Rebels Bomb Madrid Suburbs; Attack Near

To Dedicate O.N.S. Buildings Monday

Exercises Set In Afternoon; Officials Aid

Higher Education Board, Chancellor Hunter Will Take Part

Physical Education and Administration Plant Recently Finished

MONMOUTH, Oct. 24.—The dedication of two new buildings completed this year on the Oregon Normal school campus, will be held Monday, Oct. 26, in conjunction with the October meeting of the state board of higher education. The public is invited to attend the dedication exercises.

Exercises beginning at 2 p. m. will be featured by addresses by Chancellor Frederic M. Hunter of the Oregon state system of higher education; President Willard L. Marks, Albany; B. F. Irvine, editor of the Oregon Journal, Portland; and F. E. Callister, Albany, members of the state board of higher education. Special music will be provided by Bruce Spaulding, Dallas, and Mark Daniels, Portland, vocalists; and Michael Arenstein, Portland, cellist.

Preceding the dedication, the faculty of the Oregon Normal school will entertain at luncheon at Jessica Todd hall. Guests will be members of the state board and the executive council, and other state system officials. Physical Education Building Completed

There are two buildings to be dedicated, the $50,000 health and physical education unit and the $100,000 administration building which faces the old structure across North Monmouth avenue. The former was completed last March and the latter was ready, with exception of the third floor, for school opening last month.

Both new buildings are of cast stone and brick exterior harmonizing with other campus structures. The new physical education building contains a large gymnasium with standard basketball court and seating for 1,000 spectators, offices for faculty members, classrooms, quarters and equipment for boxing, wrestling, aesthetic dancing, corrective physical training, two handball courts and ample space for social dancing.

Following the dedication exercises the buildings will be opened to public inspection.

This event will mark another which always has been a school town. The history of Oregon Normal school may be traced back reach fully 85 years, to a time when, in Monmouth, Ill., a group of pioneers, anxious to move on to Oregon's frontier, grouped themselves into a body with a definite objective: to establish in the Oregon country a home of learning "where men and women alike may become schooled in the science of living and in the fundamental principles of religion."

The names of the seven participants are beginning to be forgotten except by the remaining few.

BAKER, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Another casualty of the deer hunting season in Oregon was recorded here when Dewey Maxwell, 39, of Haines was accidentally shot through the right arm.

Maxwell and Scotty Murdock, also of Haines, were riding the same horse when the accident occurred. What caused the rifle Murdock was carrying to discharge could not be determined. Maxwell's arm was so badly shattered it may have to be amputated.

Dewey Maxwell formerly lived in Yamhill county. Several members of the Maxwell family have attended Linfield college.

Unions Propose Compromise But Strike Threat Remains

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Maritime unions prepared to fight what they said was a compromise proposal for peace on the waterfront, but the threat of a strike or tieup overhung Pacific coast shipping.

The unions informed Rear Admiral Harry G. Hamlet, federal maritime commission representative, "under which a cessation of work on the waterfront can be avoided."

Hamlet to Present It to Shipowners

Hamlet was asked to put the proposal before the shipowners. He declined to comment but observers said the prospects for its acceptance did not appear encouraging because the employers already had waived their demands for modification of old agreements and probably would stick to their previous stand that the unions should do likewise.

Al Smith Renews New Deal Attack

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith, former democratic candidate for president, tonight assailed the new deal for "competition with private business."

If a review is refused, the decisions of lower courts sustaining the act will remain in effect.

Through Solicitor General Stanley Reed, the government joined in both requests for a review.

Cougar Scores Field Goal to Beat Webfoot

Dougherty's Boot from 13-Yard Line Only Score, Eugene

Oregon Defense Strong, Aided by Some Breaks But Attack Fails

HAYWARD FIELD, Eugene, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Washington State aimed one sure shot in an aerial battle of punts and passes today and sent the pigskin flying through the uprights for a field goal and a 3 to 0 victory over the University of Oregon.

