Bostwick to Have Edge in Experience; Two Main Bouts Are on Card

Eddie Norris, fast young Salem lightweight scrapper, is due for one of the tests of his career tonight when he mixes with Ikey Bostwick, experienced lightweight from Texas; in an eight-round bout topping a double-main event boxing card under the auspicies of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the armory.

Norris, who has been the outstanding boxer on Salem eards for many months, recently won the Oregon lightweight championship and has further proved his ability land matches. Recently he knocked out Young Liska, Filipino fighter, to show the only spark of boxing to grace a regrettable show staged by All-Sports, Inc. Bostwick, who has had many

So far neither has had much opposition from the junior highs and today's game will be a real test for both of them. The Midgets are the bunch that really like the game. A bunch of kids too small for the regular squad, they drill hard all week just for their weekend game. They practice blocking, too, which is something it takes a lot of love for the game to do. Originally scheduled for Friday the game was moved up a day in order that some intramural fans might take in both this contest and the Leslie-Parrish game at Leslie Friday. -0-
