West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Jan. 20.—The West Salem community club met Monday evening and elected officers. Ray Simbo was elected president; A. F. Goffrier, vice president; and R. E. Pattison re-elected secretary and treasurer. A group of guitar players from Doolittle's service station put on a musical entertainment. Cake and hot coffee sales brought in $3.90 for the treasury.

The teachers in the Ford Memorial Sunday school met Tuesday night with Mrs. Arthur Brown. It was decided to let the Sunday school service run from 5 to 10 minutes past 11 o'clock giving the teachers more time for their class work, as it is impossible for Rev. K. K. Clark to get in from Summit and Oakgrove anyway for the morning preaching service by 11 o'clock. Plans were made for a candy sale to raise money for more maps and bibles for the classes. The superintendent is Kenneth Abbott.

Grangers' Column

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 20.—The H. E. club of Fairfield grange is sponsoring a program, pie social and dance Friday night. Everyone is invited and women are asked to bring pies.

CHEMAWA, Jan. 20.—The Roberts degree team exemplified the first and second degrees in full form at the regular meeting of Chemawa grange Thursday night. A good attendance was present and the degree team, with women filling all offices, did the work in an impressive manner.

The Chemawa Legislative committee presented a resolution which was adopted, asking Senator McNary and Congressman Mott to use their influence in Washington to have the government build transmission lines from Bonneville dam. State Deputy Brown gave a fine talk to the grangers, including in his talk, a report on state grange executive movements and inspiring grangers to be more loyal and interested in grange activities.

Mrs. F. S. McCall arranged the lecturer's hour which consisted of musical selections by the Roberts orchestra, a reading by Fred McCall and each grange officer told of the origin of his office.

Farmer's Union News

MARION, Jan. 20.—Owing to the disagreeable night the attendance was low at the Farmers' union meeting Friday night, however an instructive and enjoyable session was had. Several members discussed economic questions. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan of North Santiam were given the union obligation. Singing was led by Jim Wilson with Mrs. Selmer Lee, pianist.

The Farmers' union dance Saturday night was enjoyed by many members. Music was furnished by the Marion Farmers' union orchestra.

Special Services Set By Churches

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—The First Methodist church will have special services next Sunday night. Miss Sybil Tucker, district worker of the Portland area of the Oregon conference of the Methodist church, will be the guest speaker. Miss Tucker is a specially trained in young people's work and is an interesting speaker.

She will give a talk at the Epworth League meeting and will also speak at the regular Sunday night church service. At the conclusion of the service Miss Tucker will hold a conference for Sunday school workers and young people.

Rev. A. B. Cromwell, pastor of the First Christian church, announces the Polk county Christian Endeavor Union will hold a school at the Christian church for the five next consecutive Wednesday nights, starting tonight.

Dr. Walter Myers will be instructor for the school. Classes are open to anyone interested in youth leadership and there is no fee attached.

DOES BLADDER IRRITATION WAKE YOU UP?

It's not normal. It's nature's warning, "Danger Ahead." Make this 25c test. Use buchu leaves, juniper oil, and 6 other drugs made into little green tablets, to flush out excess acids and impurities. Excess acids can cause irritation resulting in getting up nights, scanty flow, frequent desire, burning, backache, and leg pains. Just say Bukets to your druggist. In four days if not pleased your 25c will be refunded. —Schaefer's Drug Store, Perry's Drug Store.

Legion Meet Event Today

Mt. Angel Post, Auxiliary Hosts to District Gathering

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 20.—The local Legion and auxiliary met in their respective meeting rooms Tuesday night to make final plans for the district conference to be held here Thursday.

There will be a meeting of the presidents and secretaries of the district and any members of the auxiliary who wish to come at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the Mt. Angel auditorium. The meeting for the Legionnaires will likewise be at 2:30 p. m. but will be held in the city hall.

The district officers will preside at both meetings. Mrs. Otella Mardis of Dallas at the auxiliary meeting and Roy Davenport of Silvertown at that of the Legion. Other officials scheduled to be present are Mrs. Mabel McIntuff, state secretary; Mrs. Blanche Jones, state president; Mrs. Mae Waters, state vice-president; Guy Gordon, state commander; and Mose Palmateer, state vice-commander.

At 8:30 p. m. there will be a banquet for members of both organizations in St. Mary's school dining hall.

Mass Meeting is Open
A mass meeting and program to which all the public is invited will begin at 8 p. m. Speakers will include the state commander and president and Father Alcun.

The matter of giving another dance at the Monitor hall was brought up at the auxiliary meeting but laid on the table as present weather conditions seemed anything but propitious.

The Legion shoots have proved so successful that the post has undertaken a merchandise shoot to be held at the Karl Ertel farm sometime in February. No definite date has been set. Appointed on the committee are Cletus Butsch, Frank Durschmidt and Frank Walker.

Post is Over Top
Last night's meeting showed the Mt. Angel post over the top in membership.

