Nearly Block Is Wiped Out

Trading Post, Merchandise Store, Jones Building Are Destroyed

JEFFERSON, Jan. 12.—Jefferson experienced a $25,000 blaze Monday night, when fire which broke out shortly be fore midnight, completely destroyed almost an entire block in the busi-

Buildings destroyed by the fire included the Jefferson Trading Post, occupied by E. A. Barlow; the general merchandise store of Smith & Fontaine, and the W. L. Jones building. On the first floor of the Jones building was the local teleph ne office, the barber shop, and the Elite confectionery, and the rooms on the second floor were occupied by Mr. Jones.

The fire was discovered by the night operator in the local telephone office, Mrs. Lois Underwood. The fire started in the Jerferson Trading Post, which is the building next door to the telephone office. The buildings were all wooden structures, and in a short time were one mess of flames, which could be seen by residents of surrounding towns.

Some Goods Saved About two truckloads of goods were taken out of the Smith & Fontaine store and into the building across the street, formerly occupied by Knight Bros. garage. Two trucks and a car belonging to C. L. Thurston, which were stored in the Trading Post build-ing, were destroyed by the fire.

All phone communications were impossible, as phone circuits through town were out. Call for assistance was sent to the Albany fire department, and a pumpe and six firemen responded, and with the aid of the local fire department kept the fire from spreading further. The intense heat cracked the plate glass windows in the front of the A. B. Hinz hardware store across the

Jones, Fontaine to Rebuild Temporary headquarters for the local telephone office will be established in the Jefferson library. W. L. Jones and Mr. Fontaine report that they will rebuild

There was no wind at the time of the fire, and some of the roofs of buildings were covered with snow, making it easier for firemen to keep the fire from spreading to other buildings. No one was injured.
