Y.W.C.A. Host At Party on Tuesday

ON Tuesday night the Y. W. C. A. will be the scene of the quarterly membership meeting of the organization. The affair is planned as a social and business meeting.

William Wright will sing several solos and the sextet from the high school Girl Reserves will offer selections. After the program, a social hour will be enjoyed by members and friends.

On Dad's Day Committee

Miss Josephine McGilchrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., who was recently appointed chairman of the registration committee for Dad's Day at the University of Oregon, November 13th and 14th.

Married at Church Ceremony

Mrs. and Mrs. Maurice Heater (Lucille Rolow) who were married at a lovely church ceremony last Sunday afternoon at the Knight Memorial church. The couple are now on a wedding trip in California and will be at home in Salem after November 1.

Abas Quartet Miss Sally Reed is Bride To Appear Tuesday Of Hugh Montgomery At St. Paul's

The Abas string quartet of Los Angeles will appear at Walter Hall Tuesday at 8:15 for its second concert. Because of general interest in the group, seats will be available to the Salem public instead of Willamette students only as previously arranged. The program includes:

- I Adagio Allegro from Concerto for String Quartet, Sammartini
II Scherzo from Op. 10, No. 3, Opus 10 Debussy
III Four Bagatelles for String Quartet, McEwen
IV Adagio from Op. 10, No. 3, Opus 10 Debussy

A wedding of marked simplicity was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church when Miss Sarah Potter (Sally) Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson Reed, became the bride of Hugh Montgomery, jr., son of Mrs. Dorothy Gill Montgomery of Portland and Hugh Montgomery of San Francisco.

The bride who entered upon the arm of her father wore a lovely period gown of white satin with train. Her veil of old rare lace was a family heirloom first worn by her great grandmother Spaulding. She carried a shower bouquet of white bouvardia.

Mrs. Benjamin Reed of Seattle and sister-in-law of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a model of Albx blue crepe and carried dahlias in the autumn shades. John E. London of Seattle acted as best man for his cousin, Charles Wreny, Mark Gill and John Laughton Diffenderfer, jr.

A small reception for members of the wedding party, relatives and a few close friends was held at the Reed home on South Commercial street. On their return from a wedding trip the couple will be at home after November 1 in Portland. For travelling the bride chose a suit of green wool with trim of nutra and with it she wore brown accessories.

Mrs. Montgomery is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall and attended the University of Oregon. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is a member of the Portland Junior League. Mr. Montgomery is a graduate of Leland Stanford and is now practicing law in Portland.

Business, Social Meeting Held by Woman's Club On Saturday

BUSINESS, music and a social hour comprised the program yesterday afternoon when members of the Salem Woman's club gathered at 2:30 for their regular business meeting.

A report of members of the group who attended the Nehalem convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs on October 17th revealed the list of new officers elected during the conclave. The new president is Mrs. Dora McLeod of Post and the Nehalem Neighborhood club and her supporting officers are Mrs. C. Howard of the Oswego Woman's club, recording secretary, and Mrs. Cameron Larson of Seaside Woman's club treasurer.

Delegates for the county convention to be held in Liberty on October 30 were elected to include Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. George R. K. Moorehead, Mrs. Fred A. Erixon, Mrs. Helen Southwick, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Lester Pearmine and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort. The program of the afternoon consisted of a dramatization called "A Sad Mistake" under the direction of Mrs. Clifton Mudd with Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. Stanley Satchell, Miss Eula McCully, Mrs. Hannah Martin and Mrs. F. M. Lobdell assisting.

The Willamette trio with Miss Lois Burton at the piano, Miss Marian Chase and Miss Jean Reaney, violinists, gave several numbers.

A social hour followed the program, the tables set with lace cloths and centerpiece was of oranges, fruit and autumn leaves. Grand candles added color to the arrangement. Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. C. C. Clark presided at the tea table. The social hour was under the direction of MESDAMES Byron Merrick, E. H. McMahon, Stanley Satchell, Marie Von Eschen, A. L. Wallace.

Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary to Meet The Disabled American Veterans of the World War auxiliary will meet Monday night at the Y.W.C.A. at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Arrangements for the national commander's official visit will be made at that time. A social hour will follow the refreshments at the armory.

Seen and Heard

By JERYME UPSTON DAN CUPID STILL BUSY... announcements, wedding dates and rumors of several more have been keeping Salem folk all agog these last few weeks. Iris Jorgenson will say I do's November 8... but Salem will no longer claim her as Carl Collins is now in Eugene... Jean White's engagement to Clarence Fotts means another bride for the capital city... her many friends here are anxiously awaiting her arrival. ENTERTAINING FOR THE BRIDES-ELECT... many parties are being planned for these popular maids. We have heard several hostesses remark, "oh for something new and different in the line of showers." There have been soap showers, crystal showers, kitchen showers and gadget showers for the bride-to-be, but the latest one which intrigued our imagination is the "hostess" shower. The guests brought everything (well, almost everything) that a hostess would use in entertaining, including card tables, decks of cards, bridge scores, ash trays, dainty luncheon napkins, and many other things which are first aid to a hostess. One bride-elect commented: "All a hostess needs is a grateful smile and her best dinner gown" - the hostess shower provides all other things needed for entertaining and a successful party." Bright idea, these hostess showers! AT BERKELEY TODAY... Jane West and Charles West are being married. Janet will be a picture in her quiet wedding gown of heavy ivory silk with matching satin slippers which had been worn by her grandmother, Mrs. T. L. Elliot of Portland and later worn by her mother, Mrs. Elliot who was unable to go south for the wedding had the pleasure of seeing her granddaughter in her own wedding dress before she left. HONORS TO JO MCGILCHRIST... Josephine has been chosen to lead the registration for Dad's Week-End on the Oregon campus. What a busy senior... her work as frosh counselor just over, Dads to think of, and soon she will be dashing to Salem to be honor attendant for Iris.

Foreign Films Shown for Benefit

An exceptionally fine series of three foreign films will be sponsored by the American Association of University Women it was decided at a special meeting of the executive board called by Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, the president, yesterday. Three British releases will appear under the sponsorship of the organization. The first two, "Nine Days a Queen" and "As You Like It" will be endorsed by and publicized by the organization, but tickets will not be sold by members of the group. Seats will be reserved at the box office of the State theatre where all three films are to be shown. The third picture, "Passing of the Third Floor Back", also an English production, will be shown shortly after the first of the year. Tickets for this picture may be purchased from members of the A.A.U.W. "Nine Days a Queen," a Goumonth-British release, will be shown in Salem in November. It is the picturization of one of the most colorful and tragic periods of history showing the dramatic events which took place in Tudor England immediately following the death of Henry VIII. The story of Lady Jane Gray, who at the age of 16 was bride, queen and martyr all in nine days is told with dignity, conviction and thrilling dramatic climaxes. Proceeds from the three pictures will be the contribution of the Salem Branch of the Association of University Women to the National Fellowship fund. Committee for the fund includes Dr. Helen Pearce, Mrs. Asa Fisher, Mrs. Frank Spears, Miss Mary Eyre, Mrs. Harold Busick and Mrs. Milo Rasmussen.

Tillicum Dance Smart Affair Of Tuesday

A smart affair of Tuesday night will be the Tillicum formal dance to be given at Castilian hall between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock. This will be the first dance of the season for the group. Halloween decorations and autumn leaves will be used about the hall. Several informal parties are being arranged to precede the dance. T. A. Windshar is president of the club and W. J. Braun is secretary for the ensuing year. New members for this year are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Bridge Tournament On Monday

Monday night at 7:45 will mark the last chance for bridge players to enter the Elks club bridge tournament and compete for sweepstakes prize. In the contract play, only the six best are used for final scores and there will be that many more in the tournament. Mrs. Max Gunter, directing the tournament, says that any one wishing to enter one or more of the evening's play is welcome to come. Play will begin promptly each Monday night in the Elks club and it's open to members and non-members of the club. Bring a partner if possible and come prepared to have lots of fun, and maybe win one of the evening's awards.

