

Three Musical Events Scheduled During Coming Week

MUSIC centers the social calendar for the coming week, with several important major musical events scheduled for Salem. Musicians of the city will appear in the several concerts, with visiting guest artists on the same programs.

Miss Melton's Musicale
This afternoon, music-minded folk will gather at the studio of Miss Virginia Melton, 324 North Capitol street, at 4 o'clock to meet the internationally known pianist, Miss Olga Steeb. The occasion is another of Miss Melton's delightful musical teas, given each month at her studio.

Miss Steeb, the honor guest, played the Brahms Sonata, op. 5 in Portland yesterday, coming directly here as guest of Miss Melton. She is well known as a concert pianist in this country and Europe, having played in concert on both the continent and in the United States. She now heads the piano school in Los Angeles which bears her name.

Miss Steeb will play several selections during the afternoon. The younger students of Miss Melton who are on the afternoon program are: Margaret Wunderlick, Jean Claire Swift, Helen Ruth Mars, Rosemary Gaiser and Louise Deviny. Students from the Oregon Normal school who will play are: Warren T. Elliott and Bernice Bubolz.

Advanced students from the Melton studio are: Eleanor Aspinwall, Elizabeth Lewis and Lois Burton.

Miss Blanche Cohen, mezzo soprano, teacher of voice at Oregon Normal school, Monmouth, will sing two groups including "My Heart Ever Faithful," Bach; "Have You Seen But a Whyte Lily Grow," old English; "Varnka's Song," by Von Stutzman; Schubert's "Ungehdnd"; "My Love Is Like the Red, Red Rose," MacDermid; "Will o' the Wisp," Sposs. Fred Neal will accompany her at the piano.

In the reception line after the program will be Miss Steeb, Mrs. Frank Eichenlaub, state president of the Oregon State Music Teachers' association; Mrs. David Eason, president of the Salem branch; Mrs. Kate Dell Marden, state president of the National Federation of Music Clubs; Miss Martha Reynolds and Mrs. Edith Densmore.

Others assisting Miss Melton are: Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Miss Alice Cray Brown, Mrs. Phil Marrett, Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Walter Denton, Mrs. J. A. Hoyt, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. James Green, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. Charles Sherman, Misses Eleanor and Elaine Sherman, Lois James, Vivian Aspinwall, Bettie Lou Elliott, Margaret Siegmund, Maxine Holt, Helen Methcreek, June McGinnis, Frances Paris.

Pouring will be Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. Mable Powers and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Philharmonic Orchestra
The next musical treat is the Salem Philharmonic orchestra's concert to be given tomorrow night in Leslie auditorium when the group of young musicians will present a program, under the direction of Jacques Gershkovitch. Miss Jeannette Scott, concertmaster, will play an incidental solo with strings accompanying.

Bernard Barron, guest soloist for the evening, is well known as a cellist and his appearance here is of special interest as it is his first concert in the northwest with an orchestra.

Here is the program for the evening's concert:

Overture to Oberon	Karl Maria von Weber
Orchestration by Gershkovitch
Dance of the Nymphs	Hector Berlioz
Variations Symphonique	Leon Boellmann
For cello and orchestra.
The Deluge	Camille Saint-Saens
Incidental solo, Jeannette Scott.
Nutcracker Suite	Peter Tchaikowsky
March
Arabian Dance
Russian Dance
Waltz of the Flowers

This is the second of a series of three concerts planned for the winter season to be given by the Salem Philharmonic orchestra.

MacDowell Club
The third on our week's series of musical events is the concert by the Portland Ad Club Gleemen under the auspices of the MacDowell club at Leslie auditorium on Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

The Portland Ad Club Gleemen chorus is under the able direction of William Robinson Boone and have planned a contrasted concert of numbers including a group of sacred songs, Russian folk songs, and several semi-popular selections. All proceeds from the concert will be given by the MacDowell club toward flood relief, and it is hoped that a substantial contribution to this cause may be realized through the funds from the Ad Club's appearance Wednesday.

The program includes the following numbers:

Sanctus	Vladana
Son of Mary	Diack
Glory to God in the Highest	Pergolesi
Soloists—Virgil Day, Ned Dickinson, Gordon Fowle—The Gleemen
Clouds	Charles
O Dry Those Tears	Del Riego
Now Is the Month of Maying (Madrigal)	Morley (1557-1603)
Fire-Flies	Russian Folk Song
Song of the Life-Boat Men	Russian Folk Song
At Father's Door	Russian Folk Song
Drake's Drum	Coleridge-Taylor
My Heart Is a Silent Violin	Fox-Andrews
O' Man River	Kern
Deep River	arr. by Burlingame
The Wanderers	Rasbach
Pirate Song	Gilbert
Auf Wiederseh'n	Romberg
The Oregon Trail	arr. Stanley Giarum

The Gleemen's concert will be followed by a supper party at the Woman's clubhouse in honor of the singers, their wives, members of the Salem Ad club and the MacDowell club.

