

Old Rivals Bulldog Jackson and Tinkit Achiu Clash Tonight

Chinese Holds Edge on Wins

Piluso and Westcoff Will Meet; Trout-Lipscomb in Opening Bout

Bulldog Jackson, the Alaska assassin, and his rival of many years, Walter Tinkit Achiu, will pit their strength and strategy against each other for the edification of wrestling devotees in the main event of the American Legion show at the armory tonight.

Jackson and Achiu, pioneers on Herb Owen's grapple circuit, are enemies of long standing and have their best wrestling tactics for their frequent meetings.

Achiu, the clever, Chinese, holds the most wins in their series but Jackson is no slight threat to the fast-moving lad who currently holds the coast middleweight belt.

Piluso to Appear
Ernie Piluso, popular member of Portland's spaghetti consumers, will meet a new villain in Al Westcoff, hairy denizen of the New Hampshire mountains, in the 45-minute event.

Trout, the well-liked sailor lad from San Diego, meets Jack Lipscomb, killer of small dogs and big men, in the 30 minute opener.

Young Firpo Will Fight Riggi Here

Idaho Bull Signed Up For Bout December 11; Is Northwest Leader

Young Firpo, the wild bull from Burk, Ida., will meet Frank Riggi, Brooks heavyweight, in a ten round main event bout at the Salem armory Friday, December 11, Promoter Curly Feldman stated last night after returning from Portland where he arranged for the local appearance of the Idaho heavyweight.

Firpo, ranked as the leading heavyweight battler in the northwest, will give Riggi, the hard-hitting Italian boy, the first top-notch opposition he has faced.

Riggi, who has a long list of wins, gained a technical knockout over Gene O'Grady of Ashland here last Friday. Riggi will start training immediately for the Firpo bout, toughest test of his still-young career.

Norris on Card
Eddie Norris, Salem's classy young lightweight hope, will meet Jack Curley, Portland's top-ranking lightweight, in the six-round semi-main event.

Assistant Coach Job Is Proposed
Creation of a paid assistant coaching position for the Salem high school basketball squad during the coming season will be recommended at tonight's meeting of the Salem school board.

Superintendent Silas Gaiser said yesterday, Garnie Cranor, chemistry instructor and former Willamette university star athlete, is slated for the job. If the board approves of the appointment, Cranor will take charge of the Viking H squad.

The directors also will receive a report on possibilities of obtaining a new vocational shops building on the new senior high school site. Revised estimates, omitting certain items of interior finish and heating, have been made in an effort to bring cost of the structure within the approximately $33,000 available.

Nicholson Leader In Ground Gaining
EUGENE, Nov. 30.—(P)—Jimmy Nicholson, former ball carrier for Salem high school, was the most consistent ground-gainer for the University of Oregon football in the football season just closed.

He averaged 4.4 yards each time he packed the ball. He was called to lead the Webfoot attack 62 times.

Other figures compiled here for the Oregon team, tallies in the coast conference race, 1141 yards from scrimmage against 1296 for opponents.

Guldahl Winner In Augusta Open

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—(P)—Streaking down the stretch in a garrison finish, slender Ralph Guldahl, of St. Louis, overtook the field Sunday to win first place money in the $5,000 Augusta open golf tournament with a 72-hole score of 283.

The middle-aged automobile salesman stroked the last 18 holes in 67, four under par, to pick up $1,000 and triumph by two strokes over Henry Picard, of Hershey, Pa., and Denny Shute, of Boston, recently crowned P.G.A. champion.

Rose Bowl Issue Gets Mysterious

SEATTLE, Nov. 30.—(P)—This Rose bowl business was getting more mysterious than ever today, and "U" men were becoming as slippery and foxy as "C" men.

Rumor had it that "contact" had already been made with some eastern opponent for the Washington Huskies in the big Rose bowl football classic at Pasadena New Year's day, but "U" men refused to admit it.

