Corn Market Collapses, Dragging Other Grains Down Also

205 Carloads Arrive in Day

Stop Loss Selling Is Held Main Cause of Drop of 2 Cents

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.-(AP)-Collapsing to an extreme of 2 1/2 cents a bushel overnight loss, the corn market today dragged all other grains down, wheat 1% cents

Stop loss selling on the part of holders of December corn contracts was an outstanding circumstance. Arrivals of corn in Chicago today were of liberal volume. 205 cars, almost equaling the total a year ago, and notices were posted that some corn would be delivered tomorrow on December

Wheat Down Cent At the close, corn was %-21/8 lower compared with yesterday's finish, Dec. 1.07%-% May new 1.02%-%, July new 98%; wheat unchanger to 1 cent down, Dec. 1.27 %-%, May 1.23 %-1/2, July 1.09 %-1/2; oats 1/4-1/2 off, May 48%-%, and rye unchanged to 1/4 decline, May 99%. Provisions results were unchanged to 17 cents

In provisions, foreign buying lifted lard to new peak prices, but reactions ensued owing to cottonseed oil price downturns.

Factories Slack In Wool Buying

BOSTON, Dec. 11-(AP)-The commercial bulletin will say tomor-

"Although there is less eagerness on the part of manufacturers to acquire wool, there still is a fair business being done, which comprehends about all descriptions of wool, with prices firm on all fine descriptions and rather against the buyer on medium 'Western contracting is at a standstill. Foreign markets are steadier and clearances are good. America is taking considerable weights of wool in the foreign primary markets. Mohair is in limited supply and very firm." Quotations: scoured basis: Ore-