American Legion Will Entertain Guests

Members of the American Legion and auxiliary are planning a dinner and program to honor the legislators and their wives, the Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary and the Disabled War Veterans and auxiliary in Fraternal Temple on Monday night.

The covered dish dinner at 6:30 will begin the meeting, and a program will follow. Those in charge of the social hour are Mrs. Leon Brown, general chairman; Mrs. Fred Jaeger, kitchen, assisted by Mrs. Glenn Sealey, Mrs. Norman McDonald, Mrs. Ray Stumbo, Mrs. Marie Travis, Mrs. George Bartlett, Mrs. James Cooke, Mrs. William Taw, Mrs. O. E. Palmater, Mrs. Doris McClelland and Mrs. Les Newman. Girls of the Junior auxiliary will serve.

Miss Sedgwick Engaged To Emmett Kleinke

An interesting engagement was made known in Dallas Wednesday night when Miss Betty Sedgwick, daughter of Mrs. Grace Sedgwick of Portland, announced her betrothal to Emmett Kleinke, son of Mrs. Louise Kleinke of Salem. Miss Sedgwick is a graduate of Oregon State College and was a member of Beta Phi sorority. She is on the Dallas high school faculty. Mr. Kleinke is a graduate of Balm schools and is in business in Salem. Miss Viola Crozier, Miss Nadine Villhollen and Miss Sedgwick were hostesses for the party which carried out the Valentine motif. The announcement was printed in the Valentine nuptials and also revealed the engagement of Miss Villhollen to Dr. Robert DuPriest, army doctor at Fort Lewis.

Woman's Club Tea Planned For Friday

ON FRIDAY at 3 o'clock, members of the Salem Woman's club will be hostesses at the annual benefit tea for the Children's Farm Home to be given in the Woman's clubhouse on South Cottage street.

The major part of the program will be the showing of moving pictures by Kathryn Gunnell. These films are in natural colors, and show scenery and industries of Oregon.

Educating women in the beauties of Oregon and giving a knowledge of industries is one of the major projects of the State Federation of Women's clubs and this program will aid toward that end.

Proceeds of the silver tea will go to the Children's Farm Home. Mrs. L. M. Devers heads the committee on arrangements, and is to be assisted by Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. Charles Gallo-way, Mrs. Harry Belt, Miss George Rosman, Mrs. George Swift, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxon, Mrs. Kenneth Burdock, Mrs. John Hand, Mrs. Saul Jans and Mrs. Lester Pearline.

Miss Beth Siewert Tea Hostess Today

A LOVELY event of today is the Valentine tea for which Miss Beth Siewert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Siewert will be hostess at her home on North Winter street. Calling hours will be from three to five o'clock. Over 75 invitations have been issued to members of the younger contingent.

Miss Mary Parker and Miss Edith Heise will open the door. Miss Siewert and her mother will receive their guests informally in the drawing room.

The Valentine motif will be used in the decorations. Large bouquets of red tulips will be arranged in the living room. The tea table will be covered with a white lace cloth centered with attractive arrangement of red carnations and freesias in a silver bowl guarded by red tapers in silver holders and red cellophane placed on the table.

Young maids who will assist in the serving and about the rooms will be Miss Patricia Bachmann, Miss Vivian Aspinwall, Miss Janet and Miss Betty Byrd, Miss Barbara Crain, Miss Vivian Milligan, Miss Virginia Martin, Miss Vera Bechler, Miss Suzanne Schramm, Miss Jere Simmons, Miss Lila Murray, Miss Marylee Fry, Miss Mary Ellen Mills, Miss Jane Simmons, Miss Harriett Crawford and Miss Mary Esther Pemberton.

Seen and Heard

By Jerome Upston
INFORMAL INITIATION has its laughs for us... tears for the pledges... no make-up, no dates, not a minute of peace, not a word to the male sex, and oh how hard it is just to say hello and smile... Upperclassmen appearing at the psychological moment to catch them unaware... more black marks against their record... They give stunts at their houses... obey orders of sisters, go on errands down town, darn stockings, clean rooms... even invade the attic and basements much to their regret... A week which will have its memories.

CLIMAXING a busy week for both initiates and members at Willamette was the intersorority formal Friday night... It was more or less a celebration party and officially opened the social season for the second semester. Everyone had a gay time... Lucille Chanin very good-looking time and wore a deep rose taffeta dress made with full skirt and sleeves trimmed in deeper velvet... Together as usual the well-known foursome... Lucille Brainard and John Kelly and Marguerite Clarke and Louis Stutt... Lucille was lovely in nullberry taffeta made on princess lines with tiny buttons from neck to hem... Marguerite in one of the new smart white lace boleros with wide lace at the bottom of the black skirt... Eddie Averill, Marian's brother, up from Oregon escorted Annette Jordan, sophisticated in a model of rust brocaded satin.

FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE... at the tea for which Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead was hostess Thursday honoring Mrs. George Chaney from Coquille... Grand friends are Mrs. Moorhead and Mrs. Chaney, dating from the time Mrs. Moorhead resided in Coquille... The hostess and honor guest received informally... Mrs. Chaney was lovely in emerald silk trimmed with embroidered flowers and shades of roses lace... Our gracious hostess wore rust crepe... Woman's club trio sang during the afternoon, several being arranged especially by Mrs. Mav

Abels-Lehman Vows Aid Recently

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman, and Richard Abels is of interest to Salem folk. The wedding took place January 30 at the Presbyterian parsonage with Dr. Grover C. Birchett officiating.

Mrs. Abels is a graduate of Oregon State college and attended Willamette university where she was a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. At present she is Home Economics instructor in the high school at Reedsport. Mr. Abels is a graduate of Oklahoma State college and is in business in Reedsport.

The covered dish dinner planned by members of the American

Rogers, the accompanist... A number of the sons' wives called... among them Mrs. W. H. Steiwer of Fossil, Mrs. Walter E. Pearson of Portland, Mrs. George W. Dunn of Ashland and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey of Norway. Spring atmosphere prevailed about the rooms and on the tea table... A centerpiece of daffodils and freesias was on a large mirror surrounded by matching tapers in low silver holders... Everyone had a grand time saving the afternoon was all too short.

SPINSTERS AT HOME last Sunday at the Curtis B. Cross home on Fairmount Hill... to the feminine contingent of the legislature and Salem matrons and maids... One-way traffic prevailed on the hill upon arriving at the tea... the snow not yet gone... Barbara Pierce and Lucy Fisher younger debs of the organization greeted guests at the door... Once inside the wintry day was forgotten and the gracious hospitality of the Spinsters and their patronesses as they greeted you made you feel right at home... Mrs. Cross received guests in a lovely gown of gold metal cloth and wore a corsage of gardenias... While we were there Mrs. Frank Spears and Mrs. George A. White, spinner patronesses were in the living room... Mrs. Spears in black with figured top of gold and rose metal cloth and Mrs. White in deep red velvet... Just a few of the good-looking gowns... Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman in the taffeta with matching velvet trim carrying an old-fashioned nosegay... Caroly Braden in bright rust crepe dinner gown with black sequins... Mrs. Robert Drager in royal blue lace with red... Serving in the dining room were Esther Wood in black velvet accented with a string of pearls and Jean Probert in orchid and lavender chiffon made on flowing lines... Chatting in one corner were Mrs. Lowell Kern in a smart black suit and Mrs. Paul Hendricks in a good-looking tan coat with Tuxedo front of beaver. As we were leaving Mrs. Carl Collins (Iris Jorgensen) dropped in from Eugene and was greeted by all of her friends... It was one of the loveliest tea we've been to in a long time.

Officers and those who have received invitations may, if they desire, exchange their invitations for tickets before the dance by sending Captain N. K. Raymond, 608 First National bank building, or members of the committee.

Mrs. Ray Glatt is entertaining a group of her friends at a formal dinner party at Godfrey's before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Raymond, and many others have invited guests to pre-dance parties.

Miss Turtle Honored At Party

Miss Beatrice Turtle was the honor guest at a Valentine party for which Mrs. James S. Stewart was hostess Saturday night at her home on Court street. Bridge and games were in play during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead and Mrs. Leona Dolose. Mrs. Hal Stewart and Miss Adelaide Rockwood assisted in the serving. The serving table was centered with a bouquet of red tulips and freesias flanked with red tapers. Guests were Miss Turtle, Dr. and Mrs. E. Bers, Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper, Miss Betty Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Isherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Stewart, Mrs. Leona Dolose, Miss Grace L. Taylor, Miss Dorothy Holmes, Miss Margaret McAlpine, Miss Helen Bird, Miss Adelaide Rockwood, Miss Henrietta Stewart and John Merritt.

The Sigma Nu Delphians will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Salem Public Library. Election of officers will be held and all members are asked to be present.

Military Ball Valentine Season Gay Is Formal Affair With Many Dances Given by Clubs

MILITARY circles throughout the state are alive with interest in the forthcoming brilliant ball to be held in Salem. Promptly at 10 o'clock the evening of February 22nd, the Crystal Gardens will become the pulsant setting of a most spectacular grand march. Full military honors will be paid to distinguished officers with bugles heralding their arrival as they enter the ballroom to lead the grand march in the escort of their aides and colors.

Dancing will start at 9 to allow time for as many as possible to arrive before this most extraordinary event. Bart Woodyard's rhythmic music will be augmented with singers and other entertainers. Cars will be greeted at the curb by national guardsmen assisting as doormen and other guardsmen at the entrance.

Every consideration is being given by the Reserve Officers to make Salem's Military ball the most distinctive and spectacular dance of the year in Oregon. The ball is strictly invitation-only and formal. Absolutely no men not in uniform, tuxedo, or full dress clothes will be admitted to dull this richly vibrant regalia.

Officers and those who have received invitations may, if they desire, exchange their invitations for tickets before the dance by sending Captain N. K. Raymond, 608 First National bank building, or members of the committee.
