Miss Eleanor Yarnes Wed To William Mosher at Church Ceremony

T an impressive candelight ceremony last night Miss Eleanor Yarnes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes of Albany, became the bride of William Mosher, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mosher of Salem, at 8 o'clock in the First Methedist church in Albany.

Smart Event

Thursday

THURSDAY afternoon will of-

I ficially open the rush week at Alpha Phi Alpha will open its doors first between the hours of of Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs.

Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. David

Junior and senior women will assist about the rooms. Miss Jean Rasey will offer several piano solos and Miss Martha Jane Hot-

Those who have been asked to pour during the afternoon are

Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Robert Gatke, Mrs. Charles V. Galloway and Mrs. William E. Kirk.

Delta Phi sorority will receive

Greet Guests at Beta Chi

the guests at the door at the Beta Chi house between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock. Miss Julia Johnson will introduce to the line.

Those who will be in the receiv-

Mrs. Ernest Richards, Mrs. Frank

Erickson, Miss Beryl Holt and will mingle with the guests in the

Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs.

Charles Sprague, Mrs. Paul Wal-afternoon. Miss Helena Schneider, Miss Marian Averill, Miss

Charlotte Litchfield, Miss Helen

Olds, Miss Rosalie Goulder, Miss

Mabel Lenz, Miss Ruth Bunzow and Miss Carol Smith will serve.

lem Women's club and meeting in Review New Books

Knower is the leader.

Miss Barbara Benson will greet tell will give a reading.

will serve.

living room

students on the campus.

Willamette university. At that

Dr. Yarnes performed the wedding rites. The altar was banked with an ivy covered lattice, zinnias, marigolds and dahtice, zinnias, marigolds and dah-lias. Tall candelabra were placed on either side holding white cathon either side holding white cath-

Preceding the service Linden Launer of Albany sang "Until". Mrs. Hazel Ewing of Albany was the organist and played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white transparent velvet made on simple lines with long court train. Tiny velvet buttons down the back of the waist and at the wrist em- time the three sororities, Alpha bellished the dress. Her full Phi Alpha, Beta Chi and Delta length veil of lace and tulle fell Phi, will open their sorority from a halo cap. She carried a homes for the formal inter-sororshower bouquet of white rosebuds. ity tea which will honor all new

Mildred Drager Attendant Miss Mildred Drager of Salem attended the bride as maid of honor. She was gowned in a Cop- 3 and 5 o'clock. Miss Lunelle Chaenhagen blue moire taffeta dress. pin will greet the guests. Miss White gardenias were worn at the Norma Fuller will introduce to neckline. Bridesmaids were Miss the line which will be composed Josephine Anderson of Salem and Miss Vernita Van Fleet of Port- Bruce Baxter, Dean Olive M. Dahl land. They were dressed alike in frocks of burgundy red taffeta Wright and Miss Rachael Yocom. and also wore gardenias at the Little Miss Shirley Jones of Salem was flower girl. Miss Jeannette-McClain and Miss Margaret Williamson of Albany lighted the

Harry Mosher, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Don Erickson, Paul Carpenter, Luman Ney, Joseph Scott and William Stone,

Reception Follows The bridal couple, members of the wedding party, Dr. and Mrs. guests between the hours of 3:30 Yarnes and Mr. and Mrs. Mosher and 5:30 o'clock. Miss Roberta received at the reception which McGilchrist will open the door. followed the ceremony at the Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent will bride's home. Mrs. Oro Buhl and introduce to the line which will Mrs. C. H. Burggraf of Albany include Mrs. Fred A. Weil, Mrs. presided at the punch bowls. As-Paul Hauser, Mrs. Charles Shersisting in the serving were Miss man, Miss Jessie Wood and Miss Josephine Anderson, Miss Vernita Martha Warren. Senior and soph-Van Fleet, Mrs. Donald Faber, Miss Jeannette McClain and Miss ing the guests. Margaret Williamson. To Reside in Albany

Following a short wedding trip Miss Frances Virginia Melton bany at the Ellsworth apartments. For traveling the bride chose a navy blue suit trimmed with grey fur and matching accessories.

