

Junior League Opening Today

Midgets to Invade Leslie Gridiron, Parrish and Salem Bees Clash

Football season for about 60 boys in Salem's high school and two junior highs will open today when the intramural league swings into action with games at Leslie and Olinger fields.

The scrappy Midgets, little but tough club of undersized high school students, will take on Leslie while the Salem B team, cast-offs from the Viking grid squad, will meet Parrish at Olinger. Both games will start at 4 o'clock.

The Midgets, who boast their best club in three years, will have the advantage of better organization over the Leslie club which was not able to begin practice until recently due to uncompleted dressing rooms. The Midgets, under the competent captainship of Mendel Shusterwitz, have been practicing almost since school started.

Should Be Close
The battle between Parrish and the Salem Bees should be a touch and go affair. The Bees were last year's champions and won heavily over Parrish in the first game but saw Parrish gain the tie in a later contest. Coach Tom Dryan has one of the heaviest teams ever to represent Parrish with a backfield averaging 156 pounds to the man behind a heavy line. Tennis, quarterback, Douglas and Waller, halfbacks, are veterans of last year's Parrish backfield.

The Bees, coached by Walter Commons, were slow getting organized for practice and have had difficulty keeping the same squad together.

Stiner Silent On Starting Lineup

CORVALLIS, Oct. 15.—(P)—Lon Stiner, Oregon State coach, didn't give his Beavers much satisfaction today. The squad trotted wearily off the field after a long, hard scrimmage session, but the starting lineup for the Washington game at Seattle Saturday still was unknown.

The varsity lineup in practice revealed a bitter fight for end and tackle jobs. D. O. Coons, sophomore, and Buck Weaver and Dick Sutherland, lettermen, had the inside track. Frank Nihill may get the left tackle post over Jim Miller, veteran.

Although Tommy Swanson, halfback, took things easy today, it seemed pretty certain he would be in the backfield combination. Bill Duncan, quarterback, Joe Gray, half, and Elmer Kolberg, fullback, did heavy work and may start.

Toledo Motorist Hurt at Seaside

ASTORIA, Oct. 15.—(P)—Larry Hendrickson, Toledo, Ore., logger, was in the Seaside hospital today, seriously injured as a result of a car-truck crash south of Seaside.

Hendrickson tried to pass Elmer High's log truck near a narrow bridge on the highway and failed. High's quick work in extricating Hendrickson from the wreck, removing a deeply imbedded portion of the windshield swipe from the injured man's throat, and administering first aid to check the blood flow before hurrying him to the Seaside hospital may have saved his life. He is given a fair chance to recover.

Juvenile Hoodlum Gang Is Smashed

OREGON CITY, Oct. 15.—(P)—A group of juvenile hoodlums, referred to in some quarters as the Jennings Lodge gang, appeared to have been routed by the law here today with six members answering to the court for their activities.

Over $200 worth of loot, said to have been accumulated by the boys, was recovered by police. Two were sentenced to the state training school, another was paroled to the institution and three were given over to the custody of their parents.

Gonzaga Plans to Surprise Montana

SPOKANE, Oct. 15.—(P)—Behind closed doors, Coach Michael Pecovich is polishing up his Gonzaga University football team for its meeting with the University of Montana at Missoula Saturday.

Told that Montana scrubs were experts with Gonzaga plays, but that the varsity has been getting on to them in scrimmages, Pecovich said: "I don't know how the scrubs have learned our plays. Behind these closed doors we're working up a new repertoire. In fact, we haven't all of them worked out yet."

SPORT SPARKS

BY PAUL HAUSER

When the Bears meet the College of Idaho at Caldwell tonight they may find they are up against more than they expected. The Idahoans haven't played a game since they beat Eastern Oregon Normal two weeks ago and two weeks is a long time. A coach like Pat Page, who once coached at the University of Chicago as an assistant to Amos Alonzo Stagg, and was head coach at Indiana, can do a lot in two weeks. "Spec" Keene has inside information that the Coyotes will fill the air with passes and that is not hard to believe for they did that when Pat Page was playing for the University of Chicago back around the turn of the century he was a mighty fine passer.

