Tragedy Victim Known

SILVERTON, Jan. 7.—The Crag Kat, Victor Howell, who was killed recently while on a skiing party, was a grandson of Mrs. Lucinda Whorlow of Silverton and a cousin of Bert Reveal.Postoffice in New QuartersMoisan and Gervais Star to Have Larger Space as Result MoveGERVAIS, Jan. 7.—Postmaster Cecil L. Colby moved the postoffice equipment New Year's day to the Leith building at the corner of Main and E streets. Considerable improvements and changes have been made and Gervais now has one of the nicest small postoffices in the county. G. J. Moisan is preparing the space left vacant by the removal of the postoffice for an office for himself and his removal will give the local newspaper, The Gervais Star, room to expand.Earl Dunn is remodeling his garage and is arranging a private office and putting in a parts cabinet.Ross McDougall and Stanley De-Jardin arrived Wednesday from Pontiac, Mich., where they went to drive home a new truck Mr. Mc-Dougall had bought. They left here by train December 18. They spent Christmas day in Pontiac.
The holiday and strike delayed their starting back. They said they encountered quite a lot of snow and cold weather from western Iowa on home and the shipper condition of the road made traveling hard.The F. L. girls club met Tuesday night at the home of Marie Massey for a business meeting.
Mrs. Jack Woods of Hillsboro, state president of the club, was present, accompanied by Gertrude McFarlane of Woodburn. A covered dish supper was served to the large percentage of the membership which was present.Sacred Heart parish held a card party at the parish hall Sunday night when 15 tables of the game were played. Fred Fedschweiler, B. E. Barner and Ruby Gent made high scores in "500" and Mrs. Joe Zellner and Fred Hecker played high in Pedro. Andrew Miller took a special prize. The next party will be held Sunday night, January 17, when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boon will be at the head of the committee in charge.

Grangers' News

CORVALLIS, Jan. 7.—Members of the Mary's River grange of Phil-omath decided to discontinue day meeting when they held their regular meeting Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood will be initiated in the first and second degrees as a feature of the next scheduled meeting.

ROBERTS, Jan. 7.—The Rob-

Mother's Comfort Eases Tragedy

Mrs. Hazel Quinn (left) is shown in this soundphoto comforting her daughter, Mrs. Helen Love, who is being held in Santa Monica, Cal., jail following her arrest for slaying her husband, Harry, when he broke a date with her to celebrate the New Year with his mother. This picture was made shortly after Mrs. Love attempted to hang herself in her cell but was caught by a watchful matron.erta grange orchestra will play for a dance Saturday night at the An-keny grange hall.The home economics club of the Ankeny grange is sponsoring the dance.Civic Groups in
