Must Register in Next Week, Warns

Marion county voters, who expect to vote at the presidential election November 3 and are unregistered, have only one week left to get their names on the voting lists, U. G. Boyer, county clerk, stated yesterday. Registration closes Saturday, October 3, one month before the election,

Although more than 200 people registered at the clerk's office yesterday and the registration has been heavy for the last two weeks, the lists of both parties are still far short of the 1932 registration, Boyer said. Boyer urged that all citizens who have not voted in the last two years or have moved from one precinct to another register immediately. He also stated that women who have changed their names by marriage should re-

Revival-"Back to Pentecost." Evangelist, Ethel M. Heidner, in charge. The Lord has been using Evangelist Heidner in a wonderful way, through the gift of the laying on of hands for the reception of the Holy Ghost. In the past year 753 have received this blessed experience, Acts 2:4, un-der her ministry. Two have re-ceived in the first three nights of her campaign here, and many have been refilled and we extend to all who-desire to be filled with the Holy Ghost a hearty invita-tion to come and be filled while the latter rain is falling so freely. She will be speaking on the following subjects the coming week:

Sun. A. M. Lift up a standard for the people, Sun. P. M. Behold the Man. Mon. P. M. I will pour water upon him that is thirsty. Tues. P. M. Is the speaking in other tongues scriptural? Wed. P. M. The unchanging Christ, Di-
