Local Bidder Is Favored; Two Meetings of Farm Bureau Set to Be Employed

At its regular meeting last night the Salem public library

Two meetings of the Marion board awarded the contract for county branch of the American 1937 periodical subscriptions to the Commercial book store, which submitted the lowest local bid of $226.97. The Herman Goldberger meeting will be held at 2 o'clock submitted the lowest local bid of $226.97. The Herman Goldberger agency of Boston sent in the low bid of $215.95, but in accordance with its past policy, the board placed the contract locally, since the lowest local bid represented a differential of only 5 per cent above the eastern bid. The board also announced that the 1936 special fund, creation of which was approved by the city council in an ordinance passed November 2, would be used for the following purposes: addition of Mrs. Sabra Bernhard to the staff as a half-time reference as-sistant for 12 months beginning November 16; increase of totar salaries of the staff by $51.65 a mosth for 12 months beginning January, 1937; and partial cost of construction of a sound-proof, acousticised music room, $250. In his monthly remort to the office. The week's placements included 38 men and three women with private employers, 18 m en on PWA and two men on WPA pro-jects inside the county and six men on PWA projects elsewhere. Twenty-eight of the private jobs were on farms. The office report-ed 33 applications for farm work during the week.

Ninety-one new applications for work were received at the Marion work were received at the Marion county office of the state employ-ment service last week, according to Marie Baker, district statistic-ian. The heavy inflow of new and renewal applications caused the list of people seeking work to in-crease from 3,230 to 3,354 dur-ing the week despite the fact that 67 obtained jobs through the office office.
