Oregon Ahead in

Rural Power Use

With an expansion of new line construction this year, Oregon is maintaining its lead over the rest tion, reports W. M. Hamilton Willamette division manager of the Portland General Electric

"New figures received from the

Edison Electric Institute show that 39.7 per cent of all Oregon farms having dwellings valued at more than $500 are now sarv-ed by power lines," he said.

the lower . Willamette valley stands out as one of the largest users among areas of comparable size of rural service in the nation. In this area, the percentage of farms served by power lines is more than double the state av-

"The Oregon figure of approximately 40 per cent of all farms with $500 dwellings served, and the lower Willamette figure of more than 80 per cent, compare

Budget Saturday

Bockwell, Ken t, John Steuart Curry, Thomas Benton, Grant Wood, John Taylor Arms, Adolph Lehm, Howard Cook, Wanda Gag.

Eugene Higgins, Diego Rivera and Agnes Tait. Named Again as Board to Assist Court

Renaming the same men as members of the county budget oard, the county court yesterday set Saturday morning as the time for the first budget meeting. Ray Glatt, Woodburn, E. L. Wieder, Salem, and A. A. Ulvin, Silverton, were the reappointed members.

In giving consideration to a request made by Henry Zorn, prestdent of the Marion county taxpayers league, that there be a change in the budget board memhers, Commissioner Melson pointe dout that last year's members had experience in the county business and that it would be Lard for anyone to pick the matter up

Melson said that he would be satisfied with any sound-headed business men for the committee

Two Accept Task was well satisfied with the work of the board members last year, though I didn't have much to do with it," Judge Siegmund said. Judge Siegmund was recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident when the board met last year A. A. Ulvin was selected as a board member by Circuit Judge L. H. McMahan who acted as county judge during Siegmund's absence.

As Zorn had made no suggestions for new members for the board, the commissioners, reappointed all of the former members subject to their being able to serve, Last night Ray Glatt had not been reached. The other two gave assent to their selection, The second and final budget meeting will be held December 1.