Mrs. Mosher is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. Mr. Mosher also is a graduate of the university and a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He has received his master's degree from Oregon State where he is now working toward his Ph.D. in chemistry.

Girl Reserve Advisors Are Announced

Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher has announced the plans for the various Girl Reserve group for the coming years and their leaders. On Monday Mrs. Gallaher is offering a Leadership Training for Girl Reserves which Literature Class Will will be held in the Y.W.C.A. room of Eaton hall at Willamette university.

The first regular meeting of the High School Tri-Y club will be tomorrow at 12:50 p. m., in the assembly at the high school. Advisors for the group are Ruth Yocom and Kathryn Thompson and the faculty advisor, Mrs. H.

Tuesday afternoon after school Mrs. Ed Weller will meet with the Washington girls. The Englewood group will be organized Tuesday with the help of Mrs. Gallaher. Charlotte Eyre will be Wednesday Parrish and Leslie groups will meet. Mrs. Reynolds Allen will be the advisor for Leslie and the faculty advisor, Esther Arnold. Ninth grade at Parrish will be under the leadership of Betty Taylor and Miss Rosalind Van Winkle faculty advisor. Ruth Tscharner will meet with 8th grade Parrish girls for their first neeting. Miss Doris Clarke will essist from the faculty. Seventh rade at Parrish will meet with heir advisor, Mrs. E. B. Daughrty Thursday afternoon

Thursday morning Girl Reserve ommittee members will meet with the Girl Reserve advisors at to a. m., to work out their pro-gram and plans for the school rear at the Y.W.C.A. under the irection of Mrs. David Bennett

Mildred Walker is the advisor t Grant; Ruth Ramsden at Grant d Ruth Pemberton and Lois Miller at Bush

The Tri-Y Girl Reserves and the Hi- Y boys will give a fresh-man reception at the high school next Friday night.

Farewell Party Given

Honoring Miss Dorothy Hale. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hale a shower was given by Mrs. J. P. Herbst at her home on South 18th street. Miss Hale's narriage to Richard L. Orey will se an event of the early winter.

Den Miles
J. J. Gillespie
Herbert Hale
George Orey
Fred Hale
Ferman Hasting
J. P. Herbst
MISSES

Derethy Porter Eather Davis
Evelya Prepp Doris Coe
Lucile De Harpport Miss Hale and her mother are leaving Salem to make their home in willard, Wash., where Mr. Hale

MAXINE BUREN - Women's Editor Striding Along In College Parade -

The Intersorority Council directing fall rushing at Willamette includes members from the three houses.

Left to right: Marjorie Thorne, Beta Chi, Mary Jeannette Sargent, Delta Phi, Julia Johnson, Beta Chi, Norma Fuller, Alpha Phi Alpha, Martha Warren, Delta Phi and Rachael Yocom, Alpha Phi Alpha, president of the council. All matters pertaining to sorority entertainment and rushing are re-

A Spectator Looks at College Rushing

By MAXINE BUREN

EVEN a layman, a mildly interested spectator, may feel a tinge of excitement at the events of rush week, red letter event of the next two weeks at Willamette, when this annual affair is understood.

Willamette university is growing, and becoming important to Salem in many ways. Athletic standing, fast gaining, brings out-of-town visitors and turns the eyes of Oregon to Sophomore girls will assist in the Salem when a game of importance is scheduled.

Sororities at Willamette, although not of national standing for everyone to meet members of through the dean of women to a have through the past 15 or 16 the three sororities. The tea beformal dinner for that night. This their alma mater.

the president and vice president will entertain in their house at of each of the three sorority houses direct activities. Rushing rules omore girls will assist in receiv- have been drawn up, and with personal rushing. Friday, Satur- with these elaborate sounding Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. Roy S. forced to make the rushing of new and girls are informally enter-KeKene, Miss Lois Latimer and students fair to all and put a lim- tained, without expense. on expenditure and will pour. Junior sorority women Briefly here is the list of the

> On Thursday, October 8, the inter-sorority tea is held, all new girls on the campus are invited to selves to think it over and on Sat- if an active member had overattend. This gives opportunity urday invitations are issued stepped her priveleges.

