Wheat Tumbles From 7-Year Peak for Loss of Nearly 6 Cents

December Is Worst Loser

Rumor of Reducing Import Duties Jars Market; Rye Down Too

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 .- (AP)-Jarred by apparently unfounded rumors the United States will reduce wheat import duties, wheat late today fell almost 6 cents from a 7-

The provisions outcome was 15 to 50 cents bulge.

Tumbles From Peak

From a peak of $1.43 a bushel, the highest for any wheat future here since 1926, December wheat plunged down at the last to $1.37-14, and closed at that level with May and July showing net losses of 1 to 1 % cents.

Rye, corn and oats chiefly followed wheat. December corn was offered freely throughout the day. In the main, provisions reflected record December high prices
