a committee of three to meet with other patriotic organizations on the subject, was voted into the army's archives.

High Living Costs Deplored by Knox

DENVER, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Col. Frank Knox, republican vice-presidential nominee, wound up his western campaign tonight by declaring high living costs overshadow the nation's recovery.

"Recovery could not be stopped," he said in an address prepared for delivery before a Denver republican rally.

"We emerged from the depression very much later than we should, with a shadow hanging over us. . . . The prospect of a relentless rise in the cost of living.

"In the three and one-half years of this administration, the general cost of living has risen 30 per cent, the costs of food-stuffs have risen more than 40 per cent."

Rubber Factory's Strike Nears End

AKRON, O., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Members of the Goodrich local, United Rubber Workers of America, voted unanimously tonight to return to work at the B. F. Goodrich company plant which suspended operations making 10,000 employes idle after a series of "shut-downs."

L. L. Callahan, president of Goodrich local, announced the vote.

Members of the Goodrich local took their vote immediately after receiving a report from a union committee which had been in conference all day with company officials. Callahan said the vote eliminated the probability of an outright strike.

'Lie Detector' Is Tossed Into Fire

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The faked "lie detector" which was intended to scare bad boys at the Newton street grammar school into telling the truth, went up in flames today.

Gray Moreland, inventor of the device and principal of the school, ordered the janitor to dump the "detector" into the furnace. In effect, the fire had been kindled by a storm of criticism over the introduction of "prison" methods in a school.
