Varied Thefts Are Admitted

One Parole Revoked, Two Men Go to Jail, Fourth To Juvenile Court

A series of thefts—of chickens, a radio, pile driver hammer and automobile parts—was cleared up by justice and circuit court action yesterday afternoon with the result two men began jail sentences, one went to the penitentiary on a revocation of parole and a youth, charged in connection with the chicken case, was certified to juvenile court.

After Jesse "Pete" Holland had pleaded guilty in justice court to larceny of an automobile headlight lens and other parts, and been sentenced to 60 days in the county jail, Circuit Judge L. H. McWhan revoked his parole from a two-year penitentiary sentence. Deputy Sheriff B. G. Honeycutt immediately took Holland to the jail and he was committed to the penitentiary for the two-year sentence in October, 1935, for a statutory offense.

Bennett Wheeler pleaded guilty in justice court to four larceny charges, involving a radio, chicken, pile driver hammer and the same automobile headlight lens and other parts. The charge of stealing the radio, from J. E. Roman last August, Wheeler was given a suspended $100 fine, a 90-day jail sentence and placed on probation for two years. For the chicken theft, from Mike Crawe, he was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail and for the automobile parts theft, 30 days, to be served following the 60-day term. He was then committed to the grand jury on the pile driver hammer larceny charge.

Ralph Harris, charged along with Wheeler with the chicken theft, also received a 60-day jail sentence. His 17-year-old brother, Joe Harris, was turned over to juvenile court.

University Forum Speakers Coming

Kiwanis and Rotary Next Week to Hear Quintet on Leading Issues

Leading orators from the University of Oregon will be in Salem February 23 and 24, and people of this vicinity will have the opportunity of hearing the nationally-famous university "forum" in operation.

Under the new system of forensics at the university the old-fashioned debates with "affirmative" and "negative" sides have been abolished and instead students prepare themselves on up-to-the-minute topics and then address various communities on these subjects.

Five Will Speak

In Salem, John Lavana, Eugene, and Ed Robbins, Newton Center, Mass., will discuss "Newborn Day Governments," and Walter Eschebeck, Malin; Avery Combs, Culver, and Bernard Hall, Portland, will talk on one of the most vital topics of the day, "Constitution and the Supreme Court."

All five of these students are regarded as excellent speakers and have a thorough knowledge of their subjects. Following the speeches the audience will be invited to take part in a discussion on the subjects.

The schedule of appearances for the speakers in this area is as follows: February 22, Hillsboro high school and Newberg chamber of commerce. February 23, Woodburn high school, Salem Kiwanis and Sherburne at 6 p. school, February 24, Salem Rotary.