activities to occur in the next few years sent out a good many hundred graduates who are still vitable in the doings of the still vitable in the still vitable in the doings of the still vitable in the still vitable in the doings of the still vitable in th The Delta Phi house at 1610 Court | sorority. Dean Olive M. Dahl and the street is opened from 3:30 to 5:30 Inter-Sorority council made up of and from 4 to 6 the Beta Chis

Each sorority has one day of the approval of Dean Dahl are en- day and Monday are designated, rules so studies can go on dur-1445 State street.

the next two days buffet dinners are given by the sororities each having its own night to entertain.

be trucked to the fire area.

Sigma Tau fraternity were hosts Friday night for a delightful informal dinner at their house on Oak street. Prof. and Mrs.

The dining table was striking with its centerpiece of white and Those present for the affair were the Misses Jane Fisher, Bet-ette Jordan, Alice Speck and Char-

Mrs. Catlin to Entertain

Thursday Club

Mrs. E. C. Cross.

Du Bains Entertain

Masonic Temple.

Social Evening

Business Women Enjoy

Mrs. Blanche King was hostess was served by the recreation com-

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Du Bain are having as their guest for a fortnight, Mrs. Esther Du Bain, Bain's home is in Los Angeles.

mother of Mr. Du Bain., Mrs. Du

Eastern Star announces initiation and balloting after the business

E. S. Oliver were chaperones.

For Dinner

white tapers.

the 18th. Then on to studies and four years of college life. Rushing has been regulated ing the time and so money is not And remember that all aunts, mothers sisters and friends are held to these same rules under These are invitational. Friday the penalty of the offending sorority girls are given a day by them-the sentiments of the Spinsters, Richard Christofferson celebratsaid the club's appeal for clothes to send to Bandon, was generoused his first birthday Thursday afternoon at a party for which his ly answered. Many pieces of wearing apparel, in excellent condition mother, Mrs. Gerald Christofferson was hostess. Fall flowers were were taken to the American Legion headquarters where they will the decoration. Small favors were presented to the guests.

Richard Christofferson Miss Pegy Munger, expressing Celebrates Birthday

> Those present were Ronald Cross, Franklin Woelk, Mrs. Frank Woelk, Betty Zahane, Mrs. Edward Zahane, Sally Jo Greig, Mrs. Clarence Greig, Bonnie Bell, Delores Hathaway, Mrs. Phil Hathaway, Alice Joy Miller, Mrs. Miller, Wendell Holliday, Mrs. Forrest Holliday, Stewart Wells, Mrs. Wilmer Wells, Wendolin Cross, Mrs. Wendel Cross, Johnny Clement, Mrs. Clement, Donna Greig, Mrs. Leonard Greig, Colleen Cross, Mrs. Hans Christofferson and Mrs. R. B. Cross.

Charboneau, Helene Trulsen, An- Meet at Library

lotte LaDue, the Messers Joseph Alpha Mu Delphians are re-Harvey, jr., Grover Williams, quested to attend a special meet-William Wagner, Winthrop Hening called by Mrs. J. Vinton Scott for Tuesday at the public library. derson, Gerald Sherman, George LaVatta, William Miller, Robert At 9:30, members will discuss Hart, Herman Estes and Ross plans for meetings to be held during the visit of Miss Lena Goble, district officer from Los Angeles.

Yomarco Class to Meet With Mrs. Siewart The Thursday club will meet at the home of Mrs. Russell Catlin The ladies of the Yomarco next Thursday afternoon. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Sunday school class of the First M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Siewart on Spencer, Mrs. Frank Benson and Winter and Center streets Tues-day, October 6th at 2:30. Mrs. Ronald Glover and Mrs. Roy Hewitt will assist the hostess.

on Friday at her home, 445 South Pringle Group Begins Winter Meetings 21st, to the Business and Professional Women. Bridge and pen-ochle occupied the guests the Pringle Pleasant Point Social club will meet Thursday, October greater part of the evening. Lunch 8 at the home of Mrs. William Probst at the first all day meeting of the year. Each member is requested to bring something for the Bandon relief. Mrs. Frank Clark will assist the hostess.

