Women's Community Club at Stayton to Hold Tea Next Thursday

STAYTON, Jan. 15.—Walter R. Dry, superintendent of the state blind school will be present with several of his pupils next Thursday afternoon to address members of the Women's community club. A silver tea for the library fund will be a feature of the afternoon. The hostess group includes Mrs. Fred Berger, Mrs. A. C. Van Nypers, Mrs. Amelia Van Ermen, Mrs. Jacob Spaniol and Mrs. J. R. Boitz.

At a joint meeting of the Women's club and the chamber of commerce last Thursday evening at the clubhouse, civic problems were discussed by J. F. Lau, Lee Brown, president of the chamber of commerce talked about adult education. George Smith, mayor of Stayton, presented plans for the improvement of the recently acquired city park.

Need For Gym Told An interesting paper prepared by E. J. Gettmann and read by Mrs. Lau, set forth the need of a gymnasium to accommodate an athletic and recreational program for students and adults.

Members of the Stayton band under the direction of J. F. Lau, presented a number of selections. Miss Clara Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Spaniol, sang two numbers, and Miss Rosella Bell played a piano solo, "I Hear You Calling Me," and Giles Brown as a violin solo played "The Old Refrain." He was accompanied by Kentin Thompson.

The serving table was centered with an attractive arrangement of blue and silver flowers with blue tapers in silver candlesticks. Mrs. H. A. Beauchamp and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp served the tea.
