

Church Guild Opens Season

All Officers Relected to Serve Coming Year; OARP Meets

HUBBARD, Oct. 15 — The first meeting of the Federated Church Guild was held Wednesday afternoon at home of Mrs. N. S. Hawk. Officers for the coming year were elected, all being relections: President, Mrs. R. J. Foster; vice president, Mrs. E. U. Anderson; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. George Leffler.

They will also have several bazaars and food sales during the year. Those present for this first meeting were Mesdames Kate Schlittenhart, H. E. Adams, D. E. McArthur, E. C. Boyd, A. N. Flaten of Hity, Alberta, J. E. Hughes, Porter Rickabaugh, Glen Larkins, G. L. Frenitis, E. U. Anderson, C. C. Hepler, J. Cooner, H. L. Carl, Geo. Leffler, Neva McKenzie of Woodburn, R. J. Foster, Miss Esther Schlittenhart, and the hostess, Mrs. N. S. Hawk.

OARP Club Meets The Townsend club met Wednesday night, when Mrs. Harry Krauss of Portland spoke on the control of the United States money system and its circulation. She said that the control of the money system by the few should come under the control of the Townsendites, then everyone would have their just amounts of money and those in need would receive a living wage. She also said the opposition to the Townsend plan was working harder in Oregon than any other state, and that the Townsendites should unite stronger to combat the opposition.

Dixons Due Today INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon and son, Loring, will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Robinson this weekend. Mr. Dixon is superintendent of the Wasco schools. He was formerly a coach at Independence high school. Dixon and Robinson will attend the principals' conference in Salem Friday and Saturday.

Jury Disagrees So Is Dismissed

DALLAS, Oct. 15.—The case of W. T. Raleigh company against Ben A. Cotton, William Peyree and Mrs. William Peyree, a d Peter Ingermanson and Florence Ingermanson was tried in the circuit court here this week. The plaintiff was seeking judgment against the defendants for $585.91 with interest at 6% per annum from Feb. 10, 1933, and costs and disbursements. The case went to the jury at 5:00 p. m., and at 2:00 a. m., no verdict was reported. As the jury could not agree they were dismissed. It has not yet been determined whether or not there will be a new trial.

Missionary Worker on Indian Reservation to Speak Sunday, Liberty

LIBERTY, Oct. 15.—A. W. Garretson, who has been a mission worker on the Warm Springs Indian reservation, is to speak at the hall here Sunday at 8 p. m. following the Christian Endeavor services.

Mrs. J. A. Dorman, who has made her home in Salem for some time, moved into her home here on Wednesday. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dorman, who have been occupying the place expect to move shortly. Mr. Dorman is negotiating for timber for a shingle mill and will live near its location.

Community Clubs

UNIONVALE, Oct. 15.—A picnic and program, the first one for this season, will be held at the Unionvale schoolhouse Friday night under the auspices of the Unionvale community club.

ALBANY, Oct. 15.—The community club of Oakville started the winter season Friday, by electing officers and holding a program given by the school children under the direction of the two teachers, Miss Ruth Reeves and Mrs. Paul Beight. Officers are: Richard Stockton, president; Dick Davis, vice president; and Erna Williamson, secretary-treasurer.

CENTRAL HOWELL, Oct. 15.—Mrs. W. A. Roth, vice president, presided at the first community meeting of the year Friday night. It was decided to buy some new kitchen equipment for the club, with Mrs. Clyde De Sart and Mrs. Clarence Simmons to purchase this.

DAYTON, Oct. 15.—Potato digging at the E. M. Alderman farm where 250 acres were raised is nearing completion. Many local people have been employed.

Rural Club Has Initial Meeting

OAK POINT, Oct. 15.—Mrs. C. O. Allen was hostess to the Independence Rural Woman's club Tuesday afternoon for the first fall meeting.

Amendments were made to the constitution, changing the calendar year so that the annual meeting will be in November and the new officers take their seats the first meeting in October. So Mrs. Grove Peterson, president, and the other officers of last year presided at the meeting. Work for the year was outlined. Each member told of her experiences and vacations during the summer. The committee in charge will have a speaker at the next meeting, October 27, to explain the proposed constitutional amendments and measures. Mrs. Allen served refreshments.

