

Bowersox Is Mayor Again

Schrunk Upsets Ewing For Scio Post; Mulkey Voted Justice

MONMOUTH, Nov. 5—Dr. F. R. Bowersox was re-elected mayor; Mrs. Elsie O'Rourke, city recorder; and Dr. B. F. Butler and J. L. Norris councilmen at the city election Tuesday. Holdover councilmen are: G. H. Partridge and Ed Rogers.

Bowersox has served the city 6 years as mayor. The city's bonded indebtedness was $135,500 when he took office in 1930. It has been reduced to $92,000 during his past tenure. In 1935 an additional debt of $12,000 was incurred for replacement of water pipe. His consistent economical program will be continued in the new term.

Vote Close on Utility

SCIO, Nov. 5—In South Scio voting precinct Tuesday the proposed utility district was defeated by four votes, according to a tabulation posted following a canvass of the votes. In North Scio the vote was 41 for and 41 against the proposal as recorded by those living outside the city limits. The vote of those living within the city was not available. Both precincts elected Barto, Betser, Hume, Kiser and Mitchell as directors. About 75 per cent of the registered vote in South Scio was cast Tuesday.

All other measures and all proposed constitutional amendments except the tax limit proposal for Portland school district were lost in an avalanche of negative ballots.

For the first time in many years there was a contest for the Scio mayorship and for six councilmen. W. A. Ewing, mayor for several years, received 52 votes for reelection, while P. W. Schrunk won with 56. O. B. Cyrus and A. W. Daley opposed in nominations, but were re-elected recorder and marshal, respectively. E. D. Meyers was alone for reelection as treasurer.

Of the six candidates elected councilmen each stood as follows: Frank Barto 83, Merle Cyrus 72, Fred Bryan 69, W. Z. Sims 67, Charles Simler 64, and Fred Roadarmel 63. Five defeated candidates received the following votes: N. I. Morrison 60, W. F. Gill 53, A. G. Prill 46, Joe Novak 36, Joe Dostal 25. Bryan, Gill, Morrison and Roadarmel are incumbent councilmen.

Under the charter elected officers serve until their successors are elected and qualified. It is not stated whether the old officers will hold until January next or whether they will vacate their positions for the new administration.

Mulkey Is J. P.

MEHAMA, Nov. 5—Local election returns show that William P. Mulkey with 95 votes led Roy Philippi with 85 for justice of the peace. For constable, Max Frame topped Karl Hinzler's 20 votes with 47 votes of 87.

Coburn Mayor Again

DAYTON, Nov. 5—Earl Coburn, unopposed for mayor, received 23 of the 153 votes cast in the Dayton city election held here Tuesday. J. O. Williams, recorder, was re-elected and unopposed. J. L. Sherman, treasurer, re-elected and also unopposed. Councilmen: Fred Anderson 105, William Schell 108, Charles Simler and Mrs. W. S. U'Kon tied with 93 votes each. Holdover councilmen are: Mrs. Myona Gray, Frank Wright and C. Fulgham.

Williams Is Mayor

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 5—Frank L. Williams was elected mayor of Independence over the nominated candidate, R. A. Sylvester. The contest, apparently without opposition, was won by six votes when the final count was made. Williams is a prominent business man in the community. He has always taken an active part in civic affairs and owns and operates a dry goods store here, has a large ranch south of Independence and is a hop grower. He succeeds Mayor A. L. Thomas, who refused to run on the city ticket. Councilmen elected for four year terms are: Mr. C. O. Sloper, Mr. J. S. Robbie and Mr. A. W. Foster. Councilman elected for two terms, Mr. W. A. Barnum. C. L. Carey was re-elected city recorder; E. A. Weddie, justice of peace; and Verd H. Schrunk, constable.

Funds in Sight to Develop Mines Along Santiam Little North Fork; Will Install More Machinery Soon

SCIO, Nov. 5—Ample funds with which further to develop properties of the Crown mine in the Elkhorn district, on the Little North Fork of the Santiam river, soon will be available as a result of a recent financing plan announced by R. E. Peery of Scio, general manager and secretary of the company.

Arrangements recently were made with W. S. Mitchell of Portland, formerly of Van Trump & Mitchell, brokerage firm of Chicago, for financing the mine through sale of stock shares, according to Peery. Such a plan had been under consideration for some time and its consummation assures available funds with which to proceed. Peery stated in Scio recently.

Optimism Prevails

"And there is no doubt in the minds of the directors of the company and the consulting engineer as to the quality and the quantity of ore bodies," Peery said here. "With solid and increasing value of copper and gold throughout the world, Peery feels every encouragement in connection with the output of the mine, once it gets well under way."

"Ores in the shaft have increased in richness as depth has been attained, and mining operations regard this as one of the best signs of a permanent supply of workable ores. At a depth of 100 feet it is expected that the shaft will verify all that has been claimed for the mine.

Paul Fuhrer Is Injured by Bull

HAYESVILLE, Nov. 5—Paul Fuhrer, farmer here, was seriously injured about 9:30 o'clock this morning while moving a bull which he had sold, into a trailer. In some way the animal cornered Paul in the trailer, and pierced Paul's stomach with one horn. The hired man managed to keep the bull from doing further harm.

Fuhrer is at a Salem hospital, where it is thought he will recover unless complications develop.

The injured man is a brother of Walter Fuhrer, Marion county representative in the state legislature.
