Badgers Seek to Block Bearcats' Drive on N.W. Grid Title

Upset Feared By W.U. Coach

History Cited; Willamette Strong Favorite, Maybe Is Too Nonchalant

Willamette's Bearcats, the football team that has gone through its last 17 conference games without defeat and has not been scored upon in its last seven, will meet the Pacife university Badgers on Sweetland field tonight at 8:15 o'clock in a game that may end with the Bearcats champions for the third year.

Although Willamette still has a game with Whitman on the slate a victory over the Badgers tonight would clinch the Northwest conference title for the Bearcats Whitman, which has lost one game and been tied in another has no chance at the title unless Willamette loses tonight.

Pacific should not be much for the Bearcats to fear since the Forest Grove team, coached this year by Roger Folgate, former assistant coach at Whitman, has won only from Albany, a team that Willamette beat 42 to 0. Recalls Past Upset

That, however, is just the reason Coach "Spec" Keene is wary of tonight's game. The situaton is too similar to a time before when a lowly Pacific club knocked the Bearcats out of a championship in a game they weren't given a ghost of a show

In an effort to get the teams, morale up to a high point Kene has let practice sessions this week be skylarking affairs, in which, with the exception of hard drill in blocking and tackling and intensified signal drills, work was very

With only two injury cases brought back from the California trip the squad will be in fine condtion for the game which is likely to see Pacific, most ancient football rival of the Bearcats, produce a strong bid for the upset

Pacific's attack, directed by a veteran signl-caller, Olean, will will probably be largely through Tourney's Upsets the Badgers most effective scoring route the eason.

Air Attack Dangerous With Ed Eilerton, big left half, throwing and two sure-fire ends, Sound and Whitman plenty to worry about in the air, Gieseke and Silbatrom of the silbatrom and Silkstrom also cooperate on a freak end around play in which Gieseke does the passing.

Two stellar tackles, Barstai and Amend, bolster the Pacific fine. Barstad was selected last year as an all-conference tackle.
"Dynamo Dick" Weisgerber and Billy Beard, Willamette's slippery left half will bear the brunt of the Bearcat offensive. Weigerber's plunging cracks at the line have netted big yardage gains n every game this year while Beard, who also does the passing and kicking, has been a first year sensation. Beard, a junior before he got in the first year of varsity play has still three years left. Unlike another time when he saw Pacific score on hs "shock troops" and then dogedly fight the regulars Keene will start his first string players with the exception of Jimmy Hogg, out with and

The proba	DIC SEL CILL	Willamette
Pacific		The second secon
Sikstrom	LE	McAdam
Barstad	LT	Vagt
Wiles	LG	Hogenson
Chapman	C	Waldron
Naet	RG	Becken
Amend	RT	Newhouse
Gieseke	RE	Versteege
Olean	Q	Gallon
Eilertson	LF	Beard
Schwab	RF	Shafter
Dahi	FB	Weisgerber

Chemawa to Seek Revenge, Quakers

CHEMAWA, Nov. 19.—A deter-mined band of Chemawa Indians will travel to Newberg Friday seeking revenge upon the heavy Pacific college football team. In an early season game, Pacific defeated the Indians 6 to 0. Since then the Indians have hit their stride, defeating Lebanon, .Camas and Toledo.

With the exception of Bell, tackle, and Saluskin, fullback, Chemawa's squad is in fine shape.

The starting lineup will be:
Ends, Sanderville and Mail; tackles, Red Elk and Settler; guards, Strong and Track; center, Christian; quarterback, Moses; halfbacks, Smith and Adams; fullback, Green.

Football Special Plans Stop Here

The football special train which will be operated from Portland to Corvallis for the annual Oregon-O.S.C. game, Saturday, will stop in Salem to pick up local fans, according to A. F. Noth, Southern Pacific ticket agent. The special will depart from here at 11:4 a. m. It will go directly to Bell field in Corvallis, returning immediately after the

The train will carry dining cars serving luncheons and dinners en route, Noth said.

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, Nov. 19-(P)-A strong, pro-longed earthquake starting at 3:10 p. m., today alarmed residents of Guatemala City.

Hopeful Badgers of Pacific Meet Bearcats Here Tonight

Apparently Over

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 19-Silkstrom and Gieske, catching, (A)-It was the calm after the reminiscent of the wholesale slaughter of stars yesterday, but the third round, played at 36 holes was touched off with a rousing rally by Horton Smith to stave off elimination and join seven others in te quarter finals.

Smith knocked the stuffings out of old man par; overcame a five hole deficit as late as the 22nd and wound up beating rugged Willie Goggin of San Bruno, Calif., 2 and 1.

