Teacher Gives Memorial In Mother's Name

When Mrs. Ina Gilbert, a teacher of Broadman, Oregon, decided to give a reading machine to some blind woman as a memorial to her mother, Mrs. Anna E. Taylor, she put the selection of the one to receive the gift in the hands of Superintendent Gamble of the school for the blind in Portland. Mrs. Anna V. Robbins of Route 4, Salem, was chosen to receive the reading machine that was presented in the name of Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Robbins is able to have not only late music but books that are read by the machine. Mrs. Seymour Jones has just returned from a 4 weeks stay on the Double V ranch near Santa Rosa, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Robert Woodville.

How Long Can a Three-Quarter Wife Hold Her Husband?

YOU have to work at marriage to make a success of it. Men may be selfish, unsympathetic, but that's the way they're made and you might as well realize it. When your back aches and your nerves scream, don't take it out on your husband. He can't possibly know how you feel. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "ambling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three orders of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age." Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

Several Clubs Are Feted Today At Luncheons

Mrs. Minton Is Given Farewell Dinner

Mrs. Emma Minton, who left Friday to make her home in Los Angeles was entertained by members of the Woman's Alliance at the country home of Mrs. Roy Burton recently. Those who attended the farewell dinner were Mrs. C. L. Hamilton, Mrs. John Pollock, Mrs. F. A. Well, Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Zero Polaire, Mrs. Grace Hatton, Mrs. Hallie Hinges, Mrs. Helen Goodenough and Mrs. Roy Burton. Mrs. Minton, who lived at Hood and 5th streets for 45 years, will reside in a new home in Los Angeles built for her by her two sons who also live in the California city.

Ham Cooks With Apples In Casserole Dish

Apple sauce and ham are ideally suited to make a casserole dish. Simmer a ham, but first remove to cover, allowing 20 minutes to the pound. Let cool in the same water. Make a quart of apple sauce and add 1 cup brown sugar, and 1/2 teaspoon cloves (ground). Remove rind from meat, put in a baking-dish, cover flat surface of ham with apple sauce and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes. Serve either hot or cold.

Leftover Bread Heated With Beef Roast

Using leftover bread as an accompaniment for meat is a practical suggestion from economical mid-western cooks in a book published some time ago. The recipe says to crumble bread to crumbs, add salt, pepper and an egg, then moisten with sweet milk and make into small balls. Lay these in the pan with the beef roast so the fat

With Salem Folk at O.S.C.

With finals in the offing and next weekend a closed one, students entered into the social whirl with much enthusiasm. The first big all-school formal affair, the Sophomore Cotillion, was held Saturday evening to the music of Johnny Busch and his swing band. A large ultra-modern band platform towering half way to the ceiling was used to portray the dance moderne theme. At one end of the ballroom a unique bar was erected at which punch was served throughout the evening. Looking handsome in white ties and tails were Orville Varty, Ed Fronk, and Bob Brownell; and swaying lightly to the modern rhythms we saw Shirley Cronmiller, demurely dressed in flowered taffeta; Frances Doolittle, radiant in rose moire; Gretchen Gerner, looking stunning in black velvet; and Alice Dobell, attractive in blue taffeta trimmed with dabbonette velvet ribbon.

"Laburnum Grove", the first play of the season, was presented by the Mask and Dagger Dramatic club Thursday and Friday evenings. Salemites in attendance were Dorothy Williams, Maxine Gahldorf, Bonnie Baldoek, Cleo Ritzer, and Margaret Gillette who motored down from Salem.

The regular meeting of the presidents of the women's living groups was held Monday in the Memorial Union Tea room. Cleo Ritzer, president of Alpha Chi Omega and Mary Lois Driggs, president of Kappa Delta attended.

With King Football passing out of the picture until next year we want to mention that Don Coons, who gained his berth on the first team late in the season, will return to his old place.

Basketball fever is getting us again. We notice that various boys who were outstanding in high school basketball are making a place for themselves in college basketball also. The Wintermute, the well-known forward, was changed to the position of guard last week in order to secure the needed drive for the Orange varsity. Phil Salstrom, a freshman in agriculture, has earned attention for his performance in early-season Rook basketball. Delmar Gwyn figured prominently in the Sigma Nu bid for championship in intramural basketball. The victory was snatched from the Sigma Nu basket heavers by a 17 to 16 tally in a thrilling struggle that had the fans wild with excitement throughout the tilt. Bern Glaisyer, a bulwark in defense for the Phi Dels, sprained his ankle in a pile-up on the floor this week and will be out of play for a short while.

