

Eight Teams to Cavort in Unique Football Bill Here Tonight

Valley Squads Making Debut

Four From East to Battle Four on West Side of River; Start 8:15

Lined up in east vs. west fashion eight football teams of the Willamette valley interscholastic league will tonight rip the cover of their season as they stage the most unusual game ever played in Oregon on Sweetland field at 8:15 o'clock.

Each of the eight teams, representing the strongest small high schools in the Willamette valley, will take the field during the game for 15 minutes.

Dallas, Newberg, Independence and West Linn will represent the western side of the league in the melee and Silverton, last year's champion, Canby, Woodburn and Molalla the east. Totals scored by teams on each side will give the final result at the conclusion of 60 solid minutes of football.

Because drawings will take place on the field to see who plays who, the game will be a countless one. The drawings will take place shortly after 8 o'clock when the eight teams will march on the field ensemble.

Dope Is Scanty Since none of the teams have yet played games, their relative strength is more or less a question mark but Silverton, Woodburn and West Linn are expected to be strong.

To make the game more of a novelty there will be a different set of officials in every quarter. Sixteen arbiters will work during the course of the game.

Another feature will be a rooter's contest between the eight schools represented. The winning school will be given the football used in the game as a trophy.

Proceeds of the contest will go into the league treasury for use in purchasing trophies. The 20-30 club is sponsoring the opener.

Phillips Is Head Of Ham and Club

W. L. "Bill" Phillips became the new president of the Salem Breakfast club when the organization elected new officers for the coming season at its first fall session at the Marion hotel yesterday morning.

Don H. Upjohn was elected vice president, Gardner Knapp, secretary, and Brazier Small and Tom Hill, directors.

Coaches "Spec" Keene and Don Fisher of Willamette and Albany colleges each spoke briefly, Keene interpreting the few changes made in the football rules this season.

Harold Hauk, Salem high school coach, also talked and stated that the season is not yet old enough for predictions as to Salem's prospects this year.

John Oravec, scheduled to tell about the all-star game in Chicago failed to appear.

Linfield, Coyotes Will Clash Today

MEMPHISVILLE, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—A line averaging around 190 pounds and a backfield 170 will be Linfield's challenge to the College of Idaho in its first 1936 northwest conference game here tomorrow.

Linfield's coach, Henry Lever, apparently has abandoned for the time being efforts to develop passers and pass receivers and has concentrated his attention on developing a powerful running attack.

The Idaho eleven already has a 15 to 0 victory over Albion College this season.

Game time is 2:30 p. m.

Ex-Champ at Tourney With Wife

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Little

Two of the most interested observers at the 1936 national amateur golf championship at Garden City, L. I., were Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Little. Little was amateur champion in 1935 but was unable to compete this year, having turned professional.

Look for lots of passes in that Willamette valley interscholastic league game fight on Sweetland field tonight. The high school lads will be using the new high school rules which allow pass flipping from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, just like the prancing pros do. Of course, the lads from the valley high schools won't be able to flip the old pill around with the dexterity of some of the famed pro stars but anyway they'll be in there trying. Several of the schools, notably Woodburn, are featuring a razzle-dazzle type of attack this season.

Today in the hot reaches of Los Angeles' gigantic, colossal and stupendous Coliseum the Beavers from Oregon State will be playing a football game with the once mighty defenders of the walls of Troy. It's a game that the Beavers have already lost to the sports writers of Southern California, who are wise and mighty in their wisdom, by a margin of six touchdowns. It's the old battle-cry of "the heat, the heat, the heat" get 'em. But the Beavers, unlike their green and lemon brethren at Eugene, have always done fair to middlin' in L.A. heat or no heat and those sturdy sophomores that bear the flag of Troy for Ole Massa Jones will know that they have been in a ball game.

It was Oregon State's deathless Iron Men who stopped the

Giants Favorites To Win in Opener

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The New York Yankees are favorites to win the world series, but the prospective appearance of Carl Hubbell in the box has made the Giants the choice for the opening game in the polo grounds next Wednesday.

With Hubbell on the mound, Jack Doyle, Broadway bookmaker, today quoted 6 to 5 against the Yankees in the first game and 3 to 5 against the Giants. For the series, however, Doyle quoted 11 to 20 against the Yankees and 13 to 10 against the Giants.

While the betting commission reported a lively business, the midtown offices of the Giants and Yankees were deluged with ticket requests. A sellout of box seats was announced by both clubs. They added, however, that the supply of reserved seats is plentiful.

Students Strike In Three States

(Continued from Page 1) leaders estimated, remained away from schools today because of a disagreement between County Superintendent A. S. Scott and union officials over the employment of three teachers.

Scott refused to offer new contracts to three teachers. Union leaders said the men were "fired because of their activity" in the American Federation of Teachers' union.

Tennis Champion Hard Pressed to Gain Final

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Blonde Alice Marble, national women's singles champion, survived a hectic three-set struggle with Mrs. Midge Van Ryan of Orange, N. J., today to gain her way into the women's singles finals of the Pacific southwest tennis tournament. The scores were 2-6, 6-3, 8-7.

Potato Harvest Late

BEND, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Gus Hagglund, Deschutes county agent, said today the harvest of Netteed Gem potatoes probably would not begin until well after October 1, since much of the crop is just starting to mature. The yield was estimated at one of the largest in the county's history.

Siren Blows; Switch Is Stuck, No Fire Occurs

SILVERTON, Sept. 25.—A short in the switch in the city hall at 8:45 and again at 7 o'clock tonight brought the town out to see where the big fire was. The siren became stuck in blow for about five minutes.

Temple Runs Wild

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Temple University, scoring in every possible way a deceptive aerial and ground attack, swamped Centre College 50 to 7, before 15,000 persons tonight.

Oregon Takes Slow Contest

Blocked Punt, One 48-yd. Drive Beat Portland; Sophomores Shine

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—A blocked punt and a 48-yard march gave the University of Oregon a 14 to 0 grid victory over Portland university tonight in a somewhat listless season's opener for the Webfoots. About 5,000 persons saw the game.

Engstrom, Oregon end, got in the way of Dunstan's punt on Portland's 33-yard line early in the first quarter, and Nilsen, Engstrom's teammate at the opposite end, scooped up the ball and ran for the score. Lasselle converted.

Bob Braddock and Jean Lacau led the parade from the 48-yard line for Oregon's second counter in the third quarter. Braddock went the last 12 yards for the touchdown. Nicholson converted.

Not until the last quarter was Portland able to gain consistently with a flashy passing attack.

Eugene Wins Over Chemawa Gridmen

Scores Early, Gets Other Touchdown in Third on Caven's Long Dash

CHEMAWA, Sept. 25.—Eugene's Axemen outclassed the Chemawa Indians here today and won a 13 to 0 victory.

Eugene's powerful attack slashed through the Indian defense before the game was minutes old to score in the first quarter and added another touchdown in the third period when Caven dashed 40 yards to pay dirt.

Chemawa meets Tillamook here next Saturday. Eugene Bear Cub ... LE. Stevenson Bell ... LT. Fees Tracks ... LG. Smith Christian ... C. Schissler Strom ... RG. Swindle Bernard ... RT. Lomis Sanderville ... RE. Brown Mail ... Q. Coughman Smith ... LH. McIntyre Adams ... RH. Caven Patton ... F. Bishop

And while in Los Angeles the Trojans are hoping with hearty hope to start out again on such another winning streak as their last, up in Seattle another stretch of victories lies in the balance. There that Minnesota juggernaut that for three years has been crushing everything in its path, meets up with the University of Washington in the biggest game of the early season. Minnesota, with its wins stretching behind it, is a favorite over Jimmy Phelan's Huskies, picked by many experts this season as the cream and toast of the coast.

Undoubtedly the Huskies have what should be the greatest team in their history. A senior backfield behind a line that except for the end posts is also made up of four year men. Haines, Cain, Logg and Nogrowski, a great backfield combination, and a reserve crew of sophomores that they say are just as able. And Minnesota, here stars each year replace stars, is another great team. Seattle is today the football center of the nation.

Captain Bush to Speak on Monday

Experiences in the Malay jungles hunting tigers and elephants will be related to the Salem chamber of commerce membership at the Monday noon luncheon by Captain W. C. Bush.

Bush, who served with the British forces during the world war, was for six years a rubber planter in the jungles of Malaya and in that time hunted big game with the Sultan of Johore.

Actual experiences that will make most wild animal stories sound tame are included in the story Bush will tell Monday.

British Will And U. S. Is Forecast

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Randolph Churchill, youthful British journalist and today political leader, predicted today that Britain will come to the aid of the United States "if your country is ever being done in by Japan in a war."

As for Hitler, young Churchill said "We are all mugs if we let us make a world issue of communism and fascism—an unreal issue as both are dictatorships."

But what Doremus Jessup said to Buzz, Titus and Father Perfero, was "This is Revolution in terms of Rotary."

CHAPTER XI When I was a kid, one time I had an old-maid teacher that used to tell me, "Buzz, you're the thickest-headed dunce in school."