Ralph Hook was commissioned to purchase grave markers for the ex-service men buried in local cemeteries.

After the adjournment of the meetings the members visited the Unger funeral parlors to pay respect to the remains of Henry Annen, husband of Mrs. Keller-Annen, gold star mother and member of the local unit.

ZENA, Jan. 20.—Mrs. W. Frank Crawford motored to Corvallis Tuesday afternoon to bring her daughter, Miss Hilda, home as she had contracted a case of flu and the newly built infirmary, which is large, is full of flu patients. Miss Hilda is a Oregon State college student.

Liquor Proposal Tabled By Dads

DALLAS, Jan. 20.—The proposed ordinance prohibition sale of intoxicating liquor here from 1 a. m. Sunday until 7 a. m. Monday was tabled at the Monday night session of the city council.

A resolution was adopted by the council asking that the present legislature provide to cities of Oregon for street purposes a share in the gross revenue of the highway commission. The request is for 5 per cent in 1937, 6 per cent in 1938, 7 per cent in 1940 and 7 1/2 per cent thereafter. Distribution according to ratio of population is asked.

The quarterly report of the Dallas water board was given which showed that two more of the $1000 bonds were paid during the last three months.

Community Clubs

BETHEL, Jan. 20.—Dr. David Bennett Hill of Salem will show nearly two hours of moving pictures with descriptive lectures at the community club meeting here Friday night. Subjects to be shown include health, travel, sports, Glacier National park, and animal funnies for the children. Everyone is welcome.

MEHAMA, Jan. 20.—Barney Kirsch and Charles Day, entertained the members of the community club at a card party in the schoolhouse Saturday night. Four tables of cards were in play with high score going to Julius Titze and low score to Blanche Wagner. The next meeting of the club will be February 6, with Mrs. Floyd Monroe, Mrs. R. A. Mason and Mrs. Jim Stockwell on the entertainment committee and Ruth Moe and Mrs. Walt Bevier in charge of the refreshments.

Carnival Is Slated

HAYESVILLE, Jan. 20.—At the regular meeting of the community club at the school house Friday night, the members voted to hold a carnival at the school Friday night, January 29. A supper will be served from 6:30 to 7:30 under direction of Mrs. E. L. Moor, Mrs. V. Clark, Mrs. T. Rae, and Mrs. A. Stetler.

The principal speaker will be Art Kirkham, announcer over KOIN. Other attractions will also be provided. Proceeds from the carnival are to be turned over to the hot lunch committee.

World's Oldest Choral Group Will Sing at State College January 26 When Vienna Choir Boys Perform

Corvallis, Jan. 20.—(Special)—Corvallis, Jan. 19.—(Special)—Music lovers of Corvallis and nearby towns will gather January 26 at 8 o'clock at the college men's gymnasium to hear 26 members of the Vienna choir boys, the oldest choral organization in the world, perform operettas in costume.

Tickets may be had by writing Percy Lacey, assistant to the dean of men, at the college. Out-of-town people as especially invited.

Five hundred years ago when the members of the Vienna choir boys were accustomed to visit the house of a feudal lord, they traveled along the Austrian highways in donkey carts. Today the choir members speed along concrete highways from city to city in a shining, high-powered bus accompanied by Rector Schmitt, Musical Director Gruber and Nurse Nuhbacher, who watches over their food and clothing.

The 26 representatives come from a membership of 62 whose headquarters are in Vienna, the Castle Wilhelmshurg, where they are taught both secular subjects and trained in music. Franz Schubert was once a member of their organization.

Two years ago the boys appeared in an American movie. They love sports. The troupe consumes gallons of milk each day during their barnstorming trips and special menus of paprika chicken and goulash are prepared for them wherever they stop.

Shower Is Given Bride of Summer

Dr. P. A. Loar to Address Parent-Teachers Tonight

SCOTT'S MILLS, Jan. 20.—A post-nuptial shower, honoring Mrs. Alvin Schultz (Goldie Miles) was given at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon. The Schultzes were married at Stevenson, Wash., last August, but did not reveal the news to friends and relatives here until Christmas day. The bride received many lovely gifts.

Those present at the shower were: Mrs. Mae Dimick, Mrs. Alice Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Saucraig, Mrs. M. T. Dunagan, Mrs. Joe Baer, Mrs. Edith Aggee, Mrs. Zella Smith, Mrs. Walter Miles, Mrs. Ralph Hearst, Mrs. J. E. Jones, Mrs. Levi Kallis, Mrs. Hazel Truesler, Mrs. Marvin Dart, and the Misses Evelyn Sova, Margaret Chum, Marie Wakefield, Mildred Coulson, Mildred Rich, Ruth Kellis, Violet and Margaret Landwing, Elsie Pownall, Evelyn Taylor, Jess Dixon and the honored guest, Goldie Schultz.

Jim Lee, a neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Loar, was a visitor at their home last week. He has moved to Olanogon, Wash., recently.