Outstanding girls in archery making a score of 500 points for 90 arrows were appointed on a committee to organize an Archery club on the campus. Salem girls awarded this honor were Margaret Kaster and Frances Doolittle.

The local chapter of Eta Kappa Nu, national honor society in electrical engineering, announced the pledging of Phil Brownell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fruit growers held a three-day convocation on the campus this last week for discussion of problems of general interest to both commercial and private growers. Five prominent growers were appointed to represent the group in all matters directly concerning them. W. J. Langford of Salem was made a member of this committee.

Fillings Disguise Quick Bread Biscuit Variations Make Almost a Whole Book Of Recipes

Today's Menu

Let's have an old family favorite for dinner tonight, and include baked potatoes, biscuits and creamed chipped beef. Here's the whole meal: Celery root salad Creamed chipped beef Baked potatoes Biscuits Fried parsnips Orange shortcake

GOOD old baking powder biscuits may be varied in so many ways. One manufacturer of ready-made biscuit mix has even written a booklet of variations of this one quick bread. My files yield many ways to vary baking powder biscuits. Here's a basic recipe: BAKING POWDER BISCUITS 2 cups flour 1/2 cup shortening 1/2 teaspoon salt 4 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 cup milk For these biscuits use the same recipe but with 1/4 cup sharp grated cheese and using only 2 tablespoons of shortening. For another cheese biscuit try PIMENTO ROLLS Make regular biscuit dough, roll out. Heat 2 packages pimento cheese and a little butter in top of double boiler, spread on biscuits, put together closed in a pan. Bake 45 degrees for 15 to 18 minutes. Another fancy biscuit is this sweet one: MARMALADE BISCUITS Cut 4 inch squares of dough, cover half with marmalade, fold over and bake. Pierce top with a fork before baking. The sweetness of butterscotch is in BUTTERSOTCH BISCUITS Cream 1/3 cup butter and 1/2 cup brown sugar. Spread on dough and roll like jelly roll. Cut, stand pieces on end and bake. To make cinnamon rolls of regular biscuit dough, try this recipe: CINNAMON ROLLS Mix a paste of canned milk, sugar and cinnamon to taste. Spread on biscuit dough and roll, cut and bake. Other recipes for biscuit variations are: HONEY NUT BISCUITS Use a regular biscuit dough—spread a mixture of 1/2 cup honey, 1/2 cup butter and 1/2 cup chopped nuts and roll. Cut and bake. ORANGE SPICE BISCUITS To regular biscuit dough add 1 teaspoon mixed spices; when done brush with maple syrup, sprinkle with a mixture of 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1/2 cup brown sugar and brown again.

Two Recipes For Main Dishes Are Given

OUT at the Leslie Methodist church basar last week I saw several things of especial interest and during a conversation with Mrs. S. M. Laws I learned two extra good recipes. Walnuts, popular back yard product in many Salem homes, makes an excellent meat-like loaf according to Mrs. Laws who often makes the recipe. Sage makes a meaty flavor, the nuts give the right consistency. It's a good recipe to use home grown walnuts. WALNUT LOAF 2 cups bread crumbs 1 cup walnuts 2 small onions 1 carrot 2 eggs salt, pepper sprinkling of sage Mix and add enough milk to make moist but not soggy (about 2 cups). Bake in a loaf for 45 minutes to an hour. Put in a pan of hot water if wanted. This loaf makes excellent stuffing for a roast fowl. Another recipe that came from the same source is for: SPARERIBS CHINESE To 3 1/2 pounds of boiled spareribs, that have been browned in a shallow pan add 1/2 cup vinegar, 3 tablespoons sugar, 4 tablespoons soy sauce and cook until the gravy is rich and brown. Sometimes the Chinese add cubes of pineapple to the gravy and glaze along with the meat, and drippings flavor them while cooking.

Knit Wear Even More Tailored

Hand knits are going even more tailored this year, and evidently are continuing in high style. Dresses, blouses (not so much like sweaters any more) and even suits make their appearance every place that late styles are shown. Wider variety in stitches are constantly being worked out, and manufacturers of yarn are reasonably sure that this will be a bigger and better knitted Christmas.

GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals. Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system. Some years ago, an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. 98 per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Just eat two tablespoons daily, either as cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
