

Linn Jury Says Elevator Need

County Farm Given Clean Bill After Inspection By Grand Jurors License Issued

ALBANY, Dec. 7.—The Linn county grand jury, which has just completed its December term, recommended to the county court the installation of an elevator in the court house. The court room is located on the third floor of the building, and jurors in their report, stated they heard many complaints from jurors and witnesses about the effort required to climb the two long flights of steps.

They stated that the county farm is being conducted satisfactorily, that living conditions are sanitary, sleeping quarters comfortable, medical needs met, and wholesome food supplied.

Three indictments returned. The grand jury returned three indictments, one open and two secret, during its term. Returns on the two secret indictments have not been made yet.

Clyde Raymond Spiegel was indicted on a forgery charge involving a $5 check, which he allegedly attempted to cash at the Groceries in October. Stanley Harper and George Wolney pleaded guilty after waiting indictment and were sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. Each case was found to have sufficient funds to cover checks.

Frank Marth, previously indicted on a charge of burglary not in a willing, pleaded guilty, but his case is held pending. This case had to do with the burglary of the Ernest Schoel general merchandise store at Sweet Home last spring.

A not true bill was returned in the case of Fredny, Harold Harisburg, bound over on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The jury was dismissed by Judge L. H. McMahan after filing its report. Floyd D. Jenks was foreman, with the jury including serving were O. L. Engel, Jennie Wilson, Walter Juhnke, J. P. McTimmonds, Clyde Steidel and Arthur McClain.

Peoria Road Finished. Work having been completed on the Peoria-Lake Creek market road near Halsey, the big steam shovel used in the work has been moved to the Aldrich gravel plant near Riverside.

Work has now been started on re-graveling several miles of the road in that community. This road goes from Albany through Riverside, to Corvallis, while the Peoria-Lake Creek road is a section of the Harrisburg-Corvallis river road in Linn county.

Football Banquet Held at Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Dec. 7.—The annual football banquet, commencing Monmouth high school players, occurred Friday night at the Evangelical church. The event, an annual affair, is sponsored by the junior and senior girls. Sixty-five were present this year. Mrs. Clay Egelston, wife of the coach, acted as mistress of ceremonies.

Speakers included: Martha Mae Blair, president of the senior class; George Murdock, utility man of the team; Coach Egelston; Helen Hutchinson, representing the junior class; and Principal F. M. Roth. Constance Riddell pleased with a violin number, accompanied at piano by Rosalie Chambers. Singing of school songs was another program feature.

Holiday Motif Featured In Methodist Women's Silver Tea at Turner

TURNER, Dec. 7.—The Methodist Ladies' Aid society held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. F. C. Gunning Friday afternoon, with Mrs. L. M. Small and Mrs. H. S. Bond assistant hostesses. The Christmas motif was featured in decorations. The Christmas story was told by Mrs. Bond. Mrs. Gunning and Mrs. Bond put on an amateur broadcast from station MELA, giving songs, talks and a Merry Christmas greeting.

Sues Aimee

Latest chapter in the eventful career of Aimee Temple McPherson, much-publicized Los Angeles evangelist, came when she was sued for $1,000,000 by another evangelist, Rhea Crawford Spilano, above, who charged her with slander.

Modernism Marks Christmas Card Designs

Modernistic designs mark many of the new Christmas cards which offer an unusual variety of colors, formalized treatment and elimination of detail. Gone are the days of cubistic extravaganzas and angular motifs, however. Many of the old favorite symbols such as Santa Claus, the reindeer and sleigh and flickering candles shining to the stars are once more popular. The verses on holiday greeting notes this season are more religious in tone and the cynical wisecracks are outmoded.

Hospital Employee Buys Davis Tract

TURNER, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Dolly Demet has purchased a small acreage of the Cornial A. Davis estate, on the Turner-Marion road east of the O. P. Given home. A small house has been erected which will soon be ready for occupancy. Mrs. Demet is employed at the tuberculosis hospital. She with her daughter Grace drove out from Montana about a year ago.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Farris. Mrs. E. J. Harrison will present a lesson on alcohol education. Mrs. Charles Sias is disposing of her household goods and will soon leave for Grangeville, Idaho, to make her home with her son, Fev. Hubert E. Sias.

Turkey Catcher Is Minus Bird But Not Several Reminders

SILVERTON, Dec. 7.—C. J. Towe caught a turkey at Silvertown's holiday opening Saturday but doesn't know what became of it. Just as he caught it something happened and Towe was accidentally knocked out. Some one relieved him of the turkey.

Pythian Sisters Select Officers

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 7.—The Willamette Valley Temple No. 45 Independence Pythian Sisters elected officers for the new year at their meeting Thursday night. Past chief, Mrs. Will Woods, grand protector, of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon; most excellent chief, Anna Fisher; excellent senior, Beulah Bowen; excellent junior, Mrs. Dorothy Hansen; manager, Mrs. Mary Reynolds; mistress of finance, Mrs. Birdie Holt; mistress of correspondence, Mrs. Ella Baker; protector, Mrs. Rahana Becken; and guard, Mrs. Lois Guild.

