Mrs. Herbert Ostlund will direct a social hour after which tea will be served. Mrs. E. J. Swafford and Mrs. George Alden will preside over the tables that will be

Budget Charts Show Expenditures for Income Groups

By MAXINE BUREN

FOLLOWING last week's discussion of the family budget, let's get down to figures. Here's the budget for a single person with a salary of 75 dollars per month. He's allowed:

Savings $2.50; room, 2 meals, $37.00; lunches $10.00, clothing $15.00, laundry and entertainment, $3.00.

Now look at the married couple without children. In this group, the saving group, because more is needed for the future as savings include life insurance. Room and two meals change rent to housing and food, clothing remains the same as does advancement. Operating takes the place of laundry.

This couple is allowed: savings $10.00, food $27.00, rent and upkeep $30, clothing $15.00, operating $10.00, advancement, $8.00.

Now look at the average American family and take the lowest practical income of $125 per month. This family is composed of two parents and two children. The budget allows:

Savings $6.00, food $41.00, shelter $32.00, clothing $25.00, operating $14.00, advancement $7.00.

In this group savings must include decorated with late autumn flowers and bronze tapers. The president, Mrs. William E. Kirk is anxious for each member to come and bring a guest.

In the Valley Social Realm

Aurora—A new element of expectancy and flutter is noticed in social circles and various organizations. Schedules now being made known gives promise of a delightful variety of entertainment for days ahead. For the Grand maid, Mrs. F. C. Renshaw opened the season by inviting friends to a five table bridge luncheon Thursday. The hospitable home was made more lovely by gorgeous dabbias rightly placed about the rooms, reflecting the wild autumn coloring of costumes worn by the guests.

Scotts Mills—The ladies of Scotts Mills and vicinity have been exceptionally busy this week. Wednesday a Dart-Jones pre-nuptial shower was given at the home of Mr. Dart's sister, Mrs. Russell Moberg. Sixty-four were present. Miss Jones received many beautiful and useful presents. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. E. Jones, Mrs. Grace Dart, Mrs. Melvin Crenilla and Miss Mildred Conison.

Friday Mrs. Lena Bellinger entertained the Royal Neighbor club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Shepherd. Twenty-three ladies were present and a pot-luck lunch was served. During the business meeting in the afternoon the minutes of the first meeting held March 28, 1922, were read. There were nine charter members, all living except Mrs. Minnie Groshong, who passed away almost two years ago. Before adjourning to meet at home of Mrs. Norma Etlin, November 6, the ladies took a straw vote, Roosevelt 10, Lemke 3, Landon, 3. Two of the ladies declined to vote.

Turner—The Better Homes and Garden club will meet Thursday afternoon, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Wallace Riches. Officers for next year will be elected, and other business transacted.

Woodburn—The first fall meeting of the Homemakers Exchange club will be held at the home of Mrs. P. G. Vickers, 471 Montgomery street Monday afternoon.

Fine House Being Built For Grocer, L. B. Howard

MONMOUTH, Oct. 3.—L. B. Howard, Monmouth grocer, has had construction work begun this week for a new home, 40 by 36 feet on a lot fronting East Main street, near Catron street, and extending back to East street.

Comstocks to Help Build Bandon Emergency Homes—Once Ran Silverton Mill

MONMOUTH, Oct. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Comstock plan to leave soon for Bandon where he will be employed as a carpenter in construction of the new emergency homes for residents. They have lived at Monmouth for about 15 years, coming from the Midwest where Comstock was engaged in sawmill operation. He started a mill at Silverton some years since and lost it in a fire; and later, while living Salem, lost a home by fire.

Aldens Guests At Facult Dinner

MEMBERS of the Willamette university faculty will honor Dr. and Mrs. George H. Alden at a large dinner party Tuesday night in the banquet room of the Y.M.C.A. at 6:30 o'clock.

The affair will be an affair tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Alden before they depart to take up their residence in Los Angeles. Dr. Alden has been on the university faculty for the past 20 years and resigned his position as head of the history department last spring.

Places will be marked for 85 guests at a long table which will be centered with an arrangement of sinias and autumn leaves. Candles will furnish the only light.

A very interesting program has been arranged by Prof. W. C. Jones. Short talks will be given by the various members of the faculty who travelled during the summer.

Working on the general committee for the affair are Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter, Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. W. C. Jones and Dean Olive M. Dahl.

City Dads Reduce Bond Interest for Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Oct. 3.—Bids received for refunding the $60,000 city water bond issue, were opened last night. A combination bid made by Tripp, McCleary, and Baker-Fordyce company, to purchase the bonds at 4 1/2 per cent, was accepted. The old bonds had 12 years to run, but bore an interest rate of 6 per cent. The change will reduce interest charges by $900.
