Silverton Chapter Slates
Annual Father-Son
Fete Feb. 22

SILVERTON, Jan. 21. — The Silverton chapter of Future

Farmers of America will broadcast a program from the KOAC station between 7:00 and 7:30 o'clock Saturday night. The general theme will be "Parent and Son Banquets" which will be dramatized by Erwin Nichodemus, Leonard Lichty, Maurice DuVal, Max Schlottman, Robert Humphreys, Ed Martin, Ed Farrel, and Paul and Pauline Jones. F.F.A. musical numbers will be broadcast by Ed Martin playing a harmonica, Paul and Pauline Jones giving numbers on the saxophone with piano accompaniment and by Ed Farrel on his violin.

This group accompanied by the Smith-Hughes instructor, Warren E. Crabtree, plan to put in most of the day Saturday making a tour of O.A.C.

Organize Dairy Co-op

The Silverton F.F.A.'s recently organized a Dairy Cooperative among members interested in promoting the interests of dairying in the community. Calvin Mikkelsen is president, Erwin Nichodemus is secretary and Otto Davenport, vice-president and treasurer.

One of the big events of the year for Silverton Future Farmers is the parent and son banquet, slated February 22.

The Silverton F.F.A. chapter is glad to learn through the state adviser, Earl R. Cooley of Salem, that the Future Farmers will have a separate division for the showing of crops and livestock at the state fair this year, and that the dairy coat of production and egg feed cost contests and farm mechanics and machinery repair displays will be continued.

Meet at Molalla. A joint meeting of the Silverton and the Molalla Future Farmers was held at Molalla Friday night, the initiation ceremonies being conducted by the Molalla chapter. A large number of parents and friends of the Molalla group attended and heard a talk given by the Silverton instructor,

Storms Take Huge Damage Toll

Scene in Columbia, Mo.

Scenes such as this were typical in Missouri and surrounding states after the belated arrival of winter, bringing with it an ice storm described by the U. S. weather bureau as the worst in 17 years. When this huge tree fell during the storm, it came down across a cable, forming an archway over the street in Columbia, Mo.

Silverton boys initiated into the "Future Farmer" degree were Robert Leonard, Joe Doerfler, Clinton Wampler, Leroy Downing, Jack Rice and Max Schlottman.