The little fellows go to work today. The junior high school football league gets into action. Those games are really the place to see some real scrapping. The fundamentals may not be there or may not be recognizable as such but just the same the lads are out to win. Incidentally there's a bracket act in both of the games today. When Leslie lines up against the Midgets a couple of Medleys will be glowering at each other across the line of scrimmage. One is a left end and the other right end so there ought to be a fine demonstration of brotherly love.

Jacobsen Is Back In Oregon Lineup

But Blackman Won't Play Again Idaho; Vandal Squad on Way West

EUGENE, Oct. 15.—(P)—One regular left the lineup and another returned today as the Oregon Webfoots neared the end of the training period for the Idaho game at Portland Saturday. Lief Jacobsen, end, who had been shelved because of a knee injury, was back at practice and will be in the starting lineup. Bill Hayward, trainer, said Tom Blackman, sophomore fullback, was definitely out. Jean Lacau will start in his place with Don Kennedy at quarter and Dale Laselle and Bob Braddock at halves.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 15.—(P)—

And in the Salem Bee-Parrish game both fullbacks are Doerflers.

Walt Erickson, whose club defeated Salem high 27 to 0, brings his Camas team to the valley today for a tilt with Loren Mort's Independence outfit. If you want to see some real flashy high school play go watch Walt's kids do their stuff. Anybody who saw them outplay Salem here last year, even though they were beaten, will swear that the Camas club is about the most interesting high school team they've ever seen. Independence will have lots of worry from that little Gigler boy who just moves all over a football field.

"Jiggs" Burnett, whose home is in LeGarde, suffers the sad fate of being left behind while the Bearcat team goes to Caldwell and passes right through his home town. "Jiggs" is ineligible for conference games so the budget won't allow his participation in the trip. Norman Hoganson, another LeGarde boy, has arranged to drop off at his home town after the game and come back alone.

Today is the last day in this week's Statesman football contest. Get your guesses in before 5 o'clock or they don't count.

Aiming at a 10-year Webfoot jinx, 32 University of Idaho football players left tonight for Saturday's University of Oregon game at Portland.

Coach Ted Bank said the Vandals probably would depend on Harold Roise's forward passing and Clarence Devlin's ball carrying for their offensive. Bank said the probable starting lineup would be: Ends, Tony Knap and Leon Green; tackles, Dick Truskowski and Stenko Pavkov; guards, Kenneth Carberry and John Cooper; center, Ralph Spaugy; quarterback, Walter Musial; halfbacks, Roise and Devlin; fullback, George Willott. Knap, Truskowski, Carberry, Roise and Willott are playing their first varsity season.

Game Slated Friday
DAYTON, Oct. 15.—The Dayton union high school football team will play Sheridan here at 2 p. m. Friday in the opening game of the season.

Albany Holds Loggers Well

Faber's Men Finally Show Some Offense, Making Five First Downs

TACOMA, Oct. 15.—(P)—In a Northwest football conference game marked by continual fumbles and intercepted passes, the College of Puget Sound tonight defeated Albany college, of Albany, Ore., 14 to 0.

Puget Sound scored in the first and third quarters, Ramson going over for the initial touchdown on a line plunge and Schwetz collecting the second in a 30-yard run after intercepting an Albany pass. Miller made both kicks good.

Both teams played extremely ragged football. Albany's running offense was almost a total loss until the last five minutes of the game; while Puget Sound's passing attack was equally ineffective. Albany's only important gains were made through the air, with D'Alfonso, a linesman, dropping back to do a large part of the successful heaving.

Puget Sound collected 13 first downs to Albany's five.

Fifty Bruins on Berkeley Junket

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 15.—(P)—Fifty Bruin football players of University of California at Los Angeles will travel north for the battle with the "big brothers" Bears of California Saturday.

The squad will be the largest ever taken to Berkeley, but Coach William H. Spaulding ironically admitted that many were going "just for the ride." The Bruins will leave Friday night, arriving on the day of the game instead of a day earlier as in the past.

Physical Ed Men Speakers Today

The athletic program of the Salem schools will be explained to members of the Salem Breakfast club by coaches and physical directors of the high school and Leslie and Parrish junior highs. Those who will appear on the program include Vernon Gilmore, physical education head, Harold Hauk, head coach at Salem high; Tom Dryan and Frank Brown of Parrish junior high and Gurnee Fisher and Tom Wagner of Leslie junior high.