> No-Host Dinner For Dakota Club

The Dakota club will meet on Wednesday at 6:30 in the W. C.

Mrs. Vera Barrick, Worthy Matron of Chadwick Chapter of the Eastern Star announces initiation and balloting after the business Crary in charge. Bring your form. Crary in charge. Bring your own To Visitors table service.

meeting on Thursday. Members will gather on the 6th floor of the home of Mrs. Hayes Rehm on The Englewood Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Schreiber at 21st and Nebraska streets for a social afternoon and flower show. The award went to State, the Y Menettes gathblooms. Many of the showing were imported recently from Euplace room of the Salem public flower show. The award went to Mrs. J. M. Scharff for his dis- rarian, James T. Rubey.

"Life of the Government WorkMiss Julia Query sang two vocal numbers and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott gave an interesting talk on the South Sea Islands and Australia. Members of the committee who assisted the hostess were Mrs. Bertha Yaeger, Mrs. O. A.
Chase and Mrs. H. Owen.

"Life of the Government Workord guests and October birthdays will be observed at the meeting of the American War Mothers on Tuesday at 1 p. m. The meeting will be in the form of a no-host luncheon and the American Luthof Congress and other places of educational interest,

"Life of the Government Worker in Washington" was the subject of Mr. Rubey's talk in which he explained living conditions of the American War Mothers on Tuesday at 1 p. m. The meeting
will be in the form of a no-host
luncheon and the American Luthof Congress and other places of
educational interest,

"Life of the Government Worker in Washington" was the subject of Mr. Rubey's talk in which he explained living conditions of
the American War Mothers on Tuesday at 1 p. m. The meeting
will be in the form of a no-host
luncheon and the American Luthof Congress and other places of
educational interest,

"Life of the Government Worker in Washington" was the subject of Mr. Rubey's talk in which he explained living conditions of
the American War Mothers on Tuesday at 1 p. m. The meeting
will be in the form of a no-host luncheon . . . rubrum lilies in large crystal gazing bowls arranged at each end . . . white tapers in silico City as the Ivan W h I t es center . . . At Priscilla Fry's announcement luncheon . . . appointments all in pink and white . . . white chrystal heldof Congress and other places of educational interest,

"Life of the Government Worker in Washington"

A grand send off . . . at Mexeach end . . . white tapers in silico City as the Ivan W h I t es center . . . At Priscilla Fry's announcement luncheon . . . appointments all in pink and white
. . . white chrystal parties ico City as the Ivan W h I t es continue for of the continue

Of Wedding Friday

THE chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church was the scene of a lovely wedding Friday night when Miss Rosemary Sawyer, daughter of Mrs. C. B. O'Neill, became the bride of Allan Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Earle. Rev. George H. Swift read the impressive service at eight o'clock. The couple exchanged their vows before an altar of white chrysanthemums and white tapers. Bradford Collins was organist and played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, was stunning in an afternoon model of brown chiffon velvet tunic. Old sage of orchids.

Sister Only Attendant Miss Margie Sawyer, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a dress of dark red crepe with matching accessories. A gardenia corsage was worn at the shoulder.

Sam Earle, brother of the groom, acted as best man. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. O'Neil chose an ensemble of light blue with fur trim and dark blue accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother was dressed in all black and her flowers were gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Earle will make their home in Cottage Grove where Mr. Earle is now in busi-ness. For traveling Mrs. Earle wore tailored brown suit and light brown caracul coat.

Both the bride and groom at tended Salem schools and are well known among the younger set. Mr. Earle also attended Willamette university.

Abas String Quartet Coming to University Willamette university students will have the opportunity of hearing the Abas string quartet in a festival of chamber music this fall, which has been scured by Formal pledging is on Sunday, the music department in a series of three concerts. The festival will take place in the Willamette gymnasium October 13, Octobe 20 and November 10.