Drill Team Appears At Meeting

The ladies drill team of the Order of Eagles gave an exhibition of their talents Wednesday night at Fraternal temple for members of the organization and will appear at Oregon City today before the district meeting. Members of the team will be hosts at a Halloween Costume Carnival dance at Fraternal temple Wednesday at 9 o'clock to which the public is invited. Members of the drill team include: Delpha Kerber, captain, Lucille Bressler, Masel, Margie and Suzanne Fruit, Ellen Williamson, Elma and Anna Hoyt, and Gladys Cooper.

Fraternities Hosts Friday Night

Preceding the Willamette-Linfield game Friday night Sigma Tau fraternity was host for an informal dinner. The legal theme was carried out in the table decorations with law books, typewriters and abstracts for place cards cleverly arranged. The table Prof. and Mrs. Cecil Noble were chaperones for the dinner. Guests included the Misses Jane Fisher, Melva Belle Savage, Dorrine Wilson, Enid Wittingham, Alice Speck, Alene Fairclough, Charlotte Lane, Ruth Arney, Jean Probert, Maxine Beagle and Catherine Faxon. Members of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity entertained with a gay party following the game. Dancing was enjoyed and later refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. James Nutter were patrons for the affair.

Coming Week Proves To Be Busy

The coming week proves to be a busy one socially with the announcements of several bridge parties and clubs meeting. On Tuesday Mrs. William B. Mott will entertain members of her bridge club and a few additional guests for luncheon at her home on Rural avenue. Wednesday night Mrs. T. A. Livesley will honor members of the Town and Country club and their husbands at a smartly arranged dinner. Miss Iris Jorgenson, popular bride-elect of Carl Collins, is the inspiration for much entertaining. Tuesday night Miss Henriette White will entertain with an evening of bridge and on Thursday Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman and Miss Dorothy Alexander will honor Miss Jorgenson with a similar affair at the Alexander home.

Hostesses Give Masquerade

A delightful party of last night was the masquerade for which Miss Barbara Lamb and Miss Jo Taylor were hostesses at the Lamb home on Chocoma street honoring a group of their friends. The Halloween motif was used with corn stalks, pumpkins and crepe paper decorating the rooms. Games and dancing was the diversion of the evening. At a late hour supper was served by the hostesses. Invited guests were:

Drama Class Will Begin Meetings

The first meeting of the Else Ebsen drama class is scheduled for Tuesday at 2:15 in the home of Mrs. T. E. Roberts. Meetings will be twice a month and modern American drama, beginning with the end of the civil war will occupy the club's time.

The frontier drama is to open the study cycle, including such dramas as: "Horizon," by Augustin, "The Day After Tomorrow," by Danites of the Sierras, Joaquin Miller; "Two Men of Sandy Bar," Bret Hart; "My Partner, Campbell."

Drama of the social manner will follow, then the romantic drama, including such early representative plays by dramatists as Rip Van Winkle, by Charles Barke and Francesco de Rimini, by George Boker.

The social comedy, with a slight touch of musical comedy will then be considered, the works of such playwrights as Clyde Fitch, Philip Barry, Rachel Crothers, Robert Emmet Sherwood and George S. Kaufman, will be read and discussed. Most stress is to be laid on social drama of the last decade by such playwrights as Owen Davis, George Kelly, Elmer Rice, Sidney Howard, Paul Green, Maxwell Anderson, Eugene O'Neill.

Besides this general study, some lectures are to be given, including the Little Theater movement in America; contemporary European dramatists of the late 19th and early 20th century, the influence of Ibsen on American drama; Rachel Crothers, and the Feminine Criticism of Life.

With Mrs. Elise Ebsen as leader and Miss Alice Cray Brown as secretary-treasurer, the club membership includes:
