

P. T. A. Approves Plans For School

Action Comes After Knott Discusses Remodeling Proposition

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 10.—The Parent-Teachers' association met in the high school auditorium Monday afternoon and went on record in support of the movement to remodel the high school. The high school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Loren Mort, played two selections; Delbert Taylor played a harmonica solo; Mrs. Lex Wheeler gave an interesting report on "Reading as a Hobby of Mine"; Mrs. M. J. Butler, accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Elliott, sang two delightful numbers; Miss Mary Donaldson, principal of the training school told the parents about the new report blanks to be sent out this year.

Tells School Plans
Dr. George C. Knott told of the school board's plans for remodeling and adding an addition to the present high school plant. The plan involving a $40,000 project, $22,000 to be voted on at the bond issue to be held at the high school Monday, December 14, from 2 to 7 p. m., and $18,000 to be a federal grant from the government.

The hostesses for the tea hour were Mrs. Claude G. Skinner, Mrs. James H. Hart, Mrs. Elmer Barnhart and Mrs. Carrie Smiley. Mrs. Paul E. Robinson, president of the P. T. A. announced Dr. D. V. Poling, of the board of higher education, would speak at the "Guest Night" meeting to be held at the training school on January 4.

Dallas Rural Club and Pioneer Sewing Group Plan Joint Festivity

PIONEER, Dec. 10.—The Dallas community club and the Pioneer sewing club will hold a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Mark Blodgett Thursday, December 17. This will be a Christmas exchange with an appropriate program. The hostess has offered a prize for the most original home made present. Several children of this community have been suffering from serious sickness the past week. Dickie Keller has been seriously ill with pneumonia but is improved. George Curtis has been sick with intestinal flu. Carol Coy had a serious attack of pneumonia the first of this week but is slowly improving. Jimmie Coy is also sick. Shirley Keller was unable to go to school several days this week.

Henry's Return From Long Trip

ZENA, Dec. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry of Zena who left here November 23 on a pleasure trip returned Monday. The Henrys spent Thanksgiving with Rev. and Mrs. Louis Randle and family at San Anselmo, Marin county, Calif. Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Randle are sisters. While there they went over to San Francisco, crossing the Oakland bridge.

After leaving San Anselmo, Mr. and Mrs. Henry spent two nights in Los Angeles and other places of interest including a visit to the oldest mission in California. They went as far south as Escondido, Mexico, where cactus abounds and much desert country was noted. Coming back they stopped for a short visit with W. H. Morris and family at Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry said that it is much easier to proceed from the signs on the Oregon highways than those of California and that though the irrigated districts of California are beautiful, the arid country spoiled it for them. They traveled 2900 miles.

Martin P. Pruitt Called by Death

CORVALLIS, Dec. 10.—Martin P. Pruitt, a resident of Corvallis since 1900, died at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning at the family home on South 11th street. Mr. Pruitt, who was born at Santa Rosa, Calif., February 13, 1863, was the son of Peter and Martha Pruitt, early Oregon pioneers who came to locate at Brownsville when Mr. Pruitt was three years of age.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Emma Pruitt, and four sons and one daughter, Victor Pruitt, Corvallis; George, of Halsey; Glen and Cecil and Mrs. Dorothy Winters of Los Angeles, Calif. A sister, Mrs. Vina Welch, lives at Vancouver, Wash., and one brother, Charles Pruitt, at Mallin, Oregon.

The funeral service will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Hollingsworth funeral home. Dr. Edward J. Harper of the Madison Street Methodist church will officiate. Interment is at Oak Lawn Memorial park.

Star Designed To Top Town's Tree, Silverton

SILVERTON, Dec. 10.—A huge cast iron star will throw its light in four directions from the top of the community Christmas tree within the next week's time.

The star was designed by E. A. Boesch, president of the 4-L organization, and Arthur Peterson. The design was carried out by Fred Lawes and Ted Finlay who did the wiring.

The tree will be set up early next week and lighted each evening until after the holidays.