The Abas quartet personnel includes Nathan Abas, first violin; Abraham Weiss, viola; Hubert an important item in the enter- Sorenson, second violin; Kar Rossner, violoncello, The Aba quartet has been particularly active in California and during the 1935-36 season played more than 50 concerts on the Pacific coast A movement which is having wide bearing upon the appreciation of chamber music in southern California was inaugurated by the quartet two years ago. Through special arrangements the quartet has played in many educationa institutions solely for undergrad uate students. Such opportunities are welcomed by its members as another step in fulfillment of their program of education

Tickets are available only the university students.

Childs Have Week-End Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs have as their guests this week-end Miss Olive and Miss Amy Coe of Saratoga, Calif. They are en route home from Olso, Norway, where they have been attending the World Sunday School convention Miss Amy Coe has been a mission ary in India for some time.

Mrs. Gahlsdorf Will Entertain Group

Mrs. William Gahlsdorf will open her home at 1255 North Cot tage to the northwestern divis ion of the Ladies Aid of the first Presbyterian church at 20'clock on Tuesday. Assisting the hostess are Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie, Mrs. Robert Dillon and Mrs. Lee,

Sketch Class Joins

With Painters The sketch class of the Salem Arts league and the painting section will combine forces at a joint meeting once a week. The first affair will be held Thursday at 7 p. m., in the fireplace room of the Salem public library. Those interested in joining are welcome to come to the meeting.

Jason Lee Groups In Joint Meeting The Wesleyan Service Guild and the women of the Home and For-eign Missions of the Jason Lee church will meet jointly at the home of Mrs. L. Lorenz at Broadway and Belmont on Monday at 8 p. m. There will be installation of officers.

Mrs. Kvame On Visit Here Mrs. John J. Kvame of Minot, North Daktoa, and Goodwin Kvame of Helena, Montant, are been planned for their entertain-

The Beacon Bulb Farm. public today to show dahlia et and clever grey hat.

|Chapel Scene|Medical Auxiliary to Meet Thursday at The Dalles For 10th Session

THE 10th annual session of the bership of around 35 and is secgon State Medical society will begin its sessions in The Dalles at 10 a. m. on Thursday, October 8. Meetings will be held at the Elks temple and The Dalles hotel. A business meeting opens the ession, followed by a 12:30 luncheon honoring the advisory council when Dr. Charles E. Sears of Portland will preside. Dr. Thomas Wynne Watts, president elect of the Oregon State Medical society is scheduled to speak. At 2:30 Thursday reports of fashioned lace was the only trim. standing committees will be made. Her accessories and hat were brown fashion. She wore a corgiven.

Friday's program includes an 8 o'clock Founders' day breakfast, a 9:30 business meeting. with roll call of county auxiliaries and reports of special committees. Luncheon at 12:30 will be followed by an afternoon tea and the informal banquet will begin Saturday begins with a state officers' breakfast at 8:00, a business meeting at 9:00, with installation of new officers and after the adjournment there will be a golf tournament as a finale. Official delegate to the convention is Mrs. Hugh A. Dowd, the tri-county president, This associa-tion includes Marion, Palk and Yamhill counties, boasts a mem-

Ramages Leave for Month Trip

from there motoring to Minneapolis where they will visit with relatives.

Later they will attend the American Bottler's convention in Chicago. Before returning to the capital they will go to New Orleans and visit with their son, Jack, who is intern in one of the hospitals.

Mrs. Wilson Will Be at Tea Tomorrow

As a gesture of greeting to Mrs. Charles Wilson, new house mother white pottery. Mrs. Seymour of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority, members of the sorority will en- presided at the tea urns. tertain at a large formal tea tomorrow afternoon at the chapter house on North Summer street. | Civic Players Will Hours for calling will be from four to six o'clock.

The tea table will be attractive with an arrangement of golden chrysanthemums, talsiman roses and oak leaves in a large bowl. Matching tapers will guard the centerpiece.

be Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. Percy Kelly, Mrs. George Pearce and Mrs. Ray Yocom. Sorority maids will serve and assist in the to appear at rehearsals held every drawing room.