Bowers Has Word From Bandon Area

WALDO HILLS, Oct. 15.—Frank Bowers has received a letter from his brother W. H. (Harry) Bowers, whose home was just outside Bandon. He wrote that his house was on fire eight different times although he and two men friends circled the place with barrels of water. He had his belongings packed and out in the road for hours.

Bowers had a valuable timber lot that was burned. Mrs. Bowers has also heard from her sister, Mrs. Jack Jarvis. She had taken a carload of furniture to the beach but when she reached the spot with a second load the articles had all been burned. As she turned away a gust of wind swept her from the rock and she was a badly bruised. Jarvis had sold his drug store in Bandon a month earlier.

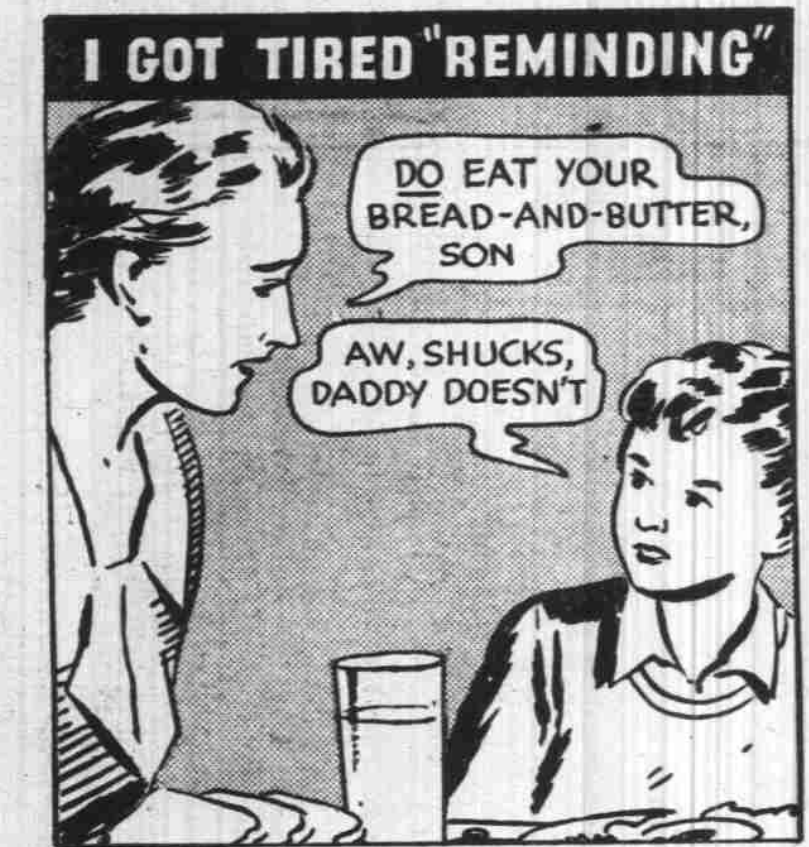

Governor Lauds Guardsmen For Fire Messages

ALBANY, Oct. 15.—Seven Albany youths signed up for service in Battery A, 249th coast artillery, at the Albany armory this week. As there was no room for them all, the seven were placed on a waiting list and will be called as vacancies occur. Open house was held by the battery boys Monday night under the direction of Capt. Charles Olive. A banquet was served and a program enjoyed. Present were 47 enlisted men and 22 guests. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the reading of a letter from Governor Charles Martin commending Dan Mulver and Clyde Barber for their work in relaying short wave radio messages from regimental headquarters at Salem to the fire district in southern Oregon. These two artillerymen manned the local short wave station Sunday September 27.

Reports Mrs. T. J. Jenefer—

"BREAD THAT'S FRESH IS WHAT MEN FOLKS WANT"

—and when we eat lots of good wholesome bread I save on more expensive foods!—

By JULIA LEE WRIGHT
Head of one of the world's largest Home Economics Bureaus

Our hundreds of taste tests proved that bread is most delicious when it's fresh—fresh as Grade A milk!

And my new "woman's recipe" bread is so costly to bake—so marvelous in flavor—we want you to have it fresh always.

So we take special steps to get each day's loaves into your hands at peak freshness. Actually, this tender Julia Lee Wright's Bread has the taste thrilling goodness of fresh-baked homemade!

Women also report this. My bread is so fresh when you get it, each loaf keeps appetizing longer in your breadbox. That means a worthwhile economy!

Money back if you don't agree—this bread tastes better!
