Students Strike

Epidemie Includes Two of Utah Districts; Varied Grievances Recited

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 25.-P)-School bells remained silent in opposite ends of the state today as two small-town "school strikes" involving more than 150 students ended the week with grievances still unsettled.

Parents have forbidden Glendale's 65 grammar school and 35 high school students to attend the newly-consolidated school at Orderville, four miles distant. Trustees refuse to reopen the abandoned Glendale school.

Thirteen seventh and eighth grade pupils at Eden are the subject of a quarrel, school trustees ordering them to a junior high school at nearby Huntsville and parents insisting that an upper-grades teacher be added to the Eden school staff.

Parents ordered all of Eden's 54 school children to remain away from classes until an agreement is reached.

PARIS, Sept. 26.-(Saturday)-France, long-buffeted king of the gold bloc, early today summoned parliament for what officials said would be "approximately one third" devaluation of the francthe result of a "monetary equilibrium" accord with the United States and Great Britain.

In a night and early morning crammed with dramatic, fast breaking, developments, the popular front government sought to solve its grave financial troubles with these measures:

1-Parliament, meeting at 9 a. m. Monday, will be asked to set the gold content of the franc, now 65 milligrams, at between 49 and 43 milligrams. 2-France, the United States and Great Britain will act in concert for "equilibrium" of the franc, the dollar and the pound sterling, as a result of this realignment. Other nations are ex-