It was easily the high spot of an otherwise tame day, a day in which there was no outstanding favorites except Harold McSpaden of Winchester, Mass., who after his triumph over defending Champion Johnny Revolta, was a heavy choice to wallop Leo Walper, the ex-ambulance driver from Bethesda, Md. He did, too. Walper met the inevitable fate, losing 4

Woodburn Starts Hoop Preparation

WOODBPURN, Nov. 19. -Coach Eldon Cone, whose Bulldog football team will tomorrow wind up its season against Silverton here, has already started basketball workouts in preparation for a tough Willamette valley league schedule. Coach Cone has material for a strong team this year although have so much bearing. Faber, as several of last year's regulars coach at Ashland high, had great were lost by graduation. Holdseveral of last year's regulars were lost by graduation. Holdover lettermen who have good the southern Oregon championchances for regular berths this ship three years in a row. Don has season include Whitman, a for- a squad of 32 working out at ward; Shaw and Anderson, who present. His varsity is likely to be made good showings as guards made up of sophomores and freshden. Bud Clark and Jack Lee, Grove, Ill., and a forward from reserves last year, both have Cleveland, Ohio. posts this season.

Above, the Badgers of Pacific university who meet Willamette's titleconsidered dangerous though it has won few conference vici Below, Tom Chapman, large center on the Badger eleven.

this season.

There seems to be a difference of opinion out Santiam way over school touch football league that has flourished there for the last

Mill City and Turner and the outcome of that game hinged on a not score after the final whistle. Turner won 7 to 6, or Mill City

The Statesman has received news items from Mill City and from Turner, each claiming the victory and the championship. We presume that the officials of the game made a decision one way or the other and there shouldn't be any room for con-troversy. For the enlightenment of any fans who know the particulars but may be hazy on the rules, it may be explained that if the play in question was start-ed before the whistle was blown, the touchdown should count.

Regardless of this, however, whatever the referee decided

"Tooty" Becken, the Willamette guard you can always pick out be-cause he wears a black helmet which is always right in where the going is thickest, is being groomed for a scoring role. Since Darrell

Newhouse, the ten ton tackle, and Bill Waldron, shrill-voiced center, have scored touchdown in Cal-ifornia "Tooty" believes its his turn next. In practices this week he has been scoring half the touchdowns, yelling "lateral, lateral" everytime anybody breaks away into the clear.

Topic, Corvallis

(Continued from Page 1) icy which will permit our use and enjoyment of recreational and commercial wild life facilities."

the Oregon fish commission, said unless some kind of treaties can be made with foreign countries and agreements reached with other Pacific coast states to control off-coast fishing, commercial fish-ing faced extinction.

David Canfield, superintendent of Crater Lake National park, said national parks had been ac-tive in making the nation "con-

John C. Veatch, chairman of

Wild Life Issues

wll have to stand.

Basketball has been stirring under the covers for some time now and, with football ready to go to bed, is already coming to life and taking a few setting up exercises. Hoop workouts have started in nearly all the colleges of the northwest conference-Whitman was champ last year in the loop and among those eyeing the crown worn by the Missionaries is Willamette, which last year finished somewhere along in the second div-

-0-The Missionaries will have only one regular left from last year's the championship in the high championship quint, long-legged Eddie Geist, center from Portland. Don Woodward, letterman reserve three seasons. The championship last year, is the only other veteran hinged on the last game between on the squad which Coach "Nig" Borleske is already drilling three time a week. Leave it to Borleske, touchdown—or was it a touch-however, to come forth with a down?—which Mill City did or did shining bunch of new material.

This is just an aside but Stan Borleske, a brother of "Nig's" is an assistant coach at Fresno State college whose football team played to a tie with Wil-lamette down in California.

Don Faber is another who is glad to get ready for basketball. His Albany gridders have had their usual season in the cellar and he's glad to get to a sport where weight and numbers don't

Willamette is in a good way

Confirm Sale St. Louis Browns

At a special meeting of American league baseball club owners in Chicago, sale of the St. Louis Browns for $325,000 in cash was officially approved. Principals in the deal were Dosald Barnes, left, head of the syndicate which made the purchase; William Harridge, center, president of the American league, and Louis Von Weise, right, representing the Ball estate which made the sale.

superintendent of the Malheur bird refuge; W. D. B. Dodson, Portland chamber of commerce; Dexter Rice, chairman of the state game commission; C. L. Jamieson, secretary of the Oregon cattle growers and horse raisers associ-

Portland Team Winner

the only Salem players to win

in Badminton Contests

for material for it has all its promising freshment of last year plus hard-going, dependable Charley Versteeg. The sophomores include Jerry Gastineau, the rangy center from Missouri, Walt Weaver, John Kelly, Bill Anton, the Beeg Greek from Portland, and a Salem Badminton players repre-senting the Y.M.C.A. went down to defeat by nine matches to three bunch of others from last year's Bearkittens, George Erickson, Moore in the mixed doubles were captain last year, will assist "Spec" Keene in the coaching

Bees Capture and power plays for the Monmouth Wolves. The Wolves have won five and lost three encounters so far while the Rangers boast of five wins and the tie. Bees Capture

Doerfler and Quamme Are Prominent in 21.0 Win on Midgets

The Salem high Bees swept over the Midgets 21 to 0 yester-day to finish their season unde-feated and with the champion-ship of the intramural league theirs for the second year. The Midgets, outpowered and outweighed by the heavy Bees, never threatened.

