Last Rites Held For Marie Baker

Mrs. Marie Baker, wife of E. L. Baker, well known farmer of the Suver community died in the Salem general hospital at Salem Saturday at 5:30 a. m., following a brief illness.

Mrs. Baker was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, March 29, 1857. While she was a young girl she moved with her parents to Covington, Kentucky, where she grew to young womanhood and received her education. It was there she was married to Jack Geisbeck and soon afterward the young couple came west to Oregon and located at Albany where she lived for several years. To this union were born five children, all of whom survive. They are: Miss Katherine Geisbeck, San Francisco; Miss Betty Geisbeck, Portland; Mr. Ed Geisbeck, Shedd, and Lester and John Geisbeck, Bly, Oregon. She is also survived by her husband, E. L. Baker, to whom she was married September 14, 1935, and by two brothers, William Gieson, Covington, Kentucky and Henry Gieson, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The remains were taken to the Keeney Funeral Home in Corvallis and funeral services under their direction were held in the German Lutheran church in Albany Monday morning, with interment in the family plot in the L. O. O. F. cemetery in Albany.