World Wide Guild Girls Conduct Vesper Service

MONMOUTH, Dec. 7.—Twelve members of the World Wide guild presented a vesper service Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, as part of the nation-wide guild vesper service program. Following the service, the girls enjoyed a social hour in the guild rooms. Miss Edith Clark, guild leader, presided, and was assisted by Mrs. F. R. Bowersox at the social hour.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 7.—The Jolly Time Quilting club met at the Elmer Rierison home Thursday for an all day meeting and quilting for Mrs. Rierison. Guests for the day were Mrs. Elsie Rice and Miss Etta Rice. The next meeting will be a Christmas party on the 22d either at Mrs. Homer Harrison's or Mrs. W. F. Sexton's home.

Methodists to Observe Church Night Tomorrow; Townsend Meet Called

JEFFERSON, Dec. 7.—The regular meeting of Jefferson Township club will be held at the Masonic hall Thursday at 8 p. m. A business meeting and an interesting program will be presented. A covered-dish luncheon will be served.

Artisans Hold Social Evening and Card Play At J. Vandehey's Home

WOODBURN, Dec. 7.—A number of Woodburn Artisans met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vandehey Sunday night for a social gathering. Seven tables of "500" were in play with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Theodore Nebel for the women and to Clarence Bonney for the men and prizes for second high going to Mrs. William Braswell and Joseph Kux. The Artisans will hold the next regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night.

Turkey Catcher Is Minus Bird But Not Several Reminders

SILVERTON, Dec. 7.—C. J. Towe caught a turkey at Silvertown's holiday opening Saturday but doesn't know what became of it. Just as he caught it something happened and Towe was accidentally knocked out. Some one relieved him of the turkey.

Pythian Sisters Select Officers

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 7.—The Willamette Valley Temple No. 45 Independence Pythian Sisters elected officers for the new year at their meeting Thursday night. Past chief, Mrs. Will Woods, grand protector, of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon; most excellent chief, Anna Fisher; excellent senior, Beulah Bowen; excellent junior, Mrs. Dorothy Hansen; manager, Mrs. Mary Reynolds; mistress of finance, Mrs. Birdie Holt; mistress of correspondence, Mrs. Ella Baker; protector, Mrs. Rahana Becken; and guard, Mrs. Lois Guild.

World Wide Guild Girls Conduct Vesper Service

MONMOUTH, Dec. 7.—Twelve members of the World Wide guild presented a vesper service Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, as part of the nation-wide guild vesper service program. Following the service, the girls enjoyed a social hour in the guild rooms. Miss Edith Clark, guild leader, presided, and was assisted by Mrs. F. R. Bowersox at the social hour.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 7.—The Jolly Time Quilting club met at the Elmer Rierison home Thursday for an all day meeting and quilting for Mrs. Rierison. Guests for the day were Mrs. Elsie Rice and Miss Etta Rice. The next meeting will be a Christmas party on the 22d either at Mrs. Homer Harrison's or Mrs. W. F. Sexton's home.

Methodists to Observe Church Night Tomorrow; Townsend Meet Called

JEFFERSON, Dec. 7.—The regular meeting of Jefferson Township club will be held at the Masonic hall Thursday at 8 p. m. A business meeting and an interesting program will be presented. A covered-dish luncheon will be served.

Artisans Hold Social Evening and Card Play At J. Vandehey's Home

WOODBURN, Dec. 7.—A number of Woodburn Artisans met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vandehey Sunday night for a social gathering. Seven tables of "500" were in play with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Theodore Nebel for the women and to Clarence Bonney for the men and prizes for second high going to Mrs. William Braswell and Joseph Kux. The Artisans will hold the next regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night.

Turkey Catcher Is Minus Bird But Not Several Reminders

SILVERTON, Dec. 7.—C. J. Towe caught a turkey at Silvertown's holiday opening Saturday but doesn't know what became of it. Just as he caught it something happened and Towe was accidentally knocked out. Some one relieved him of the turkey.

Pythian Sisters Select Officers

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 7.—The Willamette Valley Temple No. 45 Independence Pythian Sisters elected officers for the new year at their meeting Thursday night. Past chief, Mrs. Will Woods, grand protector, of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon; most excellent chief, Anna Fisher; excellent senior, Beulah Bowen; excellent junior, Mrs. Dorothy Hansen; manager, Mrs. Mary Reynolds; mistress of finance, Mrs. Birdie Holt; mistress of correspondence, Mrs. Ella Baker; protector, Mrs. Rahana Becken; and guard, Mrs. Lois Guild.

World Wide Guild Girls Conduct Vesper Service

MONMOUTH, Dec. 7.—Twelve members of the World Wide guild presented a vesper service Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, as part of the nation-wide guild vesper service program. Following the service, the girls enjoyed a social hour in the guild rooms. Miss Edith Clark, guild leader, presided, and was assisted by Mrs. F. R. Bowersox at the social hour.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Dec. 7.—The Jolly Time Quilting club met at the Elmer Rierison home Thursday for an all day meeting and quilting for Mrs. Rierison. Guests for the day were Mrs. Elsie Rice and Miss Etta Rice. The next meeting will be a Christmas party on the 22d either at Mrs. Homer Harrison's or Mrs. W. F. Sexton's home.

