

Install Officers Of Star Chapter

Banquet Attended by 41 Is
Mill City

MILL CITY, Jan. 7.—Marilyn chapter, O. E. S., held a special meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night to install officers for 1937. At 6:30 o'clock a dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church. Forty-one members and friends were seated at a table beautifully decorated with blue and silver.

After the dinner the meeting was called to order by Worthy Matron Vivian Albert, who was escorted to the east and presented a bouquet from her officers. Mrs. Albert acted as installing matron, assisted by Mary Kelly, Mrs. V. Clarke, Mrs. Louise Grafo and Mrs. Helen Kimmel.

Those officers were installed: Worthy matron, Bessie Allen; worthy patron, Harold Aspinwall; associate matron, Edith Schroeder; associate patron, Sig Jensen; secretary, Daisy Henderson; conductress, Mary Heydon; associate conductress, Edith Aspinwall; Ada conductress, Edith Aspinwall; Ada, Virginia Foran; Esther, Mildred Allen; Martha, Genevieve Scott; warden, Virginia Kelly; sentinel, D. B. Hill.

All were presented with flowers from Bessie Allen, the new worthy matron. A pretty flower drill was given by Mrs. Albert, presenting each point with a bouquet suitable to her color. Mrs. Albert, retiring matron, and Given Gates, retiring patron, were presented with gifts from the chapter.

A short musical program consisted of two violin solos by Mrs. Schythe, accompanied by Miss Grafo; a vocal trio by Mrs. Schythe, Miss Grafo and Miss Behrman, accompanied by Mrs. Schroeder; and a duet by Mrs. Schroeder and Miss Grafo.

Edwin Harrison Is Called Beyond

LEBANON, Jan. 7.—Edwin Harrison, 70, died suddenly at the dinner table at his home near Lacombe January 5. He was born in Ohio, March 3, 1864. He was twice married and with his family came from South Dakota to Lacombe 10 years ago and engaged in farming. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nettie Harrison of Lacombe; one son, Bert Harrison; five daughters, Elsie Edwards at home, Ethel Van Wagner and Nora Welbe of Salem, two daughters in South Dakota and a stepson, Rall Green.

The time of the funeral, which will be at the Harry C. Howe funeral home, will be arranged on arrival of eastern relatives. Burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery of Lebanon.

UNIONVILLE, Jan. 7.—Eight members attended the all-day quilting of the Unionville Evangelical Ladies' Aid held Tuesday at the Aid room.

State Legion Leaders Will Appear At District Conference to Be Held In Mt. Angel Thursday, January 21

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 7.—Plans for the district conference to be held at Mt. Angel, Thursday, January 21, was the main issue of the meetings of both the Legion and Auxiliary Tuesday night.

There is to be both an afternoon and evening meeting. The meeting in the afternoon will be for members only, the one in the evening will be open to the public. Roy Davenport of Silverton, district commander of the Legion, and Mrs. Otella Mardis of Dallas, district president of the Auxiliary, will preside at the conference. The state officers, Guy Cordon, state commander; Moss Palmateer, state vice-commander; Mrs. Blanche Jones, state president, and Mrs. Mae Waters, state vice-president, will also be present.

Clinic Is Activity
The auxiliary will sponsor a pre-school clinic again this year. The clinic has been set for Tuesday, January 12, in the music room of St. Mary's school and all mothers are urged to bring their children who have not yet attained school age. Dr. E. E. Berg, county health officer, will be in charge. The membership contest between Mrs. Tillie Walker and Mrs. Ethyl Wills was won by Mrs. Walker.

Dale Herigstad Is Brought Home

SCOTTS MILLS, Jan. 7.—Friends of Mrs. George Haynes will be glad to know that she is improving after a long and critical illness at the Silverton hospital.

Dale Herigstad, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Herigstad, who broke his leg New Year's eve, was brought home from the hospital Sunday. At present he and his mother and father are ill with influenza.

James James Doty, who died near Salem last week, was an old-time resident of the Crooked Finger district.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herigstad and family returned Sunday from a visit to Seattle and Everett. Miss Violet Herigstad, local music teacher, also spent the weekend in Seattle where she was a maid of honor at a wedding.

Mrs. L. W. Margee is suffering from blood poisoning in her hand.

Woman's Club to Meet At Silverton Library; Mrs. Latham in Charge

SILVERTON, Jan. 7.—The public library will be the meeting place of the Silverton Women's club Monday night with Mrs. H. B. Latham, chairman of the library board, will be in charge of the program. The library and its work will be featured. Mrs. E. G. Benson, Alice Jensen and Miss Lillian Madsen will each speak briefly. Members of the Junior Women's club will be guests for the evening.

Miss Rachel Jamison was guest speaker at the Junior Women's club meeting Monday night. Miss Jamison contrasted home life in Scotland and America. The meeting was held at the R. F. Larson home.

Citizenship Given Native at Albany

ALBANY, Jan. 7.—Two were admitted to citizenship in Judge L. C. Lovell's court Monday, when naturalization papers were granted Elias Robert Berriek, a native of Canada, and Martha Jane Bailey. The case of Mrs. Riley was a peculiar one. Born in the United States and never outside its boundaries, she became the wife of a Canadian several years ago and as a result became a citizen of that country. In order to regain her citizenship in her native country she had to apply for naturalization papers.

For want of prosecution, in the same court, eight cases were dismissed by the judge. They were: Pacific Savings and Loan association vs. J. R. Cartwright, et al; petition in the case of Naomi Jackson et al vs. Martin Burkhardt et al; specific performance, A. A. Fletcher vs. John L. Gatliff et al; to quiet title, Oliver E. Gaudin vs. J. C. Fife et al; accounting, Cora C. Johnson adm. vs. estate of Elizabeth Smith, deceased, vs. George Smith and Dennis Smith; injunction, O. M. and M. S. Thompson vs. F. R. Wire, game supervisors, T. R. Rodman, an officer of the game division and O. E. Sox, district attorney; foreclosure, St. John's lodge, A. F. & A. M., a corporation, vs. George L. Boyden et al; to set aside a deed, N. C. O. Lowe, administrator of the estate of Emma Sanders vs. Ethel McDonald, et al.

changed to exclude their lands from the proposed irrigation district; the board agreed to their petition which excludes 1500 acres of land; leaving 1500 in the proposed irrigation project.

Land Is Excluded From Irrigation Project, Lacombe

LEBANON, Jan. 7.—At a meeting of the irrigation board at the Lacombe hall Tuesday night, Attorney F. D. Mayer of Lebanon presented a petition for a group who asked that the boundaries be Warren Gill was host Monday night to a group of 18 Lebanon friends at a covered dish dinner at the Gill cabin near Cascadia. Funeral services for Martin Goomans, a former Lebanon resident who died in California January 1, were held at the St. Edwards Catholic church Tuesday. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery.