Salem Girls are Pledged To Sororities

Word has reached Salem of the Plans for Tea pledging of several of Salem's unversity women. At Oregon State Miss Bonnie Baldock, Miss Maxine Gahlsdorf, Miss Dorothy Williams pledged Kappa Alpha Theta sor- pointed included to Lamba Lamba Sigma sorority.

ganization here is about seven years old. Mrs. James M. Odell, whose husband was formerly at the tuberculosis hospital here, will be hostess at the tea in her home on the state hospital grounds in

The Dalles, where she now re-D.A.R. Convene At Woodburn

Saturday

THE Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their regular monthly meeting at Woodburn yesterday afternoon at the city library. Members of the Woodburn chapter were special guests. Mrs. C. C. Geer, regent, presided at the meeting.

On November 7 the 21st birthday party of the group will be celebrated at the Salem Woman's Special gusets for the meeting yesterday were Miss Emily Hind-man and Mrs. Norwood.

Mrs. Katherine Powell reported on Constitution Day and Mrs. C. C. Clark read the President General's message. Mrs. W. M. Fargo gave a splendid report on approved schools. These schools Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ramage left are in the southern mountains this week for a month's tour of for poor children and are supthe middle west and southern ported entirely by donors. Mrs. states. En route east they will I. M. Schannep reported on nastop at Yellowstone National park, tional defense. The chapter voted five dollars to be given to the Red Cross for fire relief.

Mrs. Morton Speaker Mrs. R. M. Morton was the speaker of the day and chose as her subject the Hawaiian Islands. She has lived in the islands for 26 years. She explained why there is believed to be a submerged continent. She related some of her journeys to nearby islands and illustrated her talk with a map. She also described the dense floral growth and ani-

The tea table was attractive Jones and Mrs. Russell Catlin

Rehearse Play

The Salem Civic Players launchhearsals began the first of this week. They are now casting their first play, Alibi Bill which will be presented at Chemawa to the Presiding at the tea urns will Kiser Community club on November 24th. This group is a civic enterprise and anyone interested is welcome week night just across from the Statesman office on Commercial street. Miss Beulah Graham is directing the players.

A.A.S.U.W. Discusses

At the home of Mrs. Milo Rasmussen Friday, a committee met to make arrangements for the tea and Miss Gretchen Gamer have to be given in honor of Mrs. been pledged to Delta Delta Delta George Alden. The affair will be sorority. Miss Jean Langille held very soon, the committee ap-

MESDAMES Miss Doris Schunke who is attending Linfield has been pledged to Lamba Lamba Sigma sorority. Miss Mary Eyre

Seen and Heard

By JERRE

MALL social season began in flourish this week for Salem folk . . . receptions, teas, luncheons and bridge clubs pre-

The tea given for Mrs. William Cole at the Ted Chamber's home Thursday was the occasion for much feminiscing after the summer season . . . everyone seemed to have a good time.

Tiny Mary Lou McKay with her Shirley Temple curls made quite a hit as she greeted guests at the door . . . Mrs. Cole was lovely in a dinner gown of pink lace . . . the hostesses all looked charming . . . Mrs. Chambers in flowered chiffon . . . her sister, Dorothea Steusloff, in a metal cloth blouse with black skirt . . . Mrs. Douglas McKay in red bro-

Mrs. Custer Ross, stunning in all black with gardenias at the throat and Mrs. Prince Byrd in wisiting at the home of Mr. and throat and Mrs. Prince Byrd in Mrs. Guy Fagg (Josephine Kvame). Various affairs have jacket . . . mingled with the

Seen chatting . . . Mrs. Victor Griggs smart in a black suit accentuated with white satin blouse . . Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., distinctive in a black wool dress and matching accessories . . . Mrs. After a dessert luncheon at the way is opening its doors to the print topped with plain blue lack-

> Best looking tea tables glimpsed Gwen looked smart is recently . . . unique and different satin tunic over a blac was the table at the Chamber's a corsage at the waist. home . . . rubrum lilies in large ers . . . Bouvardia corsages with silver bows revealed the news

President and Mrs. Baxter's reception last Saturday night honoring the new faculty was one of the loveliest witnessed by Salem folk for some time.