Methodists to Observe Church Night Tomorrow; Townsend Meet Called

JEFFERSON, Dec. 7.—The regular meeting of Jefferson Township club will be held at the Masonic hall Thursday at 8 p. m. A business meeting and an interesting program will be presented. A covered-dish luncheon will be served.

Artisans Hold Social Evening and Card Play At J. Vandehey's Home

WOODBURN, Dec. 7.—A number of Woodburn Artisans met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vandehey Sunday night for a social gathering. Seven tables of "500" were in play with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Theodore Nebel for the women and to Clarence Bonney for the men and prizes for second high going to Mrs. William Braswell and Joseph Kux. The Artisans will hold the next regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night.

Knights Initiate 22 New Members

Largest Class in Recent Years Is Received at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 7.—Mt. Angel council of the Knights of Columbus initiated 22 new members, the largest class in recent years, here at the Mt. Angel auditorium Sunday.

The initiation was part of an all-day program. The entire body of Knights and candidates attended the 9:30 mass at St. Mary's Catholic church and received holy communion. Immediately after services breakfast was served to the candidates in the dining hall of St. Mary's school.

The initiation began promptly at 11:30 a. m. and continued until 4:40 p. m. The banquet, to which all the Knights and their women were invited, was held in St. Mary's dining hall at 5 p. m.

Dr. F. A. Belling of Mt. Angel was toastmaster. Speakers included Rev. Fr. Alcum, Otto Smith of Klamath Falls, George Wilhelm of Eugene, Rev. Richard Carberry, coach of St. Mary's high school, Eugene, Tom Windishar and Chris Neitling, grand knights of the Salem and Sublimity councils, Ed Bell of Stayton state advocate, John Beyer, local grand knight, and Mrs. Frank Aman, grand regent of the local Catholic Daughters of America. Fred Galer spoke in behalf of the newly initiated members.

Alex Scharbach's orchestra played during the dinner. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Ursula Keber. There were also several accordion selections by Harold Domagalla of Salem.

Wide Variety of Animals Comes Under Student Eye

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 7.—Skulls of mice, rats, and other animals—3000 of them—have been cleaned and cataloged in the biological research laboratory at the University of Oregon under the direction of Dr. R. Huestis, zoology professor. The specimens will be available for work in taxonomy, the study of classification, and ecology.

Stars Entertain for Charity

Latest innovation in the film colony is the charity party, each week a star-playing hostess to other celebrities and the proceeds going to charity. Among those present at a recent affair were, left to right, Virginia Bruce, Dolores Del Rio, the hostess; Anita Louise and Joan Bennett.

Entire Country Will Hear U. O. Orchestra Music

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 7.—A radio broadcast of the University of Oregon symphony orchestra from the music auditorium here over the coast-to-coast network is being arranged with National Broadcasting company officials, it was announced by Hal Young, professor of voice. The program, which will be relayed from Eugene to Portland by private wire, and there on to the network will be presented some time in January.

The half-hour program will be opened by Wilhelm Van Hoogstraten, director of the Portland symphony orchestra, who will give a short talk from Portland on music in the universities. He was made a doctor of music at the University of Oregon in 1926.

Featured on the program will be several numbers by the University symphony orchestra, with Mr. Young and others as soloists. The orchestra of 65 pieces is regarded as especially outstanding this year, especially in the woodwind and string sections.

Dallas Streets Assume Holiday Dress and Color

DALLAS, Dec. 7.—Christmas decorations are rapidly being put in place on the downtown streets of Dallas. Colored light streamers have been put up at the street intersections and greenery has been placed on the ornamental light posts. A large Christmas tree was put up on the courthouse lawn yesterday by the Dallas firemen and has been decorated with colored lights. Many of the stores are putting up colored lights on the store fronts.

N. L. Guy, C. L. Crider, and Maurice Dalton are on a special committee for the street decorations and the home lighting contest.

Jefferson Man Injured In Mix With Milk Cow

JEFFERSON, Dec. 7.—E. B. Redmond was severely bruised when kicked by a cow while attempting to milk her. In order to milk the heifer Redmond had to place hobbles on her. While he was milking, a cat frightened the cow and she jumped, knocking Redmond over. He was struck on the shoulder and the left arm with the hobble chains and then kicked by the cow.

Madsens Are Hosts

BRUSH CREEK, Dec. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Madsen of Hillsboro, formerly of Silvertown, were hosts at Sunday dinner to Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Lillie Madsen, Althea Meyer, Alice Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hattberg, Nettie Hattberg, William Hattberg and Harold Larson.

DRS. THOMPSON & GLITCH'S YOUR EYES Have You Checked Up on Them Lately? They change from various causes. OPTOMETRISTS 312 STATE

I Tumble to 'Em - Buddy, I can't pay a higher compliment than that. Girl or cigarette... when I tumble that means I'm for 'em. Chesterfield's my cigarette. And I'll tell all hands they've got a hearty good taste that makes a sailor happy. And listen, they're milder. ... for the good things a cigarette can give a sailor. I'll sign up with Chesterfields.