Last Rites Held For Mrs. Bagley

MONMOUTH, Nov. 19.—Funeral services were held Sunday for Mrs. O. J. Bagley, 74, of Suver, who died November 15 at the family home. She was born October 26, 1866 at Brookville, Ind., where she received her education. February 16, 1886 she was married at Palmont, Ind., to A. L. Kerr. They came to Oregon the same year and for the last 50 years she had lived continuously in Polk county.

Mr. Kerr died in 1903. She was married to O. J. Bagley, Fairway 20, 1908. He survives, also two children: Mrs. Ed J. Steele, Dallas; and W. J. Kerr, Monmouth; also 7 grandchildren and three half-brothers.

Mrs. Bagley was a member of the Evangelical church, the Berea Neighbors and the Ivy club of Suver. Rev. W. A. Elkins of Monmouth officiated at the services. Interment was made in the family plot at Monmouth.

Heads Hotel Group

ALBANY, Nov. 19.—B. R. Westbrook, proprietor of the Hotel Albany, was elected president of the Southern Oregon branch of the Oregon State Hotel association at a meeting held in Grants Pass Saturday. Westbrook has been in the hotel business for many years, not only in Albany but also in Astoria and Ashland.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Nov. 19.—The West Salem school is shortening the noon hour to 45 minutes so that the pupils who live quite a distance from school can reach home before dark, as school will then let out 15 minutes earlier.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Forster and children have returned home from a six weeks' trip east. They report that the weather was just right for traveling, that the autumn coloring in the scenery was beautiful, and that the only bad weather they encountered was at Hood River on their way home. Mrs. Forster's mother and other relatives as well as many friends live in Michigan and other eastern states.

The Busick's store will be open for business by Saturday although the official opening has not been set.

The volleyball club has been divided into two groups. The younger girls meet from 7 to 8 p. m. Tuesday and the older girls meet from 8 to 9 Tuesday nights.