The Cougars, who fought the vaunted University of Southern California eleven to a 0 to 0 tie last week, cashed in from the 17-yard line via Fullback Roger Dougherty's toe midway through the second period.

It was the first defeat in eight years the Webfoots have suffered on home grounds and a crowd of more than 10,000 saw the slowly-developing Oregon behemoths take another licking in the Pacific Coast conference race, although the Webfoots' closest one.

One Touchdown is Thrown Away Twice

The Cougars threw one other score away when Littlefield, right halfback, went over from the nine-yard line in the first period only to have the play called back because a Washington State lineman passed to the goal line on the next play but Terry, left end, dropped the ball.

Still flirting with the idea of a score, the Cougars continued to shoot at the goal line. Bentley, Oregon quarter, knocked down a second pass and on fourth down, with 15 yards to go, Dougherty tried his first field goal but it was wide and Oregon momentarily saved its eight-year-old record.

The victory was a costly one for the Cougars. Bob Fletcher, (Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

A large crowd attended the convention banquet tonight. The principal sessions of the convention, held in Trinity church, are scheduled for Sunday.

Split-Period Pay For Relief Work Isn't Authorized

The WPA here received no authorization yesterday to issue split-period pay checks to women on the Salem sewing project. Reply to a request for such authority, officers at state WPA headquarters in Portland wired they would advise local officials what to do next week. WPA regulations provide, they pointed out, that such extra payrolls must be made up except when it is done in connection with a change in pay periods.

Early payment of half the wages due about November 4 was asked Friday by representatives of the sewing room force who claimed the recent 10-day shutdown and consequent shortage in pay checks had left them destitute.

Lightless Bicycle Drive Is Continued

W. H. Olden, route 4, was arrested for violation of the basic rule by speeding.

Oregon Makes Small Splash, National Pool

Candidates and Parties' Higher Command Pass It Up; Funds Low

Several Local Races on Ballot But Receiving Scant Attention

Oregon is the forgotten land so far as both big political parties are concerned. Republicans and democrats have passed it up as a heavy campaign ground and concentrated their ammunition, vocal and financial, in other and more populous centers. After all Oregon's electoral vote is only five. But in a close election five would decide.

Neither state committee is flush with campaign funds. Both have had difficulty shaking down GHQ for much money. Each has had to get most of its money by halting. The democrats with the squeeze, clear down to the staff workers in WPA offices, though not, so far as is known, to the relievers themselves. Republicans have called on party friends anxious to save the nation, with $2500 about the biggest lump in the pot.

Oregon has been slighted in the oratory, too. Neither Roosevelt nor Landon visited the state. Col. Knox came and made two addresses. Gifford Pinchot made one speech in Portland. Generally the campaigners have been stars of second or third magnitude. The state committees have had to rely a lot on home talent, with Portland lawyers being called into service for the party.

The jurors, after seven hours of actual deliberation, agreed on 17 separate verdicts, covering all counts charged to the defendants. Court attaches said this was the largest total ever recorded in a criminal trial in Los Angeles county.

Mussolini Peace Message is Heard in War-Minded Europe

(By the Associated Press)

"Peace in work and work in peace!"

Thus proclaimed Italy's fiery dictator Mussolini—the man who defied the League of Nations and conquered Ethiopia.

While Spanish fascist aerial warriors strafed socialist Madrid; while socialist Spain and fascist Portugal struck at each other in Europe's neutrality committee sessions, Il Duce shouted:

"I desire to launch a message which should go beyond the mountains and seas. It is a message of peace, peace in work and work in peace."

He spoke at Bologna, where ten years ago he escaped an assassin's bullet and promulgated his credo "live dangerously."

Lines Consolidated For Final Assault; Surrender Refused

Fascist Fliers Report All Airports of Defenders Are Abandoned, Counter-Attack Lacking

Blackbirds of Death Will Drop Bombs on City if Demands Are Spurned; "Death Before Slavery" Reply

ON MADRID BATTLEFRONTS, Oct. 24.—(AP)—A score of fascist warplanes tonight bombed the suburbs of Madrid.

