Pruning Theme of Demonstrations

First of Series Arranged For Farmers Will Be January 29

DALLAS, Jan. 21.—W. C. Leth, Polk county agent, has scheduled a number of pruning demonstrations to be held at various locations in the county during the next few weeks. The first one will be held on January 29 at 10 o'clock, at the De Jong orchard about three-fourths mile south of Ballston and about one mile west. In the afternoon at 1:30 of this same day Leth will hold a demonstration on the farm of George Eggert, which is located one mile southwest of Ferrysdale.

Three demonstrations will be held near Dallas. The first will be on the Walter Marsh farm about one-half mile north of Dallas February 4 at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock a demonstration will be held in the Pioneer district on the G. C. Dorchecker place, four miles northwest of Dallas on the Pioneer road.

February 5 a demonstration will be held at Frank Lane's orchard located on the Highland road three miles south of Independence at 10 a.m. In the afternoon of the same day at 2 o'clock a demonstration will be given at the Mark Capps place, opposite the golf course on the Rickreall-Salem highway.

West Salem fruit growers will be interested in the demonstrations to be held February 3 at 10 o'clock at the Fred Ewing and M. Hadespeck orchards which are located across the road from each other and about three miles from Salem on the Wallace road. In the afternoon a demonstration will be given on the Mosher farm at 2 o'clock. This farm is one mile from Salem on the Glenn Creek road which is the first road to the left after crossing the railroad track going north on the Wallace road.

The last demonstration is scheduled for February 9 at 10 a.m. in the Guthrie section on the J. R. Kennedy farm, 4 1/2 miles south of Dallas on the Falls City road. It is one-half mile north of Fern's prune drier.

All Farmers Invited. Any farmers desiring pruning information are requested to attend these demonstrations. Most of the work is prune trees, but pruning of other orchards will be considered if there is need for it, according to Mr. Leth. Newcomers are especially urged to attend.

The best tools for pruning and the equipment which each man should have to do a satisfactory job are a pole pruning saw and a pair of lopping shears, according to Leth.

Byrd will be presented twice, once at a children's matinee, starting at 3 o'clock, and again in the evening at 8:15 o'clock. Arrangements are being completed with Lane county school authorities to allow all grade and high school students to attend the matinee.

Admiral Byrd will illustrate his lecture with 9000 feet of new motion picture film, showing the extent of his recent geographical discoveries, his scientific finds, with interesting sidelights of life at Little America and thrilling moments from the adventures of the exploring parties which penetrated the unknown region by airplane, ship, snow tractor and dogsledge.

Holiness Society Gathering Sunday

A union missionary meeting will be held at the Highland Friends church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association. The speaker will be the Rev. Miss Clara G. Ford, who has been some years in pioneer work in Africa for the National Holiness association.

Miss Ford was virtually raised on the foreign mission fields. Her parents were missionaries for many years in Africa. The mother passed away in Africa some years ago, and her father, Jefferson W. Ford, is now in Africa with the Friends work.

Miss Ford is also slated to be with the South Salem Friends at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Edgar P. Sims, president of the Holiness association, urges attendance by all members and the public at the meetings.

Oldenberg's Next Move Not Decided

L. R. Oldenberg's next move in defending himself against the Oregon Milk Control board has not yet been decided upon, his attorney, Roy Harland, said yesterday. Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling this week upheld the milk control law in overruling a demurrer filed by Oldenberg. Final decision as to whether the defense will appeal from Lewelling's ruling on the demurrer or answer the complaint and stand trial is being held up pending a conference with associate attorneys in Portland, Harland stated.
