Wilcox Builds Modern Home

Russell Lichty Gets Buck in John Day Hills; Loses Bear

CENTRAL HOWELL, Oct 28-Mr. and Mrs. Milo Wilcox are building an attracttive house on their acreage here. The small house on the place where the Will Kleen family lives will be used as a garage later on. Wilcox has been foreman on the Durbin farm for 17 years. The farm is planted almost entirely to hops, prunes and walnuts.

Stanley Ames, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ames of this community, who has been working in the Salem Safeway stores has been transferred to a store at Newberg.

Patients Improving Mrs. Alice Lichty, who wa operated on two weeks ago at the Silverton hospital, is convalescing satisfactorily at the hospital and expects to be able to come home

Will Werner was able to come home Thursday from a Salem hospital where he has been undergoing eye treatment for three weeks.

Russell Lichty returned from a hunting trip to the John Day country with a three-point buck. One other in his party of three was successful in bagging a deer. He shot a bear also but lost it when it rolled down a canyon into the brush.