But I noticed that she told me this a whole lot oftener than she used to tell the other kids how smart they were, and I came to be the most talked-about scholar in the whole township. The United States Senate isn't so different, and I want to thank a lot of stuffed shirts for their remarks about Yours Truly.

Public Speaking Classes in Great Demand at Dallas

DALLAS, Sept. 25.—The first week of school here has seen unusual interest in public speaking, with four classes organized for the year. Teachers attribute the strong hold this course has gained to the fact that the Dallas high debating team made last year.

The opening registration in the high school, 316 students, showed a slight gain over the 309 last year. In the grades, there was a slight loss with 518 registered Monday of this week against 525 at the same time last year.

Pigskin Scramble On Coast Starts

Washington - Minnesota Is Headliner; Stanford Held Under Dog

By RUSS NEWLAND SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Football's legions swing into action tomorrow in opening engagements of the toughest and most interesting schedules ever put together by major far-western colleges.

The big pigskin scramble starts with the outstanding intersectional clash in the country, bringing together Minnesota, undefeated in three years, and the finest University of Washington team assembled during the coaching regime of Jimmy Phelan.

Pacific coast conference championship hopes of Southern California and Oregon State college will be tested in the fire of opening day competition.

The unusual spectacle of the opening Rose Bowl choice of the past three New Year's day games in the probable role of "under dog," pits Stanford against Santa Clara in a non-conference opener.

Howard Jones' Southern California Trojans will line up at home favored to win from an Oregon State team which Coach Lon Stinner describes as "the best since 1933."

University of California's powerful and experienced team, ranked by many in the same class with Washington, gets under way in a double header at Berkeley. Opposition will be provided first by the California Aggies, then the College of Pacific eleven coached by 74-year-old Amos Alonzo Stagg.

Washington State's Cougars start the season against Montana in a conference game which will not count in the championship standings and Idaho faces its annual opening day rival, Whitman college.

Gains in Lumber Orders Reported

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—New business of 74,392,000 feet comprised a gain of 10 per cent over the previous week, the Western Pine association's report for the six-day period ending Sept. 19 showed today.

Flood Hearing Held

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Colonel M. P. Fox, U. S. district engineer at Portland, heard evidence regarding flood control damage on the Umpqua river and its tributaries today. Following the hearing, he asked that data be submitted in writing as a basis for a proposed flood control survey.

Temple Runs Wild

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Temple University, scoring in every possible way a deceptive aerial and ground attack, swamped Centre College 50 to 7, before 15,000 persons tonight.

Normal Beats Soldier Squad

Two Touchdowns Scored Second Period; 13 to 7 Is Final Outcome

MONMOUTH, Sept. 25.—The Wolves of Oregon Normal opened their football season today with a 13 to 7 victory over the Vancouver Barracks team.

Getting off to a poor start in the first quarter, the Wolves were kept deep in their own territory, but as the second period opened they were handed a break, recovering a fumble on the soldiers' 20-yard line.

On the first play Borden of Oregon Normal raced around right end for a touchdown, but failed to convert the extra point. After the next kickoff and an exchange of punts, Borden passed to Dewy who raced 27 yards to a touchdown. Borden converted the extra point and the Normal's scoring was ended.

Soldiers Score Late In the third period there were no fireworks, but late in the final period after Coach Cox of the Wolves had made numerous substitutions the Barracks team took advantage of the situation to score.

Colson of Barrack right halfback, raced 30 yards around right end. Two more substantial gains were made on similar plays and then Gregory, Barracks fullback, plunged over for the touchdown. The extra point was made.

A highlight of the game was the work of Lt. Field, All-American tackle from West Point, who proved his ability by repeatedly smashing up Normal plays.

Although a bit ragged due to lack of practice, both teams showed up well for so early in the season.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The body of Mrs. F. A. Weidner, 35, was found in the rear of the beer parlor she operated near Portland's downtown business section today. Police said she had been strangled and beaten.

Lieutenant Theodore Schulpus said the woman's husband admitted killing her. Weidner was found at his home a short time after the body of his wife was discovered. He was bleeding from a bullet wound in the head. Attendants said tonight he was in a serious condition.

Detective Sergeant Fleming said Weidner told him he tried to kill himself.

Wallace Attacks Policy of Landon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace said here tonight that "the agricultural proposals put forward by Governor Landon and the republican party would end in a smash worse than 1932."

In an address broadcast by the democratic national committee, replying to a speech by the republican presidential candidate at Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday night, Wallace broadened his remarks to assert:

"The greedy and ignorant forces behind the national republican party have not learned the lesson of 1928 but are willing again to plunge us into that tragic chaos."