The exuberant pilots on landing at their bases said the Getafe and Cuatro Vientos airports near Madrid apparently had been abandoned.

No government planes took the air against them, the insurgent aviators said, and from this they deduced the government aviators had revolted, or that all government planes were being used to convoy fleeing officials out of Madrid.

The besieged and terrified citizens of Madrid prepared to combat death from the air.

Filling Larder No Problem if You Know How

If you want some groceries all you have to do is walk in and get them. Such seemed to be the reasoning of an unidentified man who carried out over $25 worth of groceries from Caplan's grocery, 137 South Commercial street, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The man was dressed in delinquent's clothes and had a car or pick-up truck which he left parked in front of the store. He boldly walked through the store into the back room and picked up several boxes of groceries that he carried out the door for customers. None of the clerks paid any attention to him.

After he had made a couple of trips and was carrying a box of milk and sack of flour out the front door, Mrs. David Caplan told officers that she asked him where he was taking the goods. The man replied that he would get the slip and show her. That was the last that was seen of the man or the groceries. No description of the car was obtained.

Real Peace Policy Backed By Landon

Outlines Program, Claims Roosevelt Endangers U. S. Neutrality

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon advocated reliance upon neutral rights as "one of the great hopes" for keeping America out of foreign war tonight in presenting a dual program designed to avert conflict and bolster world peace.

Simultaneously, the republican nominee asserted that President Roosevelt "attempted to put the United States in the forefront of the sanctionist powers against Italy" during the Ethiopian conflict and thereby made it probable that if war had come we would have been involved.

Anti-aircraft guns were manned in 24-hour shifts and cellars were cleared as an anxious populace scanned the skies.

The Madrid newspapers issued warnings, and the Claridad, in bold type asserted "an onslaught on Madrid is imminent."

Fascist warplanes—the dread "blackbirds of death"—might soon attempt to bomb Madrid into submission if surrender offers continued to be spurned by the city's defenders it was feared.

The insurgents captured Zarzalajo, just three miles from their objective, El Escorial, 50 miles west of Madrid.

The three-pronged insurgent advance on Madrid tonight was pushed forward appreciably.

One column was nearing Mostoles, 16 miles southwest of Madrid; another was at Illecas, 12 miles south of the capital, where the third was driving on El Escorial.

El Escorial Capture To Complete Setup

With El Escorial taken, the insurgent high command said, the attack could be welded together by cavalry units, and the final assault on Madrid's gates begun.

As the frightened inhabitants of Madrid prepared to defend the city, the government ordered mobilization of all republican party members between the ages of 20 and 35.

Laborers, organized into platoons, attempted to raise the spirits of the people by parading with picks and shovels.

All stand together—we choose death before slavery!" they cried.

Mail Order Romeo Handed Five Years

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—(AP)—A federal judge regretted today the law permitted him to sentence Samuel Frank, the mail order Romeo whom 13,000 women wanted to marry, to a prison term of only five years for mail fraud.

"My only regret is that I can't send him for 10 years," declared Judge A. F. St. Sure. "He is a menace to society."

The maximum fine of $1,000 permitted under the statutes was added for good measure to the man who sent out form letters to women, borrowing money on the representation he would marry them.

Tower Materials Shipment Coming

Notice that a freight shipment to be used in erecting the new water tower on Fairmount hill was enroute to Salem was received at the city water department yesterday. A donkey engine and other equipment was in transit from Seattle for the Seattle Boiler Works, firm which won the contract to fabricate and put up the new steel tank.

The task of erecting the 100,000 gallon tower is expected to get under way before the end of this week.

Drunk Driving Charged Following Auto Crash

Virgil James Shipman, 651 Rosemont, West Salem, was arrested last night by city police on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Shipman was arrested following a collision with a car driven by Raymond John Kuebler, 1299 State street, at the corner of Court and Commercial streets at 12 o'clock.