Charley Versteeg, Williamette's big end from McMinnville who finished his college football last Thursday, rolled up a remarkable playing record in his four years. As a freshman Versteeg played 109 minutes of football, seeing some service in nearly every game. From his sophomore year on he played in every game and nearly every time started. In his first three years he played 726 minutes of football. His time for this year hasn't been figured yet but will probably be close to 400 minutes, making over 1100 minutes or 18 1/2 hours of football in four years.

Ohio State university this season had a football squad consisting of five complete teams. That seems to be doing pretty well in the line of football talent but it doesn't begin to tell the story. They had 17 full teams on the freshman squad at Ohio State, 95 fully equipped teams playing regulation football in intramural games and 36 other teams which were issued equipment and received instruction. That means 1672 students, almost three times the student body of Willamette, playing football. Ohio State has a student body of 13,500.

Dick Weisgerber wound up his junior year as a Willamette fullback with 96 points scored during the season and in second place in the nation's scoring column. It is a remarkable coincidence that he and Johnny Oravec, both from the same state (New Jersey) and the same prep school (St. Benedict's), were both second in national scoring in their junior year. Oravec outdid Weisgerber with 120 points.

Board Decides to Raze 80-Year-Old Santiam Academy Building, Lebanon

LEBANON, Nov. 30.—Following a decision of the Santiam academy board, the old academy building on the northwestern part of the high school grounds will be razed in the near future after 80 years of continuous service. All that is good in building equipment will be donated to boy and girl scout organizations for a building.

The history of the building, since its erection in 1856, is deeply intertwined with that of Lebanon and many other parts of the northwest; Lebanon descendants of the organizers and early teachers cherish a deep sentiment for the old building but being progressive citizens, look to the future and know that "The old order changeth."

Malley Is Chosen As Coach of Dons

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Appointment of George Malley as head football coach of the University of San Francisco to succeed L. D. "Spud" Lewis, resigned, was announced today.

Malley, former University of Santa Clara end, from 1923 to 1926, was assistant to Lewis the last season. His new contract is for one year. Before joining the San Francisco staff Malley had a highly successful tenure as coach at St. Ignatius high school here.

Lewis, quarterback star for Stanford university in 1923 and later assistant coach at Northwestern university, took over the head coaching reins here in 1932. His appointment was the result of the part of a small group of alumni and students were heard last week. Lewis refused to permit supporters to rally to his cause, saying he preferred to resign rather than coach without the support of the entire alumni and student body.

Nicholson Leader In Ground Gaining

EUGENE, Nov. 30.—(P)—Jimmy Nicholson, former ball carrier for Salem high school, was the most consistent ground-gainer for the University of Oregon football in the football season just closed.

He averaged 4.4 yards each time he packed the ball. He was called to lead the Webfoot attack 62 times.

Other figures compiled here for the Oregon team, tallies in the coast conference race, 1141 yards from scrimmage against 1296 for opponents.

Caster Is Coast Loop Mound Ace

PORTLAND, Nov. 30.—(P)—George Caster, ace hurler for the Portland Beavers, turned in more victories and pitched more games than any other flinger in the Pacific coast league, averages showed today.

Caster pitched the beavers to 25 wins and worked 33 complete games. He threw to opposing batsmen in 329 innings.

He led the league with 234 strikeouts.

Western Fighter Wins

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(P)—Bob Pacheco, 146 lb., Los Angeles, outpunched Ray, Neapolitano, 146 lb., to win an eight round decision in the main bout at the St. Nicholas palace tonight.

Gopher Again Rated at Top

Louisiana State Next and Pitt, Alabama Ranked Ahead of Huskies

By ALAN GOULD
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—(P)—Minnesota's Gophers hold their place as America's No. 1 college football team by a decisive margin over Louisiana State, champion of the deep south, in the final national ranking poll conducted by the Associated Press for 1936.