Everyone turned out for the occasion to have their first opportunity of meeting these charming new faculty wives and husbands. We didn't mind waiting in the foyer of Lausanne for a full twenty minutes to be introduced to the line . . . our attention was drawn to the new carpet and furnishings . . . very good looking. An atmosphere of dignified simplicity filled the rooms . . A large bouquet of multi-colored sinnias . . . only decoration in the receiving room . . . the punch table, centered with a striking arrangement of silver balls and silver candelabra holding yellow and green tapers.

Mrs. Baxter graciously received her guests in a gown of printed silk metal cloth. Black and white predominated among the formals seen . . . Mrs. Lyman White and Mrs. Chester Luther in white satin . . . Mrs Verne Bain and Mrs Dwgiht Lear in black . . . Mrs. Gail Royer in green chiffon . . . and Mrs. James Rubey in a flowered silk Martha Warren in wine velvet presided at the bunch bowl . . . Julia Johnson and Gwen Gallaher serving . . . Julia in a blue dinner dress embellished with silver . . . Gwen looked smart in a white satin tunic over a black skirt . . .

For Dorothy Hale

Those present were:

Elfreda Bombeck Roby Davis

Northwest division of Ladies Aid, First Presbyterian church meet with Mrs. William Gahlsdorf, 2 p. m. Salem W. C. T. U., meets 2 p. m. in club rooms. Reports of delegates from state convention, Dallas, son, Cascade Drive, 2 p. m.

American War Mothers, no-host luncheon, 1 p. m. at American Lutheran church. Jessie Bush, 1363 South Commercial, 7:45 p. m.

Wednesday, October 7 Woman's Home Missionary Society, M. E. church, $:15, carrier room of church temple. All members and Thursday, October 8 Chadwick Chapter, Eastern Star meets sixth floor Masonic Temple for business meeting, balloting and in-Those interested invited. William Probst, all day meeting.

Spinsters Drive For ing line are Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Music Teachers Hold Clothing Success

Business Meeting Miss Marjorie Thorne. House girls Mrs. Jessie Bush will be hostess at her home on 1363 South Commercial Tuesday to the Salem Music Teachers association, Miss Margaret Hogg will be assisting lace and Mrs. Herbrt Rahe will hostess at the meeting called for preside at the tea urns during the

Mrs. Walter Denton will report on the meeting of the National Federation of Music clubs held in Fraternity Men Hosts Portland this summer. Miss Elma Weller and Miss Bush will discuss the state meeting of the Oregon Music Teacher's association which convened in McMinnville in June.

Nicola Zan to Begin

Nikola Zan, internationally

The outstanding books of the year will be reviewed at the literature class sponsored by the Sa-red gladioli guarded by red and the club house on Wednesday af- begin his classes Monday at his ternoon. This class will begin at studio, 605 Union street. He has 2 o'clock and anyone interested is taught for 20 years in New York welcome to come. Miss Eve and Portland and has an operetic Fairclought, Jean Bartlett, June Alpha Mu Delphians ty Williams, Claire Hurley, Alene and concert background.

SOCIAL CALENDAR Hours for the society editor are as follows: 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m. every day but Saturday. On Saturday, they are 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to Monday, October 5 Women's Republican Study club meets at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop, 765 Court.

Rebecca team practice after the lodge meeting in I. O. O. F. hall tonight. American Legion Auxiliary holds regular meeting at Fraternal temple, 8 p. m. Wesleyan Service Guild and Woman's Home and Foreign Mission, Jason Lee church in joint meeting, at home of Mrs. L. Lorenz, Broadway and Belmont, 8 p. m.

Tuesday, October 6 Salem General Hospital auxiliary meet at the chamer of commerce at 10 a. m. All women interested in-Alpha Mu, Delphians, special meeting at library, Laurel Social Hour club, at home of Mrs. C. J. Jack-Yomarco Sunday school class of M. E. church meets home of Mrs. A. A. Siewart, Winter and Center streets

Music Teachers association, meets at home of Miss Literature class sponsored by Salem Woman's club, at the club house 2 p. m. All interested invited to attend.

Dakota club, at W. C. T. U. hall, 6:30. No-host supper, so bring own table service, Sketch class and painting sections of Salem Arts League, Fireplace room of Salem Public library, 7 p. m. Pringle Pleasant Point Social club, at home of Mrs.