Federal Forester Takes Up Defense

The federal forest service, through C. J. Buck, regional director, informed Governor Martin Wednesday that a survey would be started at once of fire plans which would include construction of fire defense lines for protection of life and property in the Coos and Curry county area,

The forest service also will take over the fire fighting on an additional 160,000 acres of land in this fire zone, including all lands lying within six miles of the boundaries of the Siskiyou national forest in Coos and Curry Buck said the offer was made state and county fire protection associations to carry such a load. Governor Martin sent a telegram to Buck expressing appreciation for the offer. The governor said the state was without funds for such an extensive fire protection program.

OCTOBER 3-10, VISIT THE 4-H Club Exhibits AT PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

a symbol for "good living" This year, 25,000 will work for this award of merit.

Character, not chance, controls the destinies of these heirs-to-Oregon-agriculture, who add to the three R's their 4-H's-for clear Heads, loyal Hearts, useful Hands and better Health.

Oregon's prosperity will be safe in the hands of these 4-H Club workers. Last year they showed $84,000 profit on projects involving $228,000 worth of livestock and goods. Oregon's social system is soundly based upon this "younger generation" now being trained to earn while they learn the most modern methods of farming, livestock-raising, and homemaking, who early begin the practice of working in cooperation with their neighbors, in the 2030 Oregon 4-H Clubs.

Since 1911 when the state-wide 4-H Club movement was inaugurated, some of the most interesting and valued customers of The First National Bank of Portland have been 4-H Club members who can transact business like "old timers". Many years banking experience with 4-H Club workers has convinced us that membership in this great organization is real character-insurance and a sound foundation for credit.