Results compiled this week in the seventh college football poll reveal Minnesota the choice among 25 out of 35 experts. Nine placed L. S. U. at the top or their lists. One first-place ballot was cast for Santa Clara, the nation's only major unbeaten and untied team.

The final rankings with points tallied on a basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1:
First Ten: Points

2. Louisiana State 309
3. Stanford 277
4. Alabama 218
5. Washington 216
6. Santa Clara 165

13. Dartmouth 13
14. Duquesne 11
15. Fordham 11
16. Texas Christian 10
17. Tennessee 8
18. Arkansas and Navy 6
19. Marquette 4

"Laddy" Gale, the Oakridge center who was the hero of the 1935 state basketball tournament, will probably be regular center on the University of Oregon varsity this year. Bobby Anet and Wally Johansen will also be in there somewhere. Prink Callison and Lon Stiner seem to be both secure for another year at least. We think Louisiana State has better claim to Rose Bowl recognition than Alabama. Curly Feldman, after trying for months, has finally signed Young Firpo for a fight here. A town team basketball league is being formed. They talk it over tonight at Parker's.

The open house and dedication program planned by the parent-teacher association there will not be held until January, under present plans. The association, however, is expected to hold its first meeting in the new auditorium next Tuesday night.

A small crew yesterday began finishing work in the basement corridors, two play rooms and a cafeteria room. Plastering and painting remain to be done.

Albany Woman Relates Naming Of Murder Creek

ALBANY, Nov. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. John McChesney of Albany related the story of the naming of their wedding day, November 25, quietly Mrs. McChesney was then a resident of Albany since 1861, having been brought across the plains by her parents, when she was but a girl.

They heard a shot and running home told their father. He and a neighbor man investigated and discovered a man, shot dead, lying almost submerged in the creek. His boots had been removed. Authorities in Albany were notified and the murderer was found in a shop in the town, with the murdered man's boots on. Afterwards the early settlers gave the name "Murder" to the creek.

November 25, 1891, Mr. and Mrs. McChesney were married, and the wedding ceremony was performed in the new Methodist church in Albany. They went to housekeeping in the home which had been Mrs. McChesney's father and in which she has lived continuously for the past 59 years.

The plaintiffs are also asking for $1,132 expense money they allege they paid out during the various litigations.

Homecoming Will Also Be Farewell

This year's homecoming assembly at Salem high school also will be a farewell affair, Principal Fred D. Wood said yesterday in announcing that plans to make the program an unusual one were under way. The assembly is tentatively scheduled for the week of December 21.

At least one alumnus from each of the last 11 classes will attend the assembly, if preparations now being made under direction of Ola L. Clark and Ruth M. Braut, faculty members, are completed. The instructors are ferreting out interesting historical data concerning the school for use in connection with the program.

Next year's homecoming assembly will be held in the new senior high building, which will be occupied at the beginning of the 1937 fall semester.

Big Squad Out At Salem High

45 Report But Few Large or Experienced Lads on Viking Roster

Fundamental drill in ball-handling and shooting started off Salem high basketball activities yesterday as Coach Harold Hauk began working with a squad of 45 candidates, most of whom were green but eager.

Hauk will begin cutting down the squad to workable proportions either today or tomorrow with hopes of salvaging enough material to build a good squad of regulars.

Few of the large, raw-boned youths in whom basketball coaches on delight were among Hauk's turnout yesterday. Among the largest were the three hold-overs from last year's "varsity" lineup. Hill, Chambers and Skopli, and two remnants of last year's "B" team, Gallaher and Maers.

Fundamental drill will be continued today as Hauk attempts to single out potential courtmen from the flock of candidates.

Women Advised to Study Citizenship

Vital Issues Faced Avers Dean Scholz, Speaker at Chamber Meet

Women are taking hold of the duties of citizenship just as a period when citizenship's issues are highly involved and extremely important, and therefore they must take the responsibility seriously and determine to tackle the job of social planning which is before them today, declared Mrs. Richard F. Scholz, dean of women at Reed college, in an address at the Salem chamber of commerce luncheon Monday. The program was sponsored by the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, with Mrs. Ida Binhammer, president of the club, in charge.

