

Double Header On W. U. Court

Bearcats Seek to Recover From Jinx; Salem Has Tough Opponent

Basketball and more basketball is on the air for Salem fans tonight as Willamette and Salem high teams join in their first and probably last double-header engagement of the year.

Oregon Normal, one of three teams which have beaten the Bearcats this year, will meet Willamette in a return engagement in the 5:30 nightcap while Salem and Corvallis high school quint clash in the 7:30 game.

In reality the program is a triple-header for Salem and Corvallis B teams will be on the floor at 6:30 to open the parade.

Coach Al Cox's Oregon Normal Wolves handed the Bearcats their worst defeat of the season 38 to 27 in their initial meeting at Nonmouth this year. It was the sixth straight win for the Wolves over Willamette, a record that the Bearcats will be out to break tonight.

Were Too Confident Over-confidence, brought on by a trouncing the Willamette five landed the Teachers in a pre-season practice session, was blamed by the Bearcats for their first defeat and they will be ready for anything in tonight's game.

Mohler, big Normal center, and Borden, veteran guard, led the Wolves in their first onslaught against the Bearcats. They will start tonight along with O'Connell and Raikko, forwards, and Sellwood, guard.

Champions Return Coach "Mush" Torson's state champion Corvallis team will come to Salem for the first time since it captured the state title in the tournament. Two regulars of the state title team, Elmo Crockett, forward, and Bill Blackledge, center, remain on the Corvallis quint which has recently been strengthened by the addition of Otto Skopfl, former Salem player.

Skopfl, who will probably start for Corvallis in a forward post, will be playing his first game against his former school.

Coach Harold Hauk will probably start Medley and Galaher at forwards, Hill at center, and Chambers and Upston at guards.

Camas Grapplers Unable to Appear Salem high wrestlers will have to put off their season opener another week as learned yesterday when Camas high, whose matmen were scheduled to meet the Vikings today, postponed the match because of flu. All basketball games and other activities have been cancelled at Camas, Vern Gilmore was told.

Unless flu, which has now caused two postponements for the Vikings, hits again Salem will open against Corvallis at Corvallis Friday. An abbreviated match with School for the Blind wrestlers is slated Wednesday.

Wrestlers who have been showing the best ability and who were scheduled to appear in the Camas meet today are: 195 pounds, John Sugal, William McCarroll;

Frosh Top Rooks In First Contest Of Annual Series

CORVALLIS, ORE., Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Oregon State Rooks lost their basket eye midway in the last half of tonight's game with the University of Oregon Frosh and dropped the first tilt in the annual four-games series 40 to 32.

The Frosh led at mid-game 23 to 21 after a hectic period which saw the lead change hands 11 times and the score tied six.

The winners collected seven field goals in the final frame while limiting the Rooks to four.

Defying Father Time

By BURNLEY

TWO GRIZZLED VETERANS, MALONE AND HADLEY WERE MOUND MAINSTAYS OF THE 1936 CHAMPS

WELL SHOW THESE UPSTARTS!

BUT THE YANKS WILL HAVE A SERIOUS PITCHING PROBLEM IF THESE GREYBEARDS ARE MOVED DOWN BY THE OLD SCYTHE THIS YEAR-- WILL THEY COME THRU?

Jack Butterworth, center for Oregon Normal for several years, is going to town for Bill Reinhart at George Washington U. George Washington was undefeated with seven straight wins. The wins were over Johns Hopkins, Marshall, Nebraska, Mt. St. Mary's, St. Johns (of Brooklyn), Elon and Wake Forest, all except Nebraska by at least a 20-point margin. The Nebraska margin was only 19. Butterworth scored 17 points against St. Johns and has been leading the George Washingtons in scoring all the way. Little Dave Osborn, another star, is back at George Washington but is not playing regularly.

The zone defense is taking it on the chin in the east here, probably more than anywhere else. Basketball is played for profit. Paradoxically, the best against the zone defense is that it is too good, meaning that by cutting down wild and rapid scoring it kills spectator interest. The spectators like the fire-horse brand of ball and take to their hearts the team that is all offense and no defense.

Stanford is said to have the slickest zone defense of all, a zone defense that is more an offense than a defense. For a fast-breaking team like Stanford a zone defense does give it a certain edge when the team switches to the offensive. Stanford has worked its zone out to such perfection and has such capable players that four men can handle the defense, leaving the sure-shot Angelo Mabeck free for a quick scoring break down the floor.

