Leap Night Dance Daleth Teth Gimel At High School Initiation And Banquet Today

THE woman pays and pays, at least she will tonight when girls of the Salem high school step right up and ask to be boys' escorts to the annual Leap Night dance in the gym. Valentine decorations will add to the romantic atmosphere. Maxine Goodenough, chairman for the affair, admits that there will be a big Valentine drop behind Barney Kropp and his orchestra with ceiling decorated by hearts.

The decorating for the affair is done by Eileen Lester, Caroline Brown, Frank Page, Bob Van Patton, Josephine Jones, Bill Smith, Birdie Hebel and Eileen Goodenough. Invitations are in charge of Jeanette Eulst and Esther Mae DeVore. Vera Walker and Herbert Grant are in charge of advertising and the lone cleaner-upper is Clifford Niles. Reception is in charge of Geraldine Arnett and Mary McCall.

It's a completely feminine treat, girls call for and return boys, take them to eat afterwards and even help them across mud puddles. Hours are from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock and girls should get the boys in early!

Zontians Plan To Entertain Chairman

THE Salem Zonta club met at the Marion hotel yesterday noon for the regular lunch and business meeting.
