Polk Teacher Institute Set

Annual Event Will Be Held Tuesday at Senior High School

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—The annual Polk county teachers' institute is to be held next Tuesday at the Dallas senior high school building according to County Superintendent Josiah Wills. The meeting is scheduled to start at 9 o'clock. Rev. Dean Vermillion of the Dallas Evangelical church will give the invocation. Special musical numbers will be given under the direction of Joseph C. Hartley of the Dallas schools.

The principal address of the morning session will be given by Mr. E. J. Anderson, president of Linfield college. In the departmental conferences, D. A. Emerson, of the state department of education, Mrs. W. A. Barnum of the Oregon Normal school, Miss Emma Hinkle of the Oregon Normal school, Miss Grace Forrette of the Portland school system will give talks, and George Birrell of the state department of education will lead a round table discussion in the adult education department.

Another feature of the morning's program will be a symposium on the contributions of various organizations to the work of the school. County Agent Leth discussing club work; Margaret Gillis, health; Florence Beardsley, teacher retirement plans; Floyd