Americans have been so steeped in democracy that they take it for granted, says Mrs. Scholz, but the trend in so many countries is to fascism or communism that Americans are going to be forced to decide whether or not they are retaining their own system.

With respect to social planning, Mrs. Scholz declared it was not sufficient to say that the constitution prevented it, but to devise a way, perhaps through an amendment, to make it possible and then to proceed with the task—something that women are peculiarly able to do because they are trained to do whatever job comes up, whereas men habitually hunt for a job they like to do. "Let's fix our own system," Mrs. Scholz advised, admitting that she knew little about them and that both men and women of whom she inquired, also knew little. Personally, she said, she has no objection to their doing it if they buy what she wants, but she would rather see them buy a Bonneville dam than a battleship.

Woman's interest in problems of liberty, peace and social planning is especially vital because the answer to high unemployment of the children they have been to considerable trouble in bringing into the world and rearing, the speaker pointed out.

Mrs. Gertrude F. Lobdell, first woman member of the city council, was introduced by Mayor V. E. Kuhn who complimented her upon the intelligent interest she has taken in civic and municipal affairs.

Red Cross Short Of County Quota

With $3044.76 in the hands of the treasurer for the 1936 Red Cross roll call in Marion county, the chapter is nearly $2000 short of its $5000 quota, roll call leaders reported following a luncheon meeting yesterday noon at the Quetta.

The Marion county chapter must have its full quota to carry on in the Red Cross work here," Judge George Rossman of the Oregon supreme court, chairman of the Marion county chapter of the Red Cross, stated yesterday.

Judge Rossman urged that persons who do desire to increase their Red Cross membership and that persons who were not contacted by the roll call workers bring their funds to the chapter treasurer, Lynn C. Smith, at the United States bank building or to the Red Cross headquarters at 147 North Commercial street, upstairs.

Judge Rossman declared he feels the public is not aware of the increasing demands being made upon the Red Cross, due in part to the curtailment of federal assistance to the needy.

For the last two months the Marion county chapter, due to lack of funds, has been unable to meet obligations placed upon it by emergency situations locally.

Red Cross officials say it is clear that they do not wish because of agreement with sponsors of the anti-tuberculosis campaign drive now under way to carry on an active campaign in the county to obtain the additional $2000 needed, but they do ask that persons who intend to donate and have not, bring their funds.

Prison Survey Is Near Completion

Federal Man and Interim Committee Members Visit Governor

Study of the Oregon state penitentiary, now being made by the federal commission on prison reorganization, will be completed within four weeks, Dr. L. N. Robinson, chairman, advised Governor Martin late Monday. Robinson was accompanied to the executive department by Representative Barnes and other members of the legislative interim committee on prison industries. The state planning board also was represented.

The study will cover the physical prison plant, work available, treatment of convicts, parole laws and other phases of the penal institution.

File With President
Robinson said Oregon's prison problems were no different from those of other states visited by the federal commission. The report of the commission will be filed with President Roosevelt and copies will be sent to Governor Martin. Governor Martin declared that the care of convicts presented a difficult problem.

"Approximately 106 of our prisoners are life-termers," Governor Martin said. "It's the young fellow with the short term that gives me the most concern." The governor said 65 of the 1000 convicts in the penitentiary here now were under 19 years of age.

Governor's Stand On Strike Lauded

A number of telegrams were received at the executive department Monday commending Governor Martin on his stand in the Portland strike situation.

One telegram from Dr. Willard H. Pope, pastor of Calvary Tabernacle, Portland, read: "Sincere congratulations for your stand on issue confronting us in the present strike trouble. You can count on us supporting you."

"We thank God for a governor and mayor of Portland who are willing to face this situation without fear or favor. Personally, as pastor of Calvary Tabernacle and radio pastor over KEX, if there is anything I can do command me."