The Bees made two long drives in the first half good for a 14 to 0 lead as they worked their advantage from the start. A 15 yard pass from Maynard to Doerfler brought the first Bee score and Doerfler plunged across for the extra point.

Maynard drove five yards through right tackle to climax another drive in the second period and this time Reeves dove over for the extra counter.

Quamme Scores
Quamme, shifted from the line to the backfield in the second half, intercepted one of Wick-ert's desperate last period passes and ran 25 yards for the final touchdown. Quamme went around left end for the extra point.

Wickert's kicking was a size-able factor in the Midget de-fense, the big fullback getting off one boot that was good for 60 Parrish and Leslie junior highs wind up the intramural season today when they meet at Leslie in their "big game" of the season. Parrish won the first game from the light Leslie eleven 42 to 6.

Lineups:		2 2
Midgets		Bee
Litwiller	LE	McCrar
Reeves
King
Carson
Duke
Cooper
McCarroll
Medley
Hastings
Elsey
Wickert

St. Martin's and Wolves to Clash

OLYMPIA, Nov. 19. - (AP) - St. Martin's Rangers, undefeated so far this season and with only a scoreless tie with Pacific Lutheran marring their otherwise perfect season, meet Oregon Nor-mal in their "One big game of the season" here Friday night. Coach Joe Paglia, former San-Wednesday night when the local coach Joe Paglia, former Santeam played a tournament with a ta Clara star, has been drilling group from Portland. Rae Yocum, and Barbara Chandler in women's singles and Mr. and Mrs. Gus will break away from their customary Notre Dame system used during the first of the season and substitute a variety of deceptive

An added feature of the game will see three former Olympia high school stars meet two of their former teammates who are now playing with Monmouth.

Eugene Declines Mac High Tussle

Milton - Freewater Accepts The Dalles Proposal to Sponsor Game MILTON - FREEWATER, Ore., Nov. 19.-(A)-Superintendent

James Burgess of the local high school, said tonight he had accepted the offer of The Dalles for a Thanksgiving day game with Eugene but that the latter school had turned down the bid.

He said he had not been advised if another opponent had been found.

THE DALLES, Ore., Nov. 19. (P)-An invitation for the Milton-Freewater and Eugene high school grid teams to play here Thanks-giving day for the mythical state title went out today from Paul McCullough, principal of The Dalles high school.

McCullough pointed out that The Dalles has a turf field, that it is almost equi-distant between the two schools, and that there is nd counter attraction here.

Milton-Freewater, held on even terms only in one inter-state fracas with Walla Walla, and Eugene are two of the major claimants to state honors.

The third is Hood River, which accepted an invitation to play Jefferson high of Portland at Portland Thanksgiving day in a game which Jefferson officials said has no championship bearing because the Portland school has been tied.

Second Carnegie Report Is Asked

Universitiés, meeting here today, nhanimously asked the Carnegie foundation to "undertake a sup- Oregon State at Corvallis Saturplementary study of inter-colleglate athletics."

was said to be meeting in New York City, reported two years ago on an extensive survey which charged many colleges with subsidization of athletes.

The report created a furor among educational and sports circles due to specific allegations of salaried football players employed for that purpose.

The committee on athletics of the association last November submitted a group of regulations for intercollegiate athletics designed to preserve their amateur

Joe Gray, backfield ace, took things easy today. He sprained his ankle in the Indian game but will play against the Webfoots.

Hands Brand New

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 19.-(P)-James J. Braddock hoisted a pair

eral Grant handled the Richmond incident, said the confident heavyweight champion. Then he'll put up his title for Maxie Schmel-

195 pounds, said he would leave Dallas immediately after referee-ing a fight tonight and return to Hot Springs, Ark., for the fin-ishing touches of a treatment he said had chased traces of arthritis from his hands.

being made.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Nov. 19.

"We have no intention of com-peting with the traditional Rose Bowl game," said Dunne. "At said national park, had been active in making the nation "conservation conscious."

