

Vikings Attain To New Height

Deepest of Trick Plays Employed by Haukmen; Final Score 7-7

The ball back to Smith, close up to the line. Smith shoved the ball back to Maers and that was the forward pass, though it probably traveled six inches. Then Smith started out, with interference ahead of him, toward the opposite end and Medford, thinking of the two previous plays, swept that way to get him. Maers, waiting just a second, then straightening up ran until downed on the Medford five yard line. Such a pass is legal in the high school rules which approve passes from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage.

Chapman dashed through left tackle to score on the following play and Jerry Cottew bucked over for the extra point.
Medford is Right
Back With Drive
Medford started right back to even it up. Returning a poor Salem kick-off to the Medford 48-yard stripe Sakraida, Tiger fullback, and Lewis, halfback, started off in a parade that ended nine plays later with Sakraida plunging the final foot.

Medford really turned on the steam in that drive. Sakraida and Lewis each getting away for 14-yard gains.
Lewis went around right end for the extra point.
Salem threatened with passes in the final minutes of the game but, with seconds left, turned on the Medford 19-yard line after Maers had intercepted Sakraida's pass and Chapman had tossed leaves of 9 and 16 yards to Hoffert and Litwiler.

Both teams had scoring chances in the first half but lost the ball on downs. Salem reached the Medford 12-yard line in the first quarter after a drive from its own 40-yard stripe but failed to make another first down by inches.
Salem held four three-yard lines before the close of the first half after Medford had driven, with scrimmage plays and passes, from its own 31-yard line to the Salem 12, been repulsed by a 15-yard holding penalty and then came back with a 22-yard pass from Sakraida to Wilson. The pass failed to drive Medford a first down, however, and Chapman batted to earth a last down attempt to score via air.

Medford gained 174 yards from scrimmage to Salem's 158. Medford attempted 10 passes, completed five for a gain of 73 yards. Four were incomplete and one intercepted. Salem tried seven passes, completing two for a gain of 25 yards. One was intercepted.
Carl Chapman's ability to jam his way through heavy traffic made him the Vikings' best ground-gainer while Sakraida and Lewis were Medford's best yardage makers.

'Municipal' Milk Supplied Oakland

OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 19—(AP)—Residents of this city and of Berkeley, a college city to the north, drank municipal milk tonight.
Most of the milk distributed in the two communities was handed in processing plants taken over by the cities through special powers voted by the councils.
Emergency action was taken in response to a tieup in the milk distributing systems which followed labor disputes.

Great Lakes Freighter Nearly Loses Cargo in Heavy Seas

Heavy seas which battered the S. S. Leonard B. Miller while the Great Lakes freighter was en route from Detroit to Duluth almost resulted in a score of new automobiles plunging overboard from the deck, but the ship managed to make port, above, with a number of the machines virtually dangling from the decks, as shown in this photo.

Morgenthau Asks RFC Be Retained

Hoover Administration's Recovery Agency Still Needed, Declaration

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—(AP)—A statement today by Secretary Morgenthau favoring extension of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation's lending powers listed reports that he and Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the agency, were at odds over the future of the big lending corporation.

Telling his press conference "the time has not come yet when we can dispense with the RFC," the treasury chief added that he should a congressional committee request his opinion he would recommend a year's extension of its lending powers.
Unless this authority is continued by congress, the pioneer recovery agency must start liquidation Jan. 31.

"I certainly feel, Morgenthau said, that it should be extended as a lending agency."
Chairman Jones said recently a gradual reduction of RFC activities was being effected but that some provision should be made for continuing commodity and railroad loans. These have accounted for a major part of the corporation's lending in recent months.
Organized in February, 1932, under the Hoover administration, the corporation has made $6,292,000,000 in loans to industry and $4,241,000,000 has been repaid. When its lending powers terminate finally, the law provides it must be liquidated within ten years.

Green Hurls New Charges at Lewis which have arisen by our actions, you have shown that whom the gods would destroy they first make mad.

"Our responsibilities as leaders of men call for the exercise of tolerance, moderation and constructive thinking."
"Regardless of any attempt which you may make to secure personal revenge, I shall follow a policy of patience and self-control supported by a willingness to meet and settle differences in manly fashion at the conference table."
Green also sent a telegram to Charles P. Howard, accusing the president of the International Typographical union of blocking efforts to end the Lewis revolt amicably. Howard is secretary of Lewis' rebel committee.
Convention developments:
By an overwhelming vote the delegates denounced current seamen's strikes on the Atlantic coast as the work of communists.
Spencer Miller, director of the workers' education bureau counseled the convention to make peace with Lewis' rebels to present a united front to threats of fascism.
Max Zaritsky, president of the United Hatters, cap and millinery workers, and the only rebel leader at the convention, likewise urged reunion to combat "the barons of industry."
Green denied all the allegations before the miner's executive board.

Extensive Strike in Mexico Feared

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19—(AP)—Industrialists expressed fear tonight a scheduled strike in the oil fields, coupled with new legislation authorizing distribution of private wealth, might end in the confiscation of property to be operated by labor groups.
The oil strike was set for Nov. 20 after employers refused demands for labor reform, including wage increases and a ten-week vacation with pay.
The wealth distribution legislation was passed last night by the Mexican legislature and is similar to the already effective Agrarian reform laws, under which large ranches have been broken into small farms and allotted to workers.
One executive of a large oil company pointed to the Agrarian reform to support his contention