Coach Eldon Come of Woodburn has a B-team player who is developing into something of a Frank Merriwell. He has gone into three games late in the final period, won them all with a last-minute field goal.

Ex-Beaver Stars Win From Rooks In Hard Battle

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 22.—With lanky Cliff Folen, former Oregon State star, caging 14 tallies to take high point honors, Wagner's quintet composed entirely of former Beaver stars, captured a hard fought game from the Orange fox tonight with a 38 to 30 count. Wednesday night on the Corvallis high school court.

The decided height advantage held by the Wagner five proved too much for the freshmen basketballers, although they were able to hold their own during the first half when the score stood 18 all when the timer's gun was fired.

Roy Plugrad, all-state player from Corvallis, tossed in 11 tallies to capture scoring honors for the yearlings.

KLAMATH FALLS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Leone Avrit, former Oregon State college fullback, resigned today after six years as head football coach at Klamath Union high school.

Although no successor has been named, it was understood that both Max Temple of Bendleton and Fritz Dramer of Eugene are considered for the post. Temple played for the University of Oregon and Dramer at Washington State college.

Avrit came to Klamath Falls from Corvallis when Klamath Union football was in a depression. His record against all competition in conference play. Last fall his team defeated Medford, 3 to 0, for man-mountain, to a one-round knockout victory over Terry Mill of California here tonight.

Oilers Defeat Bearcats 35-31

Jerry Thomas, Late Entry For Visitors, Spoils Final W. U. Rally

Wally Palmberg didn't show up when Union Oil's basketball team played Willamette last night because he could hardly be expected to leave his own wedding for a basketball game.

Willamette would have been lucky if Jerry Thomas had had to go to a wedding or his grand-uncle's funeral or something for his first field goals and three free throws did a lot toward giving the Oilers a 35 to 31 win over the Bearcats.

Thomas, a former Washington State star, went into the game when five minutes were left in the second half and immediately started potting field goals, much to the chagrin of the Bearcats. If it hadn't been for him they might have been able to sprint ahead in the second half but as it was they trailed all the way, managing only to tie the score in the last two minutes.

The tip near end Anton's field goal and free throw with two minutes to go tied the score at 31 all around. Put the Bearcats in the way of staging the all-important rally but the Oilers shot a lot of missed shots and fouling.

Big Howie Grenier, whose gargantuan height was a little overwhelming to the Bearcats, dropped in the winner, a free throw, for the Oilers and Thomas made it more emphatic by holing out in the last minute and a free throw.

After a slow first half which ended with the Oilers leading 12 to 9, Jerry Gastineau, connecting for four field goals, led the Bearcats in the rally that eventually caught up with the Oilers.

Gastineau, as he has in the last three games, plopped a long shot three seconds after the half opened but a seven-point sprint by the Oilers kept the Bearcats from going anywhere. It was 20 to 11 when Gastineau dropped in two more from close range but the Oilers pulled away again. They led 24 to 16 when Bill Beard, taking Weaver's place when he went out on fouls, holed out and Nunn followed with another field goal. That made it 24 to 16.

Bearcats Close Gap Grenier reached up and knocked in a basket in a scramble free throw that missed a free throw by Nunn and a field goal from Anton's big mitt brought the Bearcats within three points with six minutes to go.

Robertson sank a long one and Beard, taking a long pass from Anton, holed out a triple but Budd Jones plopped one in from the foul line.

Beard followed Weaver to the bench on fouls and Grenier made the tip shot, making it 31 to 28 and then Gastineau got one from the corner to tie the score at 31 all.

The Oilers managed to keep the ball in their end of the court the remaining two minutes and when the Bearcats did get in their own territory they either threw the ball away or lost it on hopeless shots.

The margin of victory lay in the free throws from the 28 personal fouls called. Union Oil made 11 of its 19 gift shots while Willamette made 7 out of 11. Field goals were even at 12.

Stayton Cagemen Get Into Action

STAYTON, Jan. 22.—With the hall in sports events at an end this week, three of Stayton's basketball quints saw action. Last week the high school squad dropped a close game to Mill City high team here, while the local grade school took 16 to 14 victory from Mill City graders. This win gave the 1936 county champs their fourth consecutive victory for the season.

The high school squad journeyed to Gates this weekend when it will seek to better their percentage average of .500. The Gates team holds low position in the Santiam League. The Gates team is reported as greatly improved since their opening tilt of the league schedule.

The local town team has been drilling hard for a heavy schedule ahead, and the present lineup is one of the strongest and smoothest working combination organized here in the past several seasons.