Other speakers were Fred J. Foster, regional director of the U. S. bureau of fisheries; W. A. Rockie, regional conservation service; C. D. Molohon, chief of range surveys; V. L. Sexton, forest economist of the state planning board; Stanley G. Jewett,

Stanley G. Jewett,

JIM CROWLEY; since he has conservation services in making the nation "conservation conservation services, in recent years.

JIM CROWLEY; since he has conservation services in making the nation "conservation conservation services, regional director of the U. S. bureau of fisheries; W. A. Rockie, regional conservation services; C. D. Molohon, chief of range surveys; V. L. Sexton, forest economist of the state planning board; Stanley G. Jewett,

Stanley G. Jewett,

JIM CROWLEY; since he has conserved reputation of the state planning to come to food and municipally one active particles and deserved reputation as the "mightiest builder of a line."

JIM CROWLEY; since he has conserved reputation "conservation conservation served in Los Angeles."

The two ringleaders of the Rock of Gibraltar defense are "Devil Doll" Ed Franco, smatching guard, and Alexander the Great Wojcie-towics (that's right, Mr. Printer).

Of Wej, otc., there will be more written at a later date. Alex the fordhamite to drag down many a line be turned to the conching profile.

Of Wej, otc., there will be more written at a later date. Alex the fordhamite to drag down many a line be turned to the conching profile.

Of Wej, otc., there will be more written at a later date. Alex the fordhamite to drag down many a later of the Rockies are "Devil Los Angeles."

Doll" Ed Franco, smatching guard, and Alexander the Great Wojcie-towics (that's right, Mr. Printer).

Of Wej, otc., there will be more written at a later date. Alex the fordhamite to drag down many a long transmittence of the part was a stocky, low-along extremely uupleasant individual to collide with on a football field. Edward is a stocky, low-al

Veteran Is Favorite For Victory Tonight; No Title at Stake NEW YORK, Nov. 19. - (A) -Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver Ir-ishman and former welterweight champion, will make the second start in his comeback campaign

McLarnin Opposes

Ambers in Garden

Lou Ambers, king of the lightweights in a 10-round engage-ment in Madison Square Garden. McLarnin's experience, superior punching and 10-pound weight advantage have made him an 8 to 5 favorite with the money players, with plenty of Ambers tomorrow night when he takes on takers. Again McLarnin's ring generalship and hitting ability, Ambers will pit youth, speed and a busy, is not deadly two-fisted attack.

It will be Ambers' second start since winning the crown from Tony Canzoneri in September. Three weeks ago he dropped an over-the-weight decision to Ed-die Cool in Philadelphia.

McLarnin has been idle since he decisively defeated Canzoneri last month. Barney Ross, welterweight champion, who defends his title against Izzy Januazzo Nov. 27, has signed an agreement with Madison Square Garden to meet the McLarnin-Ambers winner, regardless of the result of the Jannazzo bout.

Tomorrow night's semi - final will be a 10-rounder between Enrico Venturi, Italian lightweight star and Davey Day, of Chicago, a stable mate of Ro

State Schools to Put in Best Licks

Nicholson Is Counted on For Webfoot Yardage; Stiner Doleful

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 19 .- (AP)-How to stop Joe Gray and how to get his own Jimmy Nicholson out AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 19.—(P)— into the open were the main prob-the National Association of State lems before Coach Prince Callison as his Oregon Webfooters drilled for the traditional battle with day.

Callison worked today on his The foundation, whose board secondary in an effort to conswas said to be meeting in New struct a defense for the bullet-like passes of Gray, the Beaver half-

Nicholson, who starred in the game with California, continued to flash speed and Callison said he would start his first varsity contest.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 19.-(A) The same Oregon State football crew that started against Stanford will be in at the kickoff against the Oregon Webfoots here Saturday, Coach Lon Stiner said

Stiner said he realized the Ore-gon team would be shooting des-perately for its first conference win of the year and warned his Beavers not to take the coast cellar occupants lightly.

Braddock Claims

of "brand new dukes" for inspec-tion tonight and quietly assured his listeners that Madison Square Garden needn't worry. He'll take Joe Louis like Gen-ing in June.

Braddock, trim and rugged at

"What's the Garden got to lose on the Louis fight?" queried Brad-dock. "I'll whip him."

Buck Bowl Event

-(P)-Reports, that Santa Clara's Broncos intend to play a post-season football game at Los Angeles in competition with the Rose Bowl classic were termed "absolutely false" today by Sam Dunne, Santa Clara athletic director.

present we are merely interested in finishing the remaining games on our schedule and should we be fortunate enough to come through undefeated we shall con-sider a post-season game but not in Los Angeles."

The champion was eager to hear the latest developments from New York, where efforts to cinch a proposed scrap with Joe Louis at Atlantic City in February are

Broncos Will Not

Bulwark of Rams' Stone Wall

