

Honor Two Girls At Birthday Party

Four New Members Taken Into Eastern Star, At Mill City

MILL CITY, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Pendleton, daughter and son of Ashland, have moved here where Mrs. Pendleton will teach in the grade school.

Mrs. R. Plymale was hostess at her home Tuesday night for a birthday party in honor of her daughter, Grace and Edna Swift. Those present were Marjorie Schroeder, Ermah Graham, Charlene Gentry, Naomi Chance, Wanda White, Dorothy Perry, Edna Swift, Grace Golden, Pat Herron, Gordon and Billy Bruder, Frank Hammon, Billy Gillewater and Ernest Ragsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pancoast of Portland are spending a few days in Mill City where he is attending to business for Hermonds. Mr. and Mrs. Will Bertram of Corvallis spent Armistice day in Mill City with relatives.

Daughter to Jones
Mr. and Mrs. Justin Jones of Portland are the parents of a baby daughter born Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are former residents of Mill City.

Marilyn Chapter O.E.S. held its regular meeting Monday night with a good attendance. Four new members were taken into the order. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Charles Haseman, Mrs. Cecil Haseman, Mrs. Wilbur Chesnut and Mrs. Charles Kelly.

Entertain Relatives

MONMOUTH, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Alice Taylor and her mother, Mrs. M. S. Jones entertained these out-of-state relatives at her home here recently: Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Villisca, Iowa; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson of Denver. Taylor is postmaster in his home city. A family gathering was held in their honor at the College Inn on Monmouth avenue.

Coveys Awarded Lawn Beautiful Prize, Woodburn

WOODBURN, Nov. 12.—The Woodburn Garden club held its November meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Timm on the Pacific highway Tuesday night when awards were made for the "Lawn Beautiful" contest which has been sponsored by the club this year. First prize was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Covey, second to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hall and third to Mr. and Mrs. George Jones.

This contest was started early in the spring, the lawns entered which totaled about 55, were inspected and judged three times during the summer and fall months by Earl Litwiler of Salem and Stanley Woodward of the Woodburn Floral Gardens, prizes being given for upkeep and improvement made during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Timm had on display individual specimens of about 30 different chrysanthemums which they had grown commercially in their greenhouses. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed with flower guessing contests, prizes going to Laverne Otjen and Mrs. Frank W. Covey. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Albert Beckman and Mrs. J. J. Hall. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Miller December 8 and will be in the form of a no-host dinner.

Mrs. Sancy in Hospital

KEIZER, Nov. 12.—Mrs. David Sancy underwent an operation for gottar at the Salem General hospital Thursday morning. At last reports she was doing nicely.

Club Is Invited To Independence

OAK POINT, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Orley Brown was hostess to Independence Rural Doman's club Tuesday afternoon at her home. Two new members were added to the roll, Mrs. Lavant Peace and Mrs. Charles Wilson. An invitation to visit the Woman's club in Independence on their annual "Neighbors day," November 17, was accepted, the club to go in a body.

The events and birthdays in November were given by Mrs. Josephine Walker and Mrs. Lavant Peace. An article from The Reader's Digest, on "Marathons of Sleep," by Archibald Rutledge was also given by Mrs. Walker. A piano number was played by Mrs. Stephen Van Houten. A short travel talk was given by Mrs. Hugh Rogers.

Mrs. Leonard Peterson and Mrs. J. Raamussen were invited guests.
