

Hills Fair Has Good Exhibits

Exception Displays Are Noted at Community's Show; Awards Told

SILVERTON, Oct. 3.—If quality instead of size were the test of choices made for entries in country fairs, the fairs would be considerably improved, said Scion T. White, judge of the agricultural exhibits and guest speaker at the Silverton Hills community fair held all day Saturday and Saturday night. The Home Economics club, of which Mrs. Alvin Hartley is president, sponsored the fair.

The best carrots at this fair, said Mr. White, were found in the kitchen. However, Mr. White expressed the opinion that Saturday's fair was an unusually fine country fair. Mr. White also briefly described the work of his department and its war on fraudulent weights and measures. He asked the cooperation of all in helping fight the war. Too many housewives, he said, liked to buy 13-pound hams for 15 pounds.

Other numbers on the afternoon program were piano solos, Mrs. Will Wilcox and Lucile Mulkey; vocal solos, Miss Agnes Walker and Arthur Sacker.

Found guilty on two charges, Fred Schindler was sentenced to 10 days in jail and fined $40 by Judge A. Warren Jones in municipal court yesterday morning. Schindler was charged with purchasing stolen property and with buying junk from minors. He was fined $20 on each count with the jail sentence added to the junk buying charge because it was his second conviction on such an arrest.

Schindler offered no testimony on his behalf before the court yesterday. His only defense was that the property was bought a long time ago and that he didn't remember much about it. When reminded of facts connected with the transaction, the defendant admitted they were probably true. The property bought by Schindler was stolen last June.