Bombs Strike in Heart of Madrid

Postoffice Ripped Apart; Streetcars Jerked in Air by Explosion

MADRID, Nov. 19—(AP)—Fascist aerial bombs struck in the heart of Madrid again today, partly wrecking the postoffice, the central bank and an ornate palace, once the home of the Marquis of Linares.
Crowds in the postoffice were sliced down by shrapnel from the exploding bombs, and unestimated numbers were killed.
The front of the building was ripped apart, and windows shattered. There was an unconfirmed report that one of the bombs crashed through the main floor of the building.
Two street cars were jerked into the air by the force of the fearful explosions in Cibelles square, near the postoffice.
The crowded strap-hangers in the cars were cut down by the shrapnel. Most of them were believed killed.
Diagonally across from the postoffice, the palace of the Marquis, more recently used as a government barracks, was partially torn down by another bomb.
A third bomb, apparently aimed at the nearby war ministry,

Britain Questions Fascist Blockade

LONDON, Nov. 19—(AP)—The British government tonight instructed Sir Henry G. Chilton, ambassador to Spain, to ask the insurgent government for an explanation of its reported warning it would blockade Barcelona.
Chilton, who was in Hendaye, France, just across the border from Spain.
Informed sources interpreted the order as another British humanitarian effort in the Spanish civil war.
The note was believed to contain an appeal to the Burgos government to respect the status of Barcelona's non-combatant as well as an effort to gain further information on General Franco's intentions in the Mediterranean.

Social Security Explanations to Be Spread Afar

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—(AP)—The social security board today, with John G. Winant back at the helm, began a national campaign to familiarize approximately 26,000,000 industrial employees with the old-age pension plan for which they will receive application blanks on November 24.
Chairman Winant announced he would make a coast-to-coast broadcast from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. (eastern standard time) Monday, explaining the program. Tomorrow a flood of posters and newsreel movies will be released.
A special group has been assigned by the department of publications to prepare material for foreign language newspapers. It follows closely the questions-and-answers explanation of the social security act now appearing in many papers.

Roosevelt Facing Neptune's Pranks

ABOARD U. S. S. CHESTER, At Sea, Nov. 19—(AP)—"King Neptune" sent his emissaries tonight to the U. S. S. Chester and the Cruiser Indianapolis bearing a message from President Roosevelt to the Inter-American peace conference in Buenos Aires.

The presidential party was given formal notice that Neptune demanded his "loyal subjects" lay plans to purge the "pusillanimous pollywogs" of dockyard barnacles before entering his kingdom at the equator.
Whether the president, who never crossed the equator, would be subjected to the same practical jokes as the other members of the party, was a matter of conjecture tonight.
The vessels were some 420 miles east of Miami, steaming along at 26 knots in a calm sea beneath a cloudy sky.
Heavy winter clothing was doffed for summer attire as the weather became steadily warmer.

to end a six months walkout. Strikers at Ilion, N. Y., and Middletown, Conn., plants also rejected the company offer on grounds it did not guarantee union recognition.
At Cincinnati, O., a machinists union rejected a company offer to reopen a Remington Rand plant in Norwood, closed more than three months ago because of violence which accompanied the strike which began last May.
A "sit-down" protest of workers at the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., in Akron, O., over rate and stock conditions was settled after a conference with company executives and 4000 men went back to their posts.
Another "sit-down" strike of 500 men in the Atlanta, Ga., assembly plant of the Fisher Body corporation ended in a promised amicable settlement.
Musicians Demanded Larger Orchestras
Musicians of the Philadelphia orchestra joined pickets in front of five downtown moving picture theatres as a protest against the decrease in the number of musicians employed.
At Tulsa, Okla., leaders of oil field, gas well and refinery workers called their men into a meeting to decide whether to strike because, they said, they were not satisfied with a five per cent wage increase announced by the Mid-Continent Petroleum company.
Milk wagon drivers struck in Oakland and Berkeley, Calif., and the bag industry in San Francisco found itself tied up by a walkout.
Mexico expressed fears that a strike in the oil field scheduled for November 29 might bring confiscation of property in its wake.

Whistle Heralds Strike Armistice But All Mistake

SEATTLE, Nov. 19—(AP)—A ferry whistle "stuck" here today and its long and blatant howling started a rumor away down on Grays Harbor the Maritime strike had been settled.

Not only that, but in the exchange of excited telephone calls, the confusion became worse confounded until Seattle shippers heard that whistles were blowing at Aberdeen in celebration of a strike truce and Aberdeen shippers heard there was merrymaking on Seattle's waterfront because of a similar armistice.
Investigation disclosed there was no armistice, no celebration, only a ferryboat whistle in need of repairs.

War's Philosophy To Be Repudiated

Hope For Accomplishment at Americas' Parley Voiced by Hull

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 19—(AP)—United States Secretary of State Cordell Hull declared tonight 21 American republics will meet at the Inter-American Peace Conference in Buenos Aires to repudiate the philosophy which sends men into the battlefields.
Secretary Hull, who reached Rio De Janeiro today at the head of the United States delegation en route to the parley opening December 1, spoke at a dinner in his honor at the Brazilian foreign ministry.
He said the people of America and of the whole world soon will insist on peace.
"If we American republics show a willingness to ratify the pledges of peace among us," Hull said, "the people outside this hemisphere will not be heedless to our example."
Results Expected
The Inter-American conference, shows that American nations are determined to remain at peace while being strong. To impede wars for the self-advancement of others and to promote trade.
Jose Carlos Macedo Soares, Brazilian foreign minister, voiced disapproval of any attempt by the conference to create an American league of nations or an Inter-American tribunal.

Jose Carlos Macedo Soares, Brazilian foreign minister, voiced disapproval of any attempt by the conference to create an American league of nations or an Inter-American tribunal.

He asserted the Pan-American union, which has headquarters in Washington, has been highly useful and said there was "no reason to reduce its efficiency" by creating an unnecessary new organization.
Emphasizing his objection to any move to establish an Inter-American court, Macedo Soares asserted:
