Special Assembly Held at Junior High School In Silverton

SILVERTON, Sept. 24.—All new students in the Silverton junior high were honor guests at the assembly Wednesday morning. Bernice Hannan, president of the student body, explained the symbolism of the junior high pin by means of a huge, colored poster, and urged the students to follow the motto of "Pep, Courtesy, Loyalty."

Phyllis Adams, vice president, welcomed the new ninth graders, and also all students from other Oregon towns. Twenty-five districts are represented in the ninth grade, all of these from the county surrounding Silverton.

Verla Aycock, secretary, welcomed new students from other states. Twelve states were represented.

Dorris Carrol, treasurer, welcomed the 78 students. Assisting the four speakers by leading songs and yells were Miss Elaine Clower, Richard Pickett and Mes. Olson, the latter being yell leader. Altogether about 150 students were welcomed and formally presented with junior high pins.

New Students Listed Students from other schools, than those naturally in the Silverton high school, were ninth grade. Mike Cunningham, Sillet; Albert and Herbert Henderson of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Emma Hollingshead, Parrish junior high, Salem; Doris Horton, Culbertson, Neb.; Lois McDivitt, Langdon, N. Dak.; Rachel Medack, Terre Bella, Calif.; Junior Meyer, Tupper, Ariz.; Germaine Mills, Culbertson, Neb.; Dale Plumber, Oak Leaf, Neb.; Ralph Schroder, Beaver Lake; Vernice Tollefried, Holt, Minn.; Ralph Winter, Walla Walla, Wash.

Farmers' Union News

CLOVERDALE, Sept. 24.—Wednesday night, the Farmers Union held its regular monthly business meeting. Due to the busy season not many members were there. Three new members, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill and Fred Mitchell were initiated. The president, Karl Booth, appointed these newcomers for October refreshments. Arthur E. Kunkle, George A. Theis and A. A. Dumback; program, Erna Ahrens and Gertrude Hinnes; delegates to the county convention, October 8, Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. Standley Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennies.

H. W. Hann of Woodburn and members of the Mt. Angel local gave a political talk, after which refreshments were served.

Foss Will Speak At Mission Fete

SILVERTON, Sept. 24.—Rev. H. L. Foss, president of the Pacific district of Lutheran churches, will be the guest speaker at the annual Mission fete program at Trinity church Sunday. Rev. Foss will speak at 11 o'clock.

Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr, pastor of the church, is chairman of the morning program. Special musical numbers are also being arranged. Luncheon will be served in the social rooms of the church at noon, followed by an afternoon program. At the afternoon program, Mrs. Tom Anderson and Miss Frances Nelson will sing a duet. Mrs. Alvin Logard will sing, accompanied by her son, Deziel, on the violin. Other numbers are also being arranged.

Party Men Crash Wrong Gathering

CANBY, Or., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The church was crowded and the audience quietly expectant. Two men rushed in, apparently believing they were late.

"Who is in charge? We're the speakers from republican headquarters," one the men said to a spectator. "This is no political meeting, it's a wedding," was the answer. Lowell Paget, president of the Oregon republican club, and Will Knight, state G.O.P. speaker, both of Portland, had their dates mixed. They were due here a week from tonight.

Special Services Planned at Lake

Three services of special interest to the Lallah Center and Clear Lake communities have been planned for Sunday and Monday at the Clear Lake Evangelical church. Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock Rev. H. R. Scheuerman of Vernonia will be the guest speaker. Rev. Scheuerman is well known in this community, having served a pastorate here several years ago. This is one of a group of pulpits exchanges being featured throughout the entire Oregon-Washington conference.

At 8 p. m. Sunday the Lallah Center and Clear Lake congregations will have a union service with Dr. E. W. Petticoord, superintendent of the Oregon district of the Oregon-Washington conference of the Evangelical church, as guest speaker. The subject of Dr. Petticoord's message is "God's Blessed Man." The second quarterly communion service will follow. Preceding this service at 7 p. m., the young people of the Lallah Center church will present a demonstration Christian Endeavor meeting for the Clear Lake young people. Selections by the Lallah Center choir and electric guitar solos by Leslie Klampe are special features.

Of special interest also is the service Monday, Sept. 28, at 8 p. m., when Dr. Petticoord will present an illustrated lecture on "Palestine—the Old and the New." Dr. Petticoord spent many months in Palestine and is well informed on this subject. The second quarterly conference will convene immediately after the lecture.

Organizing 4-H Clubs Again in Aurora Classes

AURORA, Sept. 24.—Lloyd Girod, principal of the grade school, is organizing 4-H clubs in the school. The 4-H health club was organized Monday in the seventh and eighth grades and includes 18 members. This work has been discontinued in Aurora for several years.

Girod, who has had a great deal of experience with this work, will be the leader for the health club. The officers elected were Pphaen Sayre, president; Walter Colvin, vice president; Dan Fleischhauer, secretary; Billy Cole, yell leader. Pphaen Sayre was elected patrolman to escort children in the lower grades across the Pacific highway. Other projects to be taken up by the club are cooking, sewing, calf raising and forestry.

Airlie District Sends Student to Willamette; McKibben's Brother Dies

AIRLIE, Sept. 24.—Melvin McKibben went to Salem Sunday to enter Willamette university. Jack Wienert is attending Monmouth high school and Orla Nendel is here from Summit to attend high school. The Jesse McKibben family was called to Cottage Grove Monday by the funeral of his brother, whose death followed a short paralytic stroke.

Cloverdale Young Woman Has Another Operation As Result of Face Injury

CLOVERDALE, Sept. 24.—Katherine Shompler underwent another operation on her face Monday as a result of a car accident that happened early last spring. At the time of the accident part of her jaw that holds the teeth was broken from its place. At this operation part of the jaw was entirely removed. Arthur W. J. Bestvater and family have returned here and are living again in one of Joe Morris' houses. Bestvater will be principal of the Cloverdale school.
